

Eugene 'Y' Sponsors Burma Talk

Miss Katherine Khin Khin, YWCA worker from Burma, will speak at the Eugene YWCA, 1076 Willamette street, Saturday at 2 p.m. on the place of the YWCA in Burma.

Campus YWCA cabinet members will meet with Miss Khin Khin at a breakfast Saturday morning and she will also be present at a dinner for city and University board members and their husbands Saturday night.

Anyone interested in meeting Miss Khin Khin can, in addition to attending the afternoon talk, attend an open tea to be held Sunday from 2:30 to 4 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, 2412 Rostein street.

Vice-president of the Rangoon YWCA, Miss Khin Khin is also a journalist and novelist. She serves as foreign correspondent for the Girl's World of Rangoon and is the author of two novels.

Born in Burma 38 years ago, Miss Khin Khin became a Christian at sixteen and, was ostracized by members of her Buddhist family for several years. She obtained her BA degree from Judson college, paying her way through school by selling articles in English to the Rangoon Gazette and writing for the Rangoon Sun in Burmese.

According to Miss Khin Khin, Burmese women have a greater amount of freedom than those in most countries, being able to make decisions without first consulting their husbands and having charge of the family's finances. This high status is assured to Burmese women because an ancient Buddhist law provides that women can have their own property and are entitled to one-half of their husband's prop-

Frankie Laine Here for Show, Dance Tonight

Frankie Laine, popular singer, and his piano accompanist will present an evening of dancing and entertainment at the Eugene armory tonight from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., assisted by a Portland band.

Tickets for the evening can be purchased at the Appliance Center, 70 10th street west. General admission charge is $2.40, with student tickets priced at $1.65 provided student registration cards and a clipping of the nightly Frankie Laine announcement appearing in the Register-Guard are presented at the time of purchase.

Laine is flying to Eugene from Seattle this afternoon and will make a personal appearance in the Appliance Center at 5 p.m. if the plane arrives on time. He will appear in Portland tomorrow.

Short silks and suits are in order for the evening.

(Continued from page one) and organizational purposes, and to pay the salaries of the officers of the newly-organized national CAC and the local "districts." It is planned to publish a list of stations and garages offering CAC discounts, so that members may take advantage of them wherever they are driving.

Oregon students have jumped at the idea, of course, which offers a saving in operating their automobiles. Membership of the local CAC district will be limited to 1000 members, Nickerson said. Membership cards may be obtained at Wick's Richfield station, at the Bee Line garage, or from Nickerson.

All Student Group
CAC is an organization of, by, and for students. Its policy forming officers and all members are students.

It operates with an informal, verbal agreement with the service stations and garages, and may terminate business with them any time. Nickerson emphasized, however, that Wick's Richfield station and the Bee Line garage had been very cooperative in getting CAC started here in Eugene.

Best Vaudeville Actor

House representatives will receive postcards in the next few days assigning the day and hour for their organization to enter the eliminations. In order to avoid wasting the time of students participating, the eliminations will be conducted in three shifts from 6:30 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. both nights.

Themes Due
Representatives will also be asked to report the theme and number of participants for their organization's act by return card, postmarked not later than April 6.

Billjean Reithmiller, chairman of judging arrangements, is now arranging for two separate groups of five judges each, one for the eliminations and the other for the finals.

Acts will be rated on a point basis from one to five on main points: (1) originality; (2) audience response; (3) perfection; (4) appearance; and (5) respectability.

Miss Khin Khin has been in the United States since August, at that time attending the first YWCA international study conference on women and world reconstruction held at Columbia university. She is stopping here on her way from San Francisco to Seattle, where she will board a ship to return to Burma.

High Price

Kisses from college presidents come high, but Karin Rolph, Reed college coed, gladly gave $5 in a campus drive to raise funds for war-wrecked overseas colleges to get this smack on the cheek from E. B. MacNaughton, Reed college president. (AP Wirephoto)

Investigated

Charges of an unspecified nature have been preferred against Gen. Clayton L. Bissell (above) it was announced in Frankfurt, Germany, by headquarters of the United States air force in Europe. The charges are being investigated to determine if they warrant a trial by courtmartial. (AP Wirephoto)

Admiration must be expressed for anybody who can remember enough of what happened at the cocktail party to testify about it in court.

Free Tickets for Special Recital By Symphony Offered Students

Free tickets for a special recital given by several artists of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra next Friday afternoon may be obtained today by students at the educational activities office in McArthur court.

The recital will begin at 4:15 in the music school auditorium and is in addition to a full concert to be given by the complete group of 90 musicians Friday night.

The evening concert begins at 8:15 and is a part of the Eugene and Civic Music association series, to which students are regularly admitted by showing registration cards.

Dimitri Mitropolis, noted conductor, will conduct both performances.

Only one ticket per student will be granted at the educational activities offices until the music auditorium capacity has been reached. Students must also present their registration cards. The office is open from 8 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 5 p.m.

Since the seating capacity in the music school auditorium is only 600, no outsiders may attend the program.

Editor, Business Petitions Due

Petitions for editors and business managers of the 1949-50 Oregon and Emerald are due in the educational activities office early this month. Deadline for Oregon petitions is 5 p.m., April 8, and for Emerald petitions 5 p.m. April 15.

Any student, man or woman, is eligible to apply if he considers himself capable.

Applicants for the Oregon positions will be interviewed April 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Weekend Petitions Deadline Today

Petition deadline for Junior Weekend subchairmanships is set for today, Bill Lance, promotion chairman, reminded yesterday.

Positions are available for chairman of radio, posters, skits and flying, newspaper advertising, and window displays. Petitions should be left at the Sigma Nu fraternity.
