

Faculty Members On Tour

President Newburn And Five Others To Visit Oregon Towns

A group of six University of Oregon faculty members proposing to further the availability of the University's educational service will leave today on a speaking tour through several Oregon towns.

The group includes President Harry K. Newburn; Dr. R. C. McCall, head of the speech department; Theodore Kratt, dean of the music school; Les Anderson, Oregon alumni secretary; Lyle Nelson, director of information; and Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs.

They are to attend University of Oregon day in Klamath Falls today and a Lion Club banquet tonight.

Dr. Newburn will join the group in Medford Wednesday where he will talk on a subject concerning education at the University.

On Thursday the members will conclude the tour in Grants Pass where they will attend a joint meeting of the Oregon alumni and Oregon mothers and Dads' associations.

Greek Houses To Stay With USA

In statements made to the Emerald yesterday, representatives of seven Greek houses stated their houses would remain with the USA.

These groups, along with the Phi Psi, had withdrawn from the Greek bloc (AGS) last spring in a move to "guarantee that our members may vote according to the dictates of their own consciences."

The representatives expressed no desire to follow Phi Kappa Psi back to the Associated Greek Students organization. They said house members were satisfied to stay with the USA party.

Houses contacted by the Emerald included Phi Sigma Kappa, Zeta Tau Alpha, Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Alpha Xi Delta, and Delta Zeta.

Annual Frosh Glee Canceled Financial Flop, Says Council

The Frosh Glee will not be held this year. At a special meeting last night, the executive council voted unanimously to call off the traditional freshman class function.

Financial statements of the past three Frosh Glee influenced the negative decision. Dick Williams, educational activities manager, reported that the 1946 dance had broken even; the 1947 dance lost $100; and the 1948 dance went in the red $190.

Judging from the figures, Williams said that the dance will probably lose money again this year. Since the present sophomore class is in the hole over $500, the council decided that it would be a protection for this year's freshman class to wait until next year to undertake its first class function.

Ticket sales for the Glee have averaged 394 for the past three years. Average income has been $558 and average expenses, $655 making the average loss $97.

More specific details of the dance show that in 1946 the freshmen sold a total of 323 tickets at $1 each bringing in a net income of $323. Total expenses were $323. The dance broke even.

The following year 501 tickets at $1.33 each were sold making a net income of $775. Expenses totalled $875. The dance showed a loss of $100.

The 1948 Glee income totalled $575. 357 tickets were sold again at $1.33 each. Expenses tallied $765 and the dance lost $190.

When the student union is finished, it is hoped that the Frosh Glee will be made an affair for members of the freshman class and their dates only, Williams added. This will be done with the class approval, he said.

Phi Sigs' Moonlight Girl Finalists Picked

Phi Sigma Kappa's annual Moonlight Girl contest became reality for '49 with the announcement, today, of six finalists names by Art Wahlers, chairman of the house nominating committee. Chosen from photographs of candidates sponsored by women's living organizations are: Molly Muntzel, Kappa Alpha Theta; Leona Anderson, Alpha Delta Ji; Jeanette Houf, Alpha Chi Omega; Jeanne Merriion, Gamma Hall; Mary Handelin, Alpha Phi and Martha Cleveland, Gamma Phi Beta.

"Our choice of six girls was made especially difficult by the fact that all candidates are very photogenic", Wahlers commented in making the announcement.

Following initial choice of finalists, an introductory banquet will be held January 23 by the Phi Sigs for their six guests of honor.

Results of the final voting by members and pledges will not be known until the winter term formal on January 29. All six finalists, however, will be invited to attend. Elaborate plans have been made for presentation of the Moonlight Girl to her Phi Sigs.

A trophy, symbolic of the Moonlight Girl, is given the winning girl and retained in the possession of her sponsoring living organization for one year.

The contest began only last year with the active promotion of the national Phi Sigma Kappa. The national Moonlight Girl, chosen then, was sponsored by the University of Texas chapter house Psi Deuteron, U. of O. chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa, picked the former Ann Phetteplace, sponsored by Gamma Phi Beta.

IRC Plans Initial Meeting of Term

The International Relations club will hold its first open meeting, of the term at 7:30 tonight at Westminster house.

The club will act on resolutions passed at the IRC conference last term, discuss the conference, and make plans for the coming term.

Ticket Sales Begin For Senior Ball Tomorrow in Co-op

Price Tag Placed at $2.40; Representatives Will Sell Ducats in Living Organizations

Ticket for the Senior Ball will go on sale Wednesday and Thursday in the Co-op. Ticket Chairman Janet Beigal announced yesterday. Wally Heider and his orchestra will play for the dance January 22 at McArthur court.

The tickets, which sell for $2.40, are also being handled by representatives in the men's living organizations.

