'Eureka,' Says Irate IBM Clerk In Retaliation

SOMEWHERE IN COMMERCIAL, April 29 (Special)—A spokesman for the BA softball team crawled out from under a huge pile of adding machine tape and statistical tables Friday and exclaimed "Eureka!"

He explained that according to statistical analysis the business school will whip the law school on the field of honor today by a score of 34-1.

"The sole law school run," he said, "will be due to a rather shady legal maneuver — a mere technicality."

"We allow three runs for each man on our team, plus two more for each outfielder, and an additional one for the pitcher. We have never lost a game to the law school and I don't think we ever will."

The spokesman remains unidentified for security reasons. It is rumored he once said hello to a person wearing a painter's cap.

Husky Golfers Annex Match

TACOMA, April 29—(AP)—Led by Joe Greene, who shot an even-par 71, University of Washington golfers scored a 14½ to 3½ victory over the College of Puget Sound at Fircrest golf club Friday.

The links engagement was somewhat closer than the score might indicate with four of the matches being decided on the 18th hole.

'We've Never Lost a Verdict,' Claims Hollis

SOMEWHERE IN FENTON, April 29—(Special)—Bob Hollis, captain of the law school softball team, scratched his head, replaced his Fuller's paint cap, and came up with the prediction that his team would down the hapless business school crowd by a score of 33-0.

"We have won from the business school by a score of 33-0 for the last 19 years," he said, "and we will keep on winning for the next 19."

Hollis's prediction rests on the following statute:

H.C.L.A. Rev. Stat. Ch. 6, Sec. 445—(Amend. 1937)—It shall be unlawful for that group of students termed "Business Administration Students" residing in the County of Fenton in this State of Hollis to engage in any softball game with the Students of the School of Law of the University of this state unless such Business Administration students lose such ball game by a score of not less than thirty-three (33) to nothing (0).

Tennis Teams Face Beavers

Both the Oregon varsity and Frosh tennis squads will see action today when they tangle with the invading Oregon State Beavers in matches scheduled to begin at 10 A. M. on the Emerald street courts.

The Beavers will field an all-lettermen aggregation, including such experienced men as Hugh Findlay, Jack Carrothers, Wes Brigham, Ivan Hatfield, and Bill Husted. Last year they tipped the Ducks twice by the same 7-0 count, and will be favored to win again.

Webfoot Player-Coach Saal Lesser was still undecided on his singles as well as his doubles line-ups, with Bob Carey, Dave Van Zandt, Lesser, Bud Carpenter, Bob Mensor, and Bill Williams all in the running for berths.

In Northern Division play thus far, both OSC and Oregon were drubbed by the Washington Huskies by identical 7-0 scores.

The Frosh will also be underdogs in their match with the Rooks, who are undefeated this season. The Ducklings lost their only start last week to Corvallis. Slated to perform for the Frosh are Joe Vielbig, John Kerns, Gerald Berreman, and Martin Meadows. Vielberg and Kerns will team up for one doubles combination.

Webfoot Golfers Trounce Cougars

Continuing their unbeaten ways, the University of Oregon varsity golf team Friday swamped Washington State college at the Eugene country club by a score of 18½ to 8½.

In gaining their third consecutive conference victory, and their fourth of the current season, the Webfoot linksmen posted a 6½ to 2½ lead after the morning rounds of best ball play.

Medalist honors were divided three ways, with Duck Captain Dom Provost, Oregon number three man Red Omlid and Olson, number five on the Oregon Cougar lineup, all shooting 7's. Results:

Best ball: Provost and Donahue, Oregon, (70) 2 def. Mathews and Calkitt, WSC, (73) 1.

Eckstrom and Omlid, Oregon,

(69) 3 def. Beeber and Olson, WSC, (73) 0.

Prince and Zolezzi, Oregon, (70) 1½ tied Lyons and Bejamin, WSC, (70) 1½.

Individual: Provost (73) 2 def. Matthews (74) 1; Eckstrom (75) 3 def. Beeber (78) 0; Omlid (73) 2½ def. Lyons (81) ½; Prince (75) 2 def. Benjamin (76) 1; Olson (73) 3 def. Zolezzi (81) 0; Donahue (75) 2½ def. Calkitt (78) ½.

Previous Webfoot conference wins this season were over Idaho, 22½ to 4½; and Oregon State, 15 to 12. The Milligan-guided linksmen also whitewashed Victoria college in a tune-up match April 16.

DUCK TRACKS

By Tom King
Emerald Sports Editor

Just what lucky lad will take it upon himself to do the quarterbacking next fall for the Ducks is a puzzler still open for airing . . . But at the present Jim Calderwood, up from the frosh, is top man, and chances are he'll be the same when school opens again next fall . . . The 170-ib., 6 ft., 1 in. ace is a pretty good passer and has fine footwork for a ball-handler . . . Earl Stelle is running a close second . . . He's figured for heavy defensive duty . . . Little Joe Tom has displayed marked improvement in recent workouts, but it seems that his stature, or lack of it, is going to hamper him somewhat.

Another yearling product, Jerry Leslie, will do the extra-point booting . . . At the moment he rates the nod over Chet Daniels, who, it will be recalled, beat St. Mary's with that last-second upright-splitter, and then later on boomed through a field goal against Oregon State.

ART McLARNEY

Don't let anyone tell you that this Oregon football squad isn't a cosmopolitan outfit . . . Of the 95 boys out, 51 come from within the state, but things take on a much more pronounced alien flavor after that . . . An even two dozen are refugees from California, while seven more originally hail from Washington . . . Honolulu has three contributions, Ohio two, and Colorado, Nebraska, Montana, West Virginia, Indiana, New York, Idaho and Alabama one apiece.

Up at Washington, Art McLarney is advertising Bob Tate as the defensive equal of any second baseman in the PCL.
