

Campus Calendar

(Notices for Campus Calendar should be turned in, in typewritten form, to the Emerald News Editor's office by 3 p.m. of the day preceding publication. Notices will not be accepted on Saturdays or Sundays.)

YWCA Meeting

The senior executive committee of the YWCA will hold a dinner meeting at 5:30 Wednesday to discuss nominations for cabinet positions, announced Laura Olson, president of the Y.

Christian Science

Christian Science organization will meet tonight at 7:45 in the YWCA. All persons connected with the University are invited to attend.

Christian Fellowship

Warren Webster, senior in social science, will speak at the meeting of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship tonight at 7 in the dining room of John Straub hall.

Webster, who has been prominent on campus religious groups for the past four years, will speak on "The Dunamais of God—a World Shaking Potential." The meeting will be informal, and all interested students are invited to attend.

YWCA Meeting

A coffee meeting of the international affairs committee of the YWCA will be held Wednesday at 6:45 at the Zeta Tau Alpha house, announced Marge Petersen and Amy Lou Ware, co-chairmen of the committee.

All foreign students and members of the committee are urged to attend to discuss plans for the International Festival, the chairman said.

She's so dumb she thinks Chase and Sanborn are wolves because they date every bag.

3 STYLES TO CHOOSE FROM

SMART WRITING PAPER

- CHOICE No. 1
150 Single Sheets and 75 Envelopes
- CHOICE No. 2
75 Double Sheets and 75 Envelopes
- CHOICE No. 3
75 Large Flat Sheets and 50 Envelopes

IMPRINTED WITH YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS

U of O Co-op Store

Dads' Day Activities

(Continued from page one)

originality. The signs must be two dimensional and cost no more than $6.

Judging of the signs will take place Friday at 4 p. m. and the award winners announced at the game that night. Alpha Phi won the cup last year.

The winner of the most dads contest will be decided on a proportional basis, depending on the number of students in the house, according to Shan Trebe, chairman of the committee.

Last year Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon took first place awards. It was the third win for the Tri Delts and they were allowed to keep the cup, so this year a new one will be awarded.

IRC Hears Wright At Westminster

Recent developments in French politics will be the subject of Gordon Wright's talk to the International Relations club at 7:30 tonight in Westminster house.

Wright, professor of history, was third secretary to the American Embassy in France following the war.

Tonight's IRC meeting is open to the public.

State Hooch Board Maintains Policy

PORTLAND, Jan. 28 —(AP)—Oregon's new state liquor commissioners, meeting for the first time today, announced they would continue present policies for the time being.

Chairman Carl W. Hogg, Salem, W. A. Spangler, Klamath Falls, and Richard W. Reeg, Eugene, posted bond and then heard administrator William H. Hammond outline commission procedures.

Hammond reported a 90-day liquor supply, worth about $10,000,000 now on hand. Sales, he said, average $3,300,000 monthly.

'Pardoner's Tale' Will Be Read

"The Pardoner's Tale" will be read by Dr. Philip W. Souers, head of the English department, this afternoon in the library browsing room from 4 until 5.

"The story is taken from Chaucer's 'Canterbury Tales,' a collection of stories written in the fourteenth century," said Dr. Souers. "Chaucer is rated by many along with Shakespeare and Milton. Like Shakespeare, he has a universal appeal because of his keen wit and understanding of human nature."

WAA Carnival Plans Approved By Board

The meeting of the house representatives for the WAA carnival resulted in the acceptance of the following themes: "Telegraph," Chi Psi, Theta Chi, Gamma hall; "Popcorn," Chi Omega, Cherney hall; "Peek-A-Boo-Schmoo," Phi Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi; "Shoot Helium Balloons," Delta Gamma, Sigma Chi; "Throw Golf Balls for Free Cigarettes," Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha hall.

"Dart Throw," Merrick hall, Zeta hall; "Freak Show," Alpha Tau Omega, Sederstrom hall; "Coin Toss in Water," Sigma Phi Epsilon, Rebec house; "Garden Golf," Alpha Chi Omega, Phi Sigma Kappa; "Water Pistol Shoot," Hendricks hall, Delta Upsilon; "Sling Shots," Alpha Gamma Delta, Stan Ray; "Turtle Racing," Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Kappa; "Ring on Finger," Lambda Chi Alpha, Orides.

"Bean Bag Throw," Alpha Phi, McChesney hall; "Duck Throw," Sigma Alpha Epsilon, University house, and Tri Delt, Hawaiian show.

Some of these themes were second choices because the houses' first preferences were duplicated. None of the booths may have gambling or be fire hazards. The themes of the remaining houses have not been approved because of one of these two reasons or because they had no second choice when there was duplication.

The houses without a theme are asked to select a new one and call Jeannine Macaulay at 5988, or Joan O'Neil Foulon at 3395 to register before Wednesday noon.

Sederstrom hall, Gamma Phi Beta, and Minturn hall are asked to contact the committee to pay their registration fees.

Episcopal Communion

A celebration of the Holy Communion for Episcopal students will be held Wednesday morning at 7 in Gerlinger hall.

Wesley Chorus

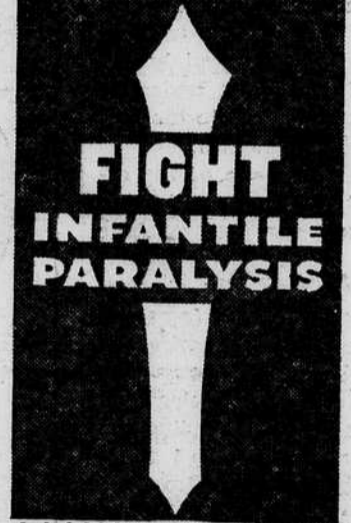

The Wesley chorus group will practice tonight at 6:30 at Wesley house. Lynn Sjolund will be the director of the group.

Never mind who's right. Walk so you'll be left.

Join the March of Dimes

Help Fight Infantile Paralysis

MARCH OF DIMES

JANUARY 14-31

See Your House Representative Today

GIVE!