

USA Petitions Due Saturday

Deadline for ASUO petitions for the USA party has been set for 12 noon, April 9, Walt Freauff, USA president, announced yesterday.

Positions are open for first and second position, ASUO; sophomore, junior, and senior representatives to the ASUO executive council; first and second positions for the sophomore, junior, and senior classes; Co-op board; and yell king. Freauff stressed the importance of submitting an eligibility slip with each petition.

Petitions may be left at the ASUO president's office, Emerald hall, or with Freauff at Sederstrom hall. They will also be accepted by members of the USA steering committee: Olga Yevtich, Alpha Xi Delta; Hans Wold, Campbell club; Art Wahlers, Phi Sigma Kappa; Ron Phillips, Phi Kappa Sigma.

Ed Ladendorff, Merrick hall; Clay Myers, Lambda Chi Alpha; Sue Michel, Zeta hall; Joe Conroy, Hunter hall; Virginia Woods, Zeta Tau Alpha; Lou Weston, Delta Zeta; and Helen Sherman, Hendricks hall.

All campus elections are scheduled for April 27. The April 9 party deadline will make possible the USA open primaries required by the coalition party's constitution.

Allen Calls for Court Members

More petitions for traffic court judges on the new student court were called for yesterday by student body president Bob Allen.

Three judges will be selected: one sophomore, one junior, and one senior. Petitions are due in Allen's office by Monday noon.

Campbell Speaks To Business Women

Laurence R. Campbell, Professor of Journalism, spoke to the Albany Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday April 5, on "Press and Radio, Tools of Education."

Professor Campbell also spoke to the Journalism Section meeting at the Oregon Educational Association convention in Portland Friday April 1 on "Newspaper Makeup."

Westminster Dinner

Westminster house will have their weekly Thursday evening potluck dinner tonight at 6 p.m. Since this will be their first potluck dinner this month they will contribute the proceeds to WSSF. Admission to the dinner is either food or 40 cents. Everyone is welcome.

Panhellenic Elects New Officers

Fran Robson, junior in social science, will wield the gavel as the new president at the next Panhellenic meeting.

The executive council will consist of Dorothy Sutton, first vice president; Joanne Frydenlund, second vice president; Joan White, secretary; Mildred Doering, treasurer; Pat McGinty, relations chairman; Dorothy Orr, social chairman; Marjorie Petersen, scholarship chairman; Jackie Morris, publicity chairman; and Margaret Wickenden, standards chairman.

Retiring officers include president Margaret Rauch, Joan Loper, Ann Woodworth, Shirley Lukins, Sue Mercer, Pat Kaiser, and Pat Grimstad.

Petitions Due For Mothers' Day

Student body president Bob Allen yesterday called for additional petitions for Mothers' Day chairmanships. Petitions are due in his office by Monday noon.

"We have received a number of petitions for subcommittee heads, but not enough for general chairman to make a fair selection," Allen stated.

Piggers' Guide Petitions Due Apr. 23

Petitions for Piggers' Guide positions of editor and business manager should be turned in to the educational activities office by noon of April 23, according to educational activities manager Dick Williams.

Any student may apply for these positions on the 1949-50 student directory. Selection will be made from the petitions.

The weaker the argument the stronger the words.

Women's Play Day Sets

"Animal Fair" will be the theme for Oregon's first women's Play Day to be this Saturday. Decorations will consist of figures of animals which represent the various schools participating in this event.

Women students interested in sports are expected from 11 other colleges in the state. Any girls interested in taking part in any of the games may attend regardless of whether they are WAA members or not.

"They will have a chance to meet girls from all over the state," said Joan Mimnaugh, chairman of invitations.

Tennis, ping pong, and badminton tournaments, softball, swimming, volleyball, and square dancing will be the sports in which the girls may take part.

These events, under the WAA leadership of Mary Stadelman, Pat Mounts, and Janice Neely will start Saturday noon and end at 6 that evening.

Committee heads for this event, which Oregon hopes to make an annual affair, are Joan Mimnaugh, invitations; Bernice Gartrell, decorations; Margaret Edwards, registration; Delight Kolar, games; Georganne Gettler (clean-up); and Margaret Hunt, tea.
