

Program Due For Frosh Ball

Bob Chambers and his entertainment committee will present an intermission program at Friday night's frosh Basket "Ball" at Gerlinger annex.

Scheduled to begin after the game, the dance, sponsored by the class of '52, is open to all University and OSC students. A date affair, tickets are selling for 50 cents.

Tickets may be purchased through house representatives to the freshman council or at the door. The event is the only one slated by the frosh council for this term.

The frosh council Tuesday laid final plans for the dance and discussed possibilities for more mixers next term.

Class President John Chaney asked the members to consider the possibility of slating regular meetings in the future.

A Drive Against Illegal Parking

University traffic officials have announced a drive against illegal parking in the drive leading from 13th street to Susan Campbell hall, according to Lyle Nelson, director of information.

"There is supposed to be no parking in the drive at any time," Nelson pointed out. "Last night (Tuesday) there were cars parked on both sides of the drive, making it impossible for taxis and other vehicles to drive up to the hall. In case of a fire, the situation would be serious."

Nelson also noted that the parked cars have been damaging lawns on either side of the drive.

Hereafter, a tow-car will remove cars parked illegally. Offenders will pay a fine before recovering their cars.

SPEs Mark 23rd Anniversary Date

This weekend marks the celebration of the 23rd year of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity on the Oregon campus. There will be a reunion of over 100 Sig Eps, and the burning of the house mortgage will climax the gathering.

The activities will include a memorial service for Sig Eps killed in World War II, various luncheons, and a banquet at the Eugene hotel. On Sunday, the activities will conclude with a formal initiation service.

Champs Battered

"Tall Firs" went to basketball heaven by trouncing Ohio State, 46 to 33.

The Emerald of the following day summed up the spirit and wild glory of that triumph: "Oregon last night was a team of destiny. Mighty Oregon was the song when it was all over, and when midwest fans (and the nation) paid a roaring tribute to a great team."

Athletic Books

Athletic books will not be honored at the Northern Division swimming meet on March 4 and 5, according to Howard R. Lemons, athletic business manager. Tickets will be sold since all Northern Division schools are to benefit from the proceeds of the meet.

Season tickets are now on sale at the athletic business office for $1.20. Admission to the individual sessions will be 25 cents for the morning, 60 cents for the afternoon, and 75 cents for the evening.

Radio Unclaimed

A portable radio in good condition was left in McArthur court after one of the recent basketball games. The owner called for it before it had been turned into the educational activities office, according to Dick Williams who has been unable to locate the student since. If he will call again at the office, the radio will be returned to him.

Athletic Books Void At ND Water Meet

Students whose athletic books were picked up at Mac Court on Feb. 25 may recover them by calling at the athletic business office and presenting their winter term registration card. The office will not be open on March 4 after noon.

'Marco Millions' Tryouts Set Friday

Unlimited roles for both men and women are available in "Marco Millions," the spectacle production of the University theater for this season. General tryouts for the play will be held this Friday at 4 in room 1, Johnson by director Horace W. Robinson.

Gerry Hettinger, senior in speech and assistant director, urges all interested persons to attend the tryouts, whether or not they have had previous theater experience. As yet no parts in the play have been cast.

Lutheran Council

Lutheran Student association council will meet at Luther house Thursday at 1 p.m.
