

Mil Queen House Candidates Due

Women's houses must submit names of their candidates for "Little Colonel" of the Military ball today, according to Carl Miller, president of Scabbard and Blade.

After all names are received, a board of Scabbard and Blade members will choose eight finalists on or around February 1. The choice of the "Little Colonel" will be by student vote. All students who buy tickets to the Military ball will have a chance to cast their ballot for the "Little Colonel" selection.

The Military ball will be February 26.

To win a reputation as a prophet one has only to predict trouble.

'Union Milkshake' Bar Needs Handle

WANTED—A clever name for the combination soda fountain—cafeteria which will be located in Oregon's student union. If anyone has some bright ideas on the subject, it would be greatly appreciated if he would submit them to the Educational Activities Office in Mac court.

Emerald Meeting

Reporters from campus organizations and honoraries have been asked to attend the next Emerald reporter's meeting which will be tonight at 7:00 in room 6, Journalism. All regular reporters have been asked to attend by Stan Turnbull, news editor.

SU Calendar Sale at Co-op

The Student Union Calendar sale will continue today. Kwamas, under the direction of Janet Hughes, will be in charge of sales in the Co-op and women's living organizations. Corky Mobley of Alpha Phi Omega and John Barton, Skull and Dagger, will handle sales in men's houses.

These "University of Oregon" calendars will sell for $1.50, with profits going to the memorial union building.

Discovery that there are 14 Reds in the state department was not made by examination of the department's policies.

With the Legislators

(Continued from page six)

side-the USSR—to show that they seriously want better relations.

His news conference comments were directed to recent statements by Palmiro Togliatti in Italy and Marcel Cachin in France, among others.

* * *

President Truman yesterday received a Bible to be used at his inauguration ceremony tomorrow. He made it an occasion to suggest that the ten commandments offer a good program for anyone to follow.

To reporters, most of them long-time friends, who watched the presentation ceremony, Mr. Truman commended especially the tenth commandment, saying they could "get a lot of good" from the study of it.

This commandment reads:

"Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house; thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbors."

The Bible is a two-volume reproduction of the Gutenberg Bible which was printed in Germany in the 15th century and was the first Bible printed from movable type.

The president also received today eight ivory figures representing the eight Chinese immortals. They were presented by Albert K. Chow, Democratic leader of San Francisco's Chinatown.

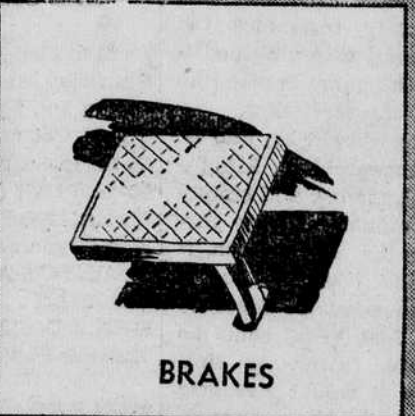

STEERING GEAR

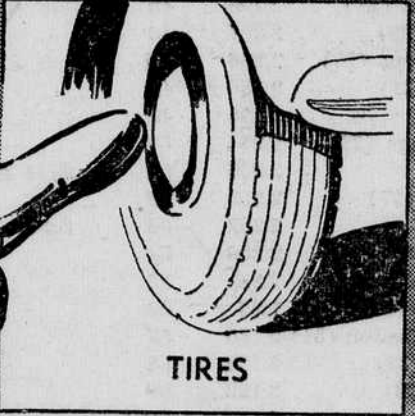

HORN

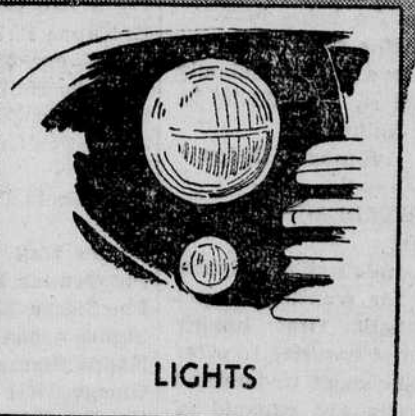

REAR-VISION MIRROR
WINDSHIELD WIPER

BRAKES

TIRES

LIGHTS

FOR YOUR SAFETY

Every known facility for safe operation and control of an automobile is built into it. These safety features have been given gruelling tests, they have been proved and perfected by years of the finest engineering experience. But their maintenance and handling are up to you. Safe driving depends upon the efficient operation of these factors.

Watch your steering gear for excessive play—keep your brakes in trim. inspect tires for weaknesses that may result in blowouts. Be sure all lights are working, "one-eyed" cars are dangerous. Check your mirror for clear rear-vision. Be sure your horn works—but don't abuse its use. Do your windshield wipers wipe?

Remember, no matter how good the safety features of your car—they are only as good as your ability to control them. If you are overtired from driving strain—stop, rest, drink a cup of coffee. If you are mentally or nervously upset, let someone else drive. If you've been drinking, stay off the road.

Keep your car—and yourself—always in condition for safe motoring.

