

Lanie Sang for 'Nothin'

"After the war I left the plant and tried to get back into singing. At the time of "Desire's" discovery, I was working at Billie Berg's. Then I moved to the Morocco in Hollywood."

Although "Desire" brought him his present fame, Laine said that his favorite recording is "Black and Blue."

"I had the most fun making it, I think," he stated.

Discussing the famous Oregon mist, which greeted him yesterday afternoon, Laine quipped, "I suppose this is real unusual, like California weather."

Yes, with popular records selling out, a term with Peggy Lee and the Chesterfield Supper club ahead, things are looking up for Frankie Laine.

Westminster Forums

The first in a series of three Sunday evening forums on the subject "A Christian Looks at the Race Situation" will be held April 3, at Westminster house. Dr. Theodore Stern of the anthropology department will lead the first forum in a discussion on "We Are all Brothers—in Theory?—in Practice?" A film will be presented.

The forum will follow the regular Sunday evening supper which begins at 6:15. Admission to the dinner is 40 cents.

Accident Victim Stays in Hospital

John O. Page, University student injured in a motorcycle accident Monday, was showing further improvement yesterday. He will be in Sacred Heart hospital for several more days, according to the attending physician.

Page received a brain concussion and a dislocated shoulder when his motorcycle hit a hole on Highway 58 near Oakridge as he returned to school from his Bend home.

WAA Proceeds

All living organizations that have not done so are requested to pick up their proceeds from their booths at the WAA carnival, according to Marguerite Johns, co-chairman.

Spring Social Calendar Revised

The office of Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs, yesterday released the revised spring term social calendar.