Miss Beigal emphasized yesterday that the annual Senior Ball is not for seniors only. It is an all campus dance, open to all students.

"The dance is traditionally formal, and flowers will be optional.

Patty Pritchard,

Patty Pritchard, vocalist with Heider's orchestra, was formerly with Ted Weems. She is currently staff vocalist at KNBC in San Francisco.

Heider's orchestra has been featured at the Terrace room of the Fairmont hotel and has recently played for college dances at California, St. Mary's, Stanford, and San Francisco university.

Miss Beigal yesterday released names of house representatives who are in charge of ticket sales. She asked that those houses that have no representatives contact her.

House Representatives

The house representatives are: Dick Steinoff, Alpha Tau Omega; Norm Weekly, Campbell club; Tom McLaughlin, Chi Psi; Al Pietschman, Delta Tau Delta; Clark Austin, Delta Upsilon.

John Lamb, Franch hall; Charles Snyder, McChesney hall; John George, Merrick hall; Bob Christ, Phi Delta Theta; Don Linstedt, Phi Gamma Delta; Rich Hopper, Phi Kappa Psi; Sam Plunkett, Pi Kappa Phi; Bob Webber, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Don Sharp, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Leon Benveniste, Sigma Alpha Mu; Lester Williams, Sherry Ross hall; Fred Young, Sigma Chi; J. Brown, Stan Ray hall; Mayo W. Goffard, Sigma hall.

Herb Luck, Sigma Nu; Bud Barnum, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ronald

(Please turn to page eight)

New Drive To Raise SU Funds

Alpha Phi Omega Back Calendar Sale Starting Tomorrow

A new fund-raising drive for the student union will be initiated tomorrow with a calendar sale sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, with the cooperation of Kwama and Skull and Dagger.

Members of these organizations will sell the "University of Oregon" calendars for $1.50, with profits going to the memorial union.

The calendar, in note book form, has black embossed leather covers. In addition memo space for every day in 1948, they include several pages for addresses, note space, and photographic scenes of the University.

WSSF Donations Fall Below Mark

Although the total will be substantially below last year's quota, students probably contributed over $1000 in this year's World Student Service Fund drive, Art Johnson, chairman, said yesterday.

The actual total has not been counted up, but is expected to be completed sometime this afternoon.

She Bears and Valentines Worry Columnist

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, (AP)—Is a housewife more sentimental than a showgirl? Is a blonde warmer than a brunette or redhead? What does a lady bear do in a bar? Yes, a real lady bear.

These pressing problems of romance and animal behavior were settled in a single action-filled afternoon on the pseudo-scientific front.

(Gad, and to think, when I was in college, my journalism instructor wasted time with such queries as, "if you owned a small, weekly newspaper and your leading advertiser got arrested for stomping a young orphan to death, would you print the story —or ask him for an ad?")

But to get back to the thermal nature of women and the barroom habits of she bears:

Six beautiful girls—A housewife, a business secretary, a college freshman, and three Broadway showgirls—were the subjects of the first test.

J. Harry Lange, 56-year-old salesman for the Hallmark greeting Card company, read a sentimental, novelty, and humorous valentine card.

His reactions were recorded in a "sentimeter," which is the nickname for 'a continuous-balance electronic potentiometer.' The machine scientifically records temperature changes of one-tenth of a degree in one-five hundredth of a second.

Well, guess what? The housewife registered "hot" on the sentimental greeting but "cold" for the novelty and humorous approaches. But that's no news. Any husband knows a wife can't see anything funny about love.

The secretary, on the other hand, registered no change at all. This may have been because she had been taught never to mix business and pleasure. Or it might be explained by the fact that Lange, after all, was to her only another bald-headed married stranger.

The reaction of the blonde showgirl to a lovey-dovey valentine was only "lukewarm." The brunette, Norma Thornton, of Iowa City, Ia., registered "warm-hot." The red-haired lass, Abbe Marshall, was clocked at "semi-boiling."

But the blonde—Judy Sinclair of Philadelphia—remarked:

"If they'll give with a fur coat instead of a valentine, I'll burn up the darn machine."

Then Lange himself climbed on the seat. As one showgirl read him a valentine, the other two suddenly threw their arms around him and kissed him. He zoomed the machine's pointer to "boiling." And who would that surprise? Everybody knows about bald-headed men.

Oh, yes, the bear.

Well, on the way back to the office I saw a crowd outside a bar. I went in and there was a trained Russian bear, standing behind the bar and wearing a white apron.

The bear was Russian. She was named Laura and weighed 375 pounds. She was drinking a mug of beer from Rita Colton, a television actress. One of the regular patrons was grumbling about the whole business.

"Give the bear a check," he grumbled. "Nobody lets me lap up beer free."

And I kept thinking about the decline of press agentry in old New York.