Wiley Tosses in 19 Points While Gayda Stymied

By DICK CRAMER

Oregon's scrappy Webfoots, paced by Roger Wiley's stellar 19-point performance, handed Washington State's defensive-minded Cougars a 49-38 trouncing on McArthur Court last night. The loss dropped WSC to second place behind idle Oregon State.

Wiley was the big cog in the Duck win, whirling in 10 points in the first half and nine more following intermission. The scoring duel between the Webfoot star pivotman and the Cougars highly-rated forward, Eddie Gayda, failed to materialize. Will Urban stuck to Gayda like glue, and all the 205-pound junior could get was four gift tosses. He didn't get a single field goal.

'Hot Dog' Hot

Big Rog was strictly on the hot side, hitting seven for thirteen from the field, for a very good .539 average. He also hit five out of six free throw attempts.

The splurge, along with Gayda's lack of points, gave Wiley a 53 point bulge over the Cougar. He has 163 points in 11 contests for a 14.8 average, compared to Gayda's 110 in 9 games for 12.2.

Johnny Neeley, who was able to play only briefly, under doctor's orders, hit the first bucket of the game in the opening 10 seconds and the Webfoots were off and never headed or tied.

Ducks Slowly Build Lead

The game started slowly, with the Ducks gradually building up their lead. Five minutes had gone by before Bob Gambold canned the first fielder for the Cougars, and the narrowest they were able to cut the Oregon lead after that was to three points.

The Webfoots won the game in the first half, leading 30-19 at intermission. Washington State was able to close that margin in the second half, but Oregon came back to win by the 11 points they had built up in the initial period.

The Cougars opened up their attack a little after halftime, with Bob Elliot canning two shots in the first minute.

Cut 13-Point Swarth

Three minutes went by before Paul Sowers dunked in a one hander for Oregon's first talies, but Wiley added a fast break lay-in and Sowers dropped in two from the gift line for a 13 point margin.

From there WSC closed it down to five points, at 36-31, with Leon Mangis' long two-handers doing the dirty work.

free throws by Wiley, Sowers, again Sowers, and another by Wiley, pulled the Webfoots away to 43-32 and they coasted in from there.

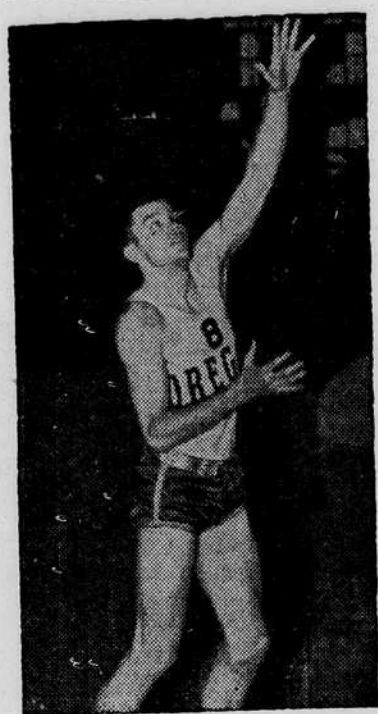

Charity Tosses Help

Washington State had a better percentage from the field, .313 to .291, but Oregon had one more bucket and nine more free throws.

The Ducks were more proficient at foul shooting, canning 17 of 27 tries to 8 out of 16 for WSC.

Sowers chipped in with 10 points and played a fine floor game.

Gayda, though held down from the field, did well on the boards, outplaying everybody else in that respect. Elliott, with eight, and Gambold, with seven, were tops for the Cougars in scoring.

WILEY GOES WILD — That's the story of Big Roger Wiley's five-star performance against Washington State last night when he dropped in 19 points. In his last three games, "Hot Dog" has rimmed 58 tallies, shoving him far in front in ND scoring.

USC Tops Indians To Grab SD Lead

Feb. 12—(AP)—Southern California's sharpshooting Trojans hung a 54-44 setback on Stanford's rangy Indians tonight to take the lead in the hot Southern Division cage race of the Pacific Coast conference.

Yearlings Snare 44-36 Decision; Face Marshfield

Oregon's Frosh basketball team beat down a spirited, last-ditch Medford rally last night to win, 44-36, and extend their winning streak over high school opponents to eleven games.

At 6:15 tonight they take on Marshfield High school.

With but five minutes to play in last night's contest, and Bobby Hamilton's Medford cagers behind 38-24, the Tigers began bombing the hoop from all angles and connected on four straight baskets before the Frosh could score.

Settecase, Chaney Come Through

Phil Settecase ended the Duckling scoring drought with a left-hander from the key, and sub center John Chaney iced things with a field goal and a pair of free throws.

The game started out as a walk-away for the visitors, as Guard Jack Morris counted five points to none for the Frosh.

Duckling Forward Bill Clausen promptly banged in a one-handed push shot from the corner to keep his mates in the game at this point.

Morris resumed his point-pitching tempo with four more tallies to make the score, Morris 9, Frosh 8.

Clancy Hultgen, starting his first Frosh game at the center spot, scored eight first-half points to lead

Redwings Crush Corvallis, 18-6

Slamming home goals almost as fast as they could get their sticks on them, Eugene's Redwings brought the curtain down on the first half of the Oregon Hockey league season with a loud thud here Thursday night by crushing Corvallis, 18-6.

Two Redwings, Roger Newton and Tom Gillespie, bettered the hat trick by one in knocking four goals apiece, but it remained for Joe Worth to really take the night's honors.

Worth Totals 7

The young wing pushed in two goals and added five assists for seven points.

To add insult to injury, John Olson and Don Severson turned the hat trick for the locals. For the battered Beavers, Jim Rodgers came through for three.

From the very outset Corvallis Coalie Bob Honan was aware that he was in for a rugged evening.

Lead From Start

In the initial canto the league-leading Redwings stepped out with a 5-2 advantage, and their attack never relented.

The victory left the Redwings four points ahead of second-place Salem.
