

Browsing Hour To Feature Quartet

A program of chamber music will be presented by the University String Quartet during the Ethel R. Sawyer Browsing Room hour on Tuesday, May 3, at 4 p. m.

The program will include a Haydn Quartet, Opus 74, No. 2, and Schubert's String Quartet, Opus 168.

The members of the University quartet are: Mary Kapp Allton and George Boughton, violin; E. A. Cykler, viola; and Milton Deiterich, cello.

Writing the Western Union treaty took quite a while, and at last they had to admit they couldn't do it in 10 words.

Infirmary List Falls To Eleven Patients

Number of patients in the infirmary had been reduced to eleven Thursday. Those now on the sick list are Barbara Denning, Shirley Baker, Betty Bond, Hibbard Richardson, Daniel Yuzon, Ward Bebb, Richard Stief, C. W. Lin, James Dunlap, Linn Forrest and Duncan Liston.

Campus Politics

Nuts! Last point on the program is a promise to fulfill the rest of it. A promise to keep your promises is really quite a valuable thing.

Webfoot Golfers

(Continued from page five) ported that he will send his players into double challenge rounds this week at the Eugene country club. This system will enable individual golfers to advance two pegs on the team lineup.

Oregon's next links match is scheduled for May 7, when the potent Oregon State Beavers meet the Webfoots here.

But, since neither party made a clean sweep of the elections (as neither could do under the system of voting) it really doesn't matter because no one is obligated to carry out his platform.

If it were necessary to do that, it would take a staff of Philadelphia lawyers just to figure out what the platform is!
