

Radio Programs Feature Sports, Music, Reviews

The story behind a sports comeback will be explained on the "Webfoot Huddle Time" show Monday night, April 18. Either Saal Lesser, player coach of the Webfoot's resurgent tennis team, or Bill Bowerman, head of the track squad, will explain the doings of their respective teams. Lesser's netmen provided the most encouraging opening in many seasons by beating the strong Eugene Tennis club, and Bowerman's thin-clads came closer to whipping Oregon State than any lemond and green squad has in the last few years. Both coaches have talented reinforcements who are only a year away, and a rundown of future prospects should make interesting listening. Norm Lamb and Bob Roberts will direct the show, which goes on at 8 over KOAC.

Sylvia Killman, who has appeared on several local broadcasts, will appear in a half hour of piano presentations. Her program will include Beethoven's "Sonata Opus 81a," and "Sonata No. 3" by Prokofiev.

"World in Review," usually presided over by Dean V. P. Morris of the school of business administration, will be conducted by Prof. W. C. Ballaine of the same school. Prof. Ballaine will discuss some topic of world importance. His topic has not yet been announced.

Sociologists Go To San Jose

John M. Foskett, associate professor of sociology, and Elon H. Moore, sociology department head, will attend a meeting of the Pacific Sociological society at San Jose, California, on April 15 and 16.

A paper entitled "The Frame of Reference of Ward's Dynamic Sociology" will be presented by Foskett at the meeting of sociologists from Oregon, Washington, Utah, California, and Idaho.

Moore, who is stopping at San Jose before returning to Eugene from a meeting in St. Louis, Missouri, will serve as chairman of the group's dinner meeting.

Also presenting a paper at the meeting will be Lawrence Bee, former University faculty member now at Utah State college.

Clothing Drive Petitions Called

Petitions for chairmanships of the YMCA-YWCA clothing drive, to be held from April 25 to 30, are due Tuesday, April 19, at the YMCA or YWCA.

Positions open to both men and women students are chairmanships of promotion, collection, and packing and mailing committees.

Sponsored jointly by the YWCA international affairs committee and the YMCA, the drive will provide clothing for students attending one school in each of three foreign countries: Germany France and Japan.

Baptists Schedule Easter Breakfast

An Easter breakfast for University young people will be held by the C.O.S. group of First Baptist church following the sunrise service at McArthur court. The breakfast will be served in the church dining room at 7:30. There will be a special program with Earl Peden as guest speaker.

There will be two Easter services at 9 and 11 a.m. at First Baptist church, with Dr. Vance H. Webster speaking on "As It Began to Dawn." The 11 o'clock service will be broadcast over KASH.

Petitions Open For YW Work

University women interested in helping in YWCA service projects may petition for several different positions by Friday, April 22. Petitions may be turned in to Jean Armstrong at the Gamma Phi Beta house or Beverly Buckley at Delta Delta Delta.

Summer work will be with the "Y-Teen" high school groups, as counselors, in a big sister program to work with juvenile delinquents, as summer playground supervisors.

Eugene girls are especially requested to petition for these positions, as work will continue throughout the summer.

Other University women will be needed for all-year jobs, such as Community House work; Emergency help for the Red Cross and Spastic Hospital; baby sitting; helping foreign brides to speak English; and work at the Alice Marie home for underprivileged children and the nursery for children of students and faculty.

Risser, Tucker In TKA Meet

Fred Risser and Jim Tucker left yesterday to represent the University of Oregon in the Northwest Tau Kappa Alpha intercollegiate speech tournament at Missoula, Montana, April 15 and 16.

Over 40 colleges and universities will be represented at Montana State university where competition is scheduled in oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and oral interpretation as well as debate. The parliamentary style of debate will be used. The teams will debate both the negative and the affirmative sides of the question.

Both Risser and Tucker are also entered in extemporaneous speaking which has as its subject, "The United Nations in 1949."

The debate question to be used is: "Resolved, that the Federal government should adopt a policy of equalizing educational opportunity in tax supported schools by means of annual grants."

Friendly House Plans Weekend

"My Economic Views" will be the topic of discussion led by Professor Calvin Crumbaker, head of the economics department of the University of Oregon, at Friendly house at 8 on Friday evening.

The discussion will be preceded by a program of classical music, arranged by Mr. Roy C. Andrews of the chemistry department. It will be followed by a cosmopolitan party, at which foreign students will meet American students. There will be dancing and refreshments.

The usual potluck dinner for married couples on Saturday is open to all students and their wives and children. It will be followed by square dancing and games for the children.

FLOWERS

... the most beautiful way to say HAPPY EASTER.

Share your Easter joy with family, friends, church, by sending the one gift that truly expresses the significance of the day. Make it a lovely corsage for her Easter suit, a tall, proud lily at the Easter services, a bouquet of crisp tulips for the family, a blooming plant for the shut-in. Never were our flowers more beautiful, or in greater variety, than they are right now. Drop in and see them.
