

Wife, Dowry Goal of Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 27 (AP)—Forest Hill seeks a wife with $15,000, cash.

He advertised himself in a film publication as 29, six feet tall, an engineering graduate, proficient dancer, kind, considerate, author of eight film scenarios, unsold.

"Disillusioned and tired of trying to break Hollywood's door and I offer myself in matrimony for better or worse to any qualified woman willing and able to furnish a $15,000 dowry," says the ad, "I wish to continue my writing, free from the pressure of frustration and poverty..."

With that Hill went into seclusion, leaving a friend, Leslie Langlois, to answer inquiries and a Beverly Hills postoffice box to receive applications.

Seniors Offered Guidance Tests

Seniors in advertising are eligible for vocational guidance tests sponsored by the American Association of Advertising Agencies, Harry Burton, Oregon chairman announced recently. These examinations will be given February 19 and 26, with the entry deadline set for February 5.

The tests will cover vocational interests and practical knowledge of advertising. Although the examination does not lead directly to jobs, the scores may be used in job applications. A fee of $15 will be charged for taking the application, which will be held in Portland. Further information may be procured from House and Leland, Portland.

Weber Chosen Class Officer

Bob Weber, junior in journalism, was appointed vice-president of the junior class yesterday afternoon, filling the vacancy left by the recent resignation of Bill Duhaime, former president, after which the vice-president assumed the higher office.

Selection was made from petitions by Malcolm MacGregor, president; Sally Waller, secretary; and Sue Michel, treasurer.

Weber is a member of Skull and Dagger, junior men's honorary, Order of the O, and is past president of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Assisting the class president in the coordination of Junior Weekend will be Weber's chief task.
