

Color Barrier Separates Family

ENTRY TO AUSTRALIA to rejoin his wife and two children was denied Cpl. Lorenzo Gamboa, U. S. army, Filipino war hero, despite Gen. Mac Arthur's intercession. The Australian government declined to make an exception in its "white Australia" policy, considering Gamboa an Asiatic regardless of his citizenship. Pictured in Melbourne, Australia, is Gamboa's wife, Joyce, and their two children Julie 2, and Raymond, 4. Australian government has offered to pay Gamboa's family's way to America. (AP Wire Photo)

Oregon Faculty Group Attends Portland Meet

Faculty members of several departments of the University are now attending the annual meeting of the Oregon Education association in Portland which will continue through Friday and Saturday.

Those taking part in the program from the geography department are S. N. Dicken, head of the department, and S. D. Ericksen, assistant professor of geography. Dr. Dicken will read a paper, "Teaching Oregon Geography," at the geography section meeting. A paper on the steel industry of the western United States will be presented by Professor Ericksen.

Attending the meeting from the School of Education are Dean P. B. Jacobsen, P. E. Kambly and H. B. Wood, professors of education, and R. G. Langston, assistant professor of education.

Professor Kambly will lead a panel discussion on higher education in the afternoon session Friday. Dean Jacobsen will also participate in the program Friday morning.

One of the principal speakers at the conference is Harold Benjamin, dean of the school of education, University of Maryland. He will speak on the "Island Crisis." Dean Benjamin was formerly on the Oregon campus and was at one time principal of University high school. He will also speak on the University campus Monday at 4 p. m. in room 4, Education.

Nature arranges things so well that the wind blows hardest high up in the sky, where there's nothing to be tipped over.

Speaker to Outline Summer Projects

Opportunities for college students in summer work projects in the United States and abroad will be discussed by Harry Burks, College Secretary for the American Friends Service committee today.

Burks will be available for interviews all day today in the office of YMCA director Jack Merner.

Foreign students will also be interviewed in regard to international workshops.

Youth Service Jobs Open To Seniors

Seniors interested in positions with youth service agencies, such as the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, YMCA, Camp Fire Girls, and church organizations, may contact the graduate placement office for a list of opportunities.

Calls have been received for positions covering a wide range of activities, administrative and executive, educational, sampling, and recreational administration.

'The Dybbuk' to be Discussed Tonight

Alex Tamplin, '30, will give the inside story on the writing of "The Dybbuk" at 7:00 p. m. tonight in the men's lounge, Gerlinger hall.

Tamplin wrote the opera, adapted from S. Ansky's play, in collaboration with his brother David. It was performed for the first time in Portland, February 7 by the Portland Symphony orchestra and Metropolitan tenor Jan Peerce.

Records of the opera which were cut at a final rehearsal will be played. Rabbi E. Charles Sydney, advisor of the University of Oregon Hillel group, will bring the recordings from Portland. The meeting is open to the public.

Anger is the wind that blows out the lamp of the mind.

Chess Clubs Meets

University chess club will hold its first meeting of the term tonight in room 207 Commerce. An election of officers will highlight the meeting after which regular business will be taken care of.

Girls are especially invited. All members must bring their chess sets.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

IF PEOPLE are whiskering about you, better check up on your hair. Before J.P. switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic, he was wide open for all kinds of catty remarks about his ratty appearance. Not so today! Now that he's using Wildroot Cream-Oil regularly, annoying dryness and loose, ugly dandruff are gone. His hair stays put all day. He can pass the Wildroot Finger-Nail Test without batting an eye.

J.P.'s experience leads us to suggest that you try non-alcoholic Wildroot Cream-Oil containing Lanolin, too. Get yourself a bottle or tube today at your drug or toilet goods counter. And, have your barber give you professional applications. You'll agree that for well-groomed hair Wildroot Cream-Oil is purr-fect!
