

Thrill of a Lifetime

And you say you don't think anybody can be ecstatically happy single or any other way. And the lights get hotter and the questions come faster and finally you wind up trying to defend this idea:

"Everybody has to be lonely in this world, but marriage makes it possible for two people who like or respect each other to be less lonely together."

After that I lost all sense of television. I was up to my ears in female argument. Not an unfamiliar position, either, for a man married nigh twelve happy years.

Bowerman Set For Radio Show

Mozart and Ravel will provide the musical feature for this Monday's University hour. Mozart's "Sonata in A Minor," and Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite," as interpreted by Mary Nash, music junior, will the musical half hour of the KOAC program.

Webfoot Huddle Time, which opens the show at 8 p.m., will probably have Bill Bowerman as the target for its question and answer session. Norm Lamb and Bob Roberts will quiz Bowerman on the exploits of his track squad up in Idaho this weekend.

Young Stuff

The half hour before weekday closing hours seems to be better exploited by Hen hall's Beth Thompson and the Campbell club prexy. Also, Sherry Rosser Dick Johnson isn't taking advantage of the cover of darkness to make his alternate journeys to Hendricks and Susan Campbell.

"Sound Experiment" will feature the best of classical music besides presenting many modern musical interpretations. Plan to hear it Sunday, 2:30, University theater, you won't regret it.
