Crandall Sinks 29 in Sparking Overtime Win

By Dick Cramer

Oregon State's Beavers, kept in the game by Cliff Crandall and sparked to the eventual win by Tommy Holman, walked off with the Northern Division title by downing Oregon's Webfoots, 79-72, in the second overtime period.

Crandall played sterling ball throughout the game, chalking up 29 points to easily top all scorers. He was the key man in setting up plays and, except for Holman's brilliant performance in the closing moments of the tilt, would have been the hero supreme among the Orangemen.

THE CHUNKY GUARD entered the game for the first time with only around five minutes remaining, stole the ball and dropped in a lay in, cutting the margin to 60-55 for Oregon. A minute later, with only 10 seconds left in the regulation time he dropped in a long two-hander and then stole the ball, hit another fielder, was fouled, and canned the gift toss to tie the game.

The two quints battled on even terms throughout the first extra period, which ended 69-69. But in the second overtime Slats Gill's boys hit for seven straight points for a 76-69 lead and they coasted from there.

Roger Wiley was the big Webfoot star, dumping in 25 tallies to break his own Oregon record for one season, 223 points compared to the 219 record he set last year.

THE GAME was the best seen on McArthur Court this season. Both teams played outstanding ball, and the shooting was terrific. The Beavers hit from the field at a .457 clip, while the Webfoots were shooting at a .406 average.

The game opened slowly, with the score tied at 5-5 after five minutes. But after that the pace quickened, with both teams hitting very well. Oregon slowly pulled ahead with Johnny Neeley and Paul Sowers shooting over the zone and hitting well.

The Ducks held their longest lead of the evening with eleven and one half minutes gone, 23-15. Crandall and Harvey Watt closed the lead, and the Beavers finally tied up the game at 26-all when Crandall dropped in a gifter.

WILEY PUT the Webfoots two-up with two gifters and Sowers canned a long one-hander to make the margin four points. Ray Snyder countered with a pair of free throws and Crandall hit a push shot to tie the game at 30-30.

Bartelt countered with a one-hander and Neeley drove down on the fast break to give the Webfoots a 34-30 lead they held at half.

The second half opened slowly, with Wiley getting one and Will Urban two gifters to open the scoring. Crandall got two field goals with one by Bartelt in between, to cut the margin slightly. Then a free throw by Paul Sliper and another by Crandall cut the margin to three points.

THE LEAD stayed with Oregon for the rest of the regulation time with margins from three to six points, until Holman put on his whirlwind act.

Washington Ahead in ND Swim Meet As Heaney, Campbell Crack Records

Oregon Lodged in Third Slot; Finals Scheduled for Today

With one day's events finished and a second and final day to go in the northern division swim meet, the University of Washington Huskies are leading the Cougars of Washington State College by a score of 54 to 44. Oregon is a weak third with 15 points, with Idaho, Montana and OSC trailing in that order.

Washington's Dick Campbell and George Heaney took care of the record breaking. Campbell turned in a 30.0 in the 60 yd. free to break the record by .2 of a second.

HEANEY, with a fine time of 1:38.6, shattered Sherm Wetmore's ND record of 1:39.8. The back stroke was the closest race with all the first four swimmers finishing in under 1:42.0.

Earl Walter of Oregon was second with a fine 1:40.8.

The 220-yd. freestyle as foretold was a battle between Washington's Pete Salmon and WSC's By Canning, with Canning the final winner by the slim margin of .4 of a second finishing in the good time of 2:17.1.

EBERHARTER of Washington finished strong in the 200-yd. breast to take first in 2:37.4 Washington ran away with the low board diving event taking first and second, Ernie Hoff and Roy Sawhill were tops.

The final event of the evening saw WSC surprise the favored Husky relay team and outsprint them to, the finish in the good time of 3:42.4.

Today will see the windup of the swimming meet at 9:30 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 8:30 p.m.

Huskies Knock Friel's Cougars Out of Running

SEATTLE, March 4—(AP)—A couple of sophomore substitutes, Louie Soriano and Russ Parthemer, provided the closing spark tonight as the University of Washington rallied for a 51-46 basketball victory over Washington State College.

The losers led 28-2 at the half-way mark in the Northern Division Pacific Coast conference game.

The decision knocked WSC out of its last mathematical flag chance.

Skinny Russ and Tubby Louie put new life in a team that was seemingly well in the hole after five minutes of play in the second half. The crowd of 7,500 caught fire along with the team and boosted the home-towners into the triumph with a surge of noise.

Moving in front at 48-46 on Sammy White's goal from the key, Washington's Huskies went into a stall. Parthemer added a rebound bucket and Soriano a free throw before the gun.

Frosh Edge by Lebanon In Last Tilt of Campaign

The law of averages and the Lebanon Warriors nearly caught up with the Frosh basketball team in their finale here last night, but they eked out a 40-37 thrill-filled win in the Varsity preliminary.

This gave Coach Don Kirsch's Ducklings a clean slate against high school opponents this season, winning 16 straight. Their four losses were at the hands of the Oregon State Rooks.

The visiting Warriors held their last lead at 32-31 with six minutes left to play in the last quarter.

Frosh Center Bob Gilbert, who was an offensive standout during the entire game, rammed home a pivot shot to give his mates a permanent lead.

GILBERT ADDED another fielder and a foul toss and Forward Jim Calderwood sank a jump-shot to ice the final contest for the Ducklings.

Kirsch used three units the first half in trying to outrun the speedy Warriors. His starting lineup ran the count to 12-9 in the first quarter with Gilbert contributing a pair of baskets.

Both squads were missing numerous shots, as the small but scrappy prepsters were staying even with their opponents on rebounds.

LEBANON Guard Gene Tanner led his team in scoring the first half, garnering five of their points.

They left the floor at halftime trailing, 16-15.

Each squad tanked 10 points in the third period, which was featured by the scrappiness of the Warriors, who stayed in the ball game with the aid of a good fast-break and fight under the backboards.

MENTOR BUD PAGE'S Lebanon team proved inept at the foul line and might have given their foes a trimming had they made good on more than 8 out of 19 attempts, their record for the evening.

Gilbert was high point man for the locals, getting 14 tallies, while Bob Patterson with 11 and Joe Abbott with 10 led their Warrior teammates in scoring.

Both Patterson and Abbott got eight of their total in the second half.

Box Score:

Missed free throws: Oregon State — Peterson 2, Catterall 3. Oregon—Wiley 8, Urban, Neeley, Lavey.

In the first overtime, Bob Lavey hit two from the charity line, only to have Alex Peterson tie it up with gifter, but Harper put Oregon State one-up with a jump shot.

Free throws by Neeley and Wiley put Oregon back in front with two more from the black line but Harper again put the Beavers ahead with a jump shot.

Wiley countered with a hook shot, but Len Rinearson's lay in put Slats Gill's boys one point up. Crandall drapped in a free toss to give the Orangemen a two-point lead and what looked like the game.

But with only five seconds left "Hot Dog" dropped in his 24th and 25th points to tie up the tilt and send it into its second overtime.

The final period opened with a lay in by an unguarded Rinearson, another lay in by Holman, a free
