

Dance Features Fred Yahn Band

Freddy Yahn's 15 piece dance band will play for a benefit dance to be given next Tuesday night, February 22, by Eugene high school band members at Kelly Junior High school from 8 to 11 p. m., according to Byron Miller, Eugene high band director.

Proceeds from the evening will be used to provide new uniforms for the Eugene high school band. At the present time the band is outfitted in 10-year-old uniforms, consisting of only a coat and cap. They hope to raise sufficient funds for uniforms.

Also part of the evening's entertainment will be an old-time dance in another portion of the building,

Maine Senator In Sigma Kappa Fold

Members of Sigma Kappa, women's fraternity, have been notified that Margaret Chase Smith, Maine senator, will become an honorary initiate on Saturday, February 19, at Colby college, Waterville, Maine.

Mrs. Smith holds an honorary degree from Colby, a 30-minute floor show given by band members and the capella choir, and several short movies. Restaurant service will be provided by the cafeteria.

An admission charge of $1 per person will be made.

Special busses will be dispatched for persons wishing to attend the evening's entertainment.

University Accepts Memorial Tree Gift

Four European beech trees have been presented to the University, and are now being planted near Condon hall, H. D. Jacoby, assistant superintendent of the physical plant stated yesterday.

Mrs. Charles A. Strong gave the trees as a memorial to her father, the late Louis F. Henderson, long-time faculty member and prominent botanist. The beeches will be planted to the south of Condon as part of a proposed mall. The arrangements were made by F. A. Cuthbert, professor of landscape architecture.
