

'Cody Kids' Win Swimming Honors

These three stars swept the Multnomah club of Portland, Oregon, to victory in the AAU national women's indoor swim championship held at Daytona Beach, Florida, by winning the 330-yard medley. They are, left to right: Sue Zimmerman, Nancy Merki Lees and Billie Atherton. (AP Wirephoto)

Young Stuff

By Fred Young

(Author!! This is a very reasonable facsimile of that copy handed to the woman's page a week ago and which was last seen chasing little girls.) February 26—Another big house dance weekend past with the weather permissible—clear and dry. Themes were keynoted by cellars and seifers. No cave-ins reported. Several slides.

No flashlight — no report from the Tau rumpus room. Although, they mention that Dick Lee could be seen planting a Maltese Cross on Alpha Chi Jeanette Houf. Also, Ed Chrobot left his ATO pin with Alpha Phi Nancy Pollard again.

Proving that it's not always getting there first with the most that counts—Sig Ep Bruce Urey received his pin from Delta Zeta Boots Korn, second-year math student, at 3 p.m. last Friday as Fred Schneider left her his Delt pin pin that evening at 7. And maybe double delt — Miss Tooze? More from the hill-top with Donna Mul-larky recently possessing Duke Ewing's Pi Kap pin.

Told to mention that Phyl Stewart receives such thrill from last Monday (Feb. 25) phone call that the juniors hold gala celebration for her. They say she hasn't managed to wangle a date from him as yet. Also, Pi Phis tell there's been a great deal of steadiness with Jean Simons and Beta Jerry O'Leary.

Hen hall's Ardetta Daniels with mitts on Barney Barnes' PiKPhi pin.

The Lambda Chis never forgetting the politics as they invite 11 Alpha Gams to their house dance. Though Yvette Sweet headed towards Aggie land as usual. There's such an air about it.

Theta Barbara Fagg glimpsed at the Basie dance with OAC Beta Bruce Cowan. Also, Kappa Cyn Griffin tripping lightly with Phi Delt lum, ex-ASUO President Tom Kay.

Other Kappa diggings uncover Marilyn Hillman gaining on Phi Delt Lyle Janz. Paige Laird awaiting Gil Toome's weekend trips from Medford. And, Joannie Mow-att celebrating her 21st birthday again. Ask Max.

Alpha Chis mention that Lucy Holloman finally gained Jack Belt's Sigma Nu pin. And, belatedly, Norma Duffy with big Bill Anderson's Kappa Sig badge.

The Tri-Deltas helping Phyllis Higgenbotham celebrate her re-

Co-ed Clothesline

By Maryfran Lorain and Kay Kuckenberg

Warm sunshine for just a few short days encourages even the most pessimistic suntan seekers to take last year's play clothes from the back of the closet, and to begin planning this season's sun wardrobe.

Unusual hues and sturdy fabrics combine with functional designs to make new play clothes both striking and practical. Amber and steel gray are being used extensively to accent summer pastel shades. Contrasting plain colors with stripes and plaids adds interest to strictly tailored shirts and shorts.

Thick toweling has come into its own for not only beach robes, but also luxurious stoles and brief sun suits. Remember the previously limited uses of denim and butcher line? The two are now interchangeable—linen shorts and pedal pushers, denim skirts with matching Chinese tops.

The cool freshness of sleeveless blouses places them high on the list of new styles. Extreme necklines—very high, wide, or plunging add variety to their basically simple design. Taffeta, cotton, pique, and chambray have transformed the winter bolero dress into an appropriate beach or country costume.

Smart vests over gaily checkered skirts top any and all play outfits from skirts top any and all play outfits from skirts to shorts. Sun dresses with matching or contrasting stoles, which may be worn as scarves or sashes—depending upon he way the wind blows—are a must in the well-rounded play-time wardrobe.

Bathing suits are brief again this year, but not so scanty as in the past. Straps are detachable, thus providing many possibilities for additional variety. The new suits are keynoted by becomingly simple lines which do not detract from glittering metallic materials in silver, gold, and copper tones.

Many of the basic styles that were smart last year have been retained this year, so think twice before giving away your older play clothes—they may have a bright future for this summer!

Former AP Writer Will Speak At Theta Sigma Phi's Matrix Table

Dorothy Carew, former woman's finance writer for the Associated Press in New York, will be the principal speaker at Theta Sigma Phi's annual Matrix Table, according to June Goetze, president of the women's professional journalism fraternity. The formal dinner will be given May 19 at the Eugene hotel.

cent engagement to Ed Urstadt of Canandaiga, N. Y. Betty Bagley acquiring Arnie Slenning's Chi Psi badge. Gloria Merten, pop-cellist, unpinned.

Despite the social pressures we discover old Swede Johnson still sitting them out. And Sig Dave Holloman leaving his cross with Sacred Heart student nurse Ar-line Michels.

Not to forget the Thetas where Deb Colton gained a sparkler from Fiji Stan Hargraves and Jean Bell now sports Don Ausland's Kappa Sig pin.

The Fiji dance found Larry Mulligan under the house—directing traffic in the tunnel he built into their "Fun House." Max Angus and Jack Schnaidt stood in front of the convex mirrors all night. John Lewis had a date. Linstedt pitched.

Before the war, Miss Carew covered fashions for the AP in Paris and was one of the corps or reporters which followed the Duke and Duchess of Windsor across Europe on their honeymoon. She also covered the disastrous circus fire in Hartford, Conn.

Miss Carew, whose husband, Joseph Rosapepe is AP world finance editor, arrived in Eugene last week and will spend a vacation of several months here. She is accompanied by her 7-year-old daughter. Miss Carew is now free-lancing and is writing several articles for the New York Times.

Theta Sigma Phi, founded at the University of Washington in 1909, will celebrate its fortieth anniversary at Matrix Table this year. The event is given annually by all chapters of the fraternity to honor outstanding women in journalism. The names of outstanding freshmen and

(Please turn to page eight)

Women's Page

Ex-Comp Teacher Devotes Spare Time to Red Cross

by Aileen Betschart

For the last two years Mrs. P. B. Means has been teaching freshman composition in the University of Oregon English department. Now that she is no longer with the faculty, she works with the Red Cross and other organizations connected with her main interest—religion.

Before the war she and Mr. Means, now head of the religion department here, spent about 13 years in the Orient. Mr. and Mrs.

Means went to Sumatra as Methodist missionaries, and Mrs. Means was kept busy by teaching school, teaching home nursing classes, conducting a choir, training kindergarten classes, and "almost everything."

For five years she held a private school in the Orient for five to eight European children besides the four of her own. Her main difficulty was learning the Dutch and Malayan languages. The family lived in a Chinese bungalow, of which the outstanding feature was charcoal pots between the house and the servants quarters, which served as a kitchen.

In Singapore, the Means' lived in the harem portion of a huge, old Persian house. Besides their regular work, they edited a religious magazine during eight of the ten years they spent in Singapore. "Oriental customs seemed different at first, but you gradually come to accept them," Mrs. Means said.

Mrs. Means was active in the Tacoma YWCA when she first returned to the States. Later she was asked to begin religious instruction in Eugene high schools. While her husband was in the Navy, she worked for the Protestant Chaplaincy Commission and the Department of Interior in Washington, D. C.

An active member of the Lane County Red Cross Board, Mrs. Means has been chairman of college activities the last three years. She is also responsible for a weekly editorial for the Eugene Register Guard. Mrs. Means was born in Spokane, graduated from Washington State College, and took her graduate work in Paris. She also has had teaching experience at Washington State.

Outstanding Junior To Receive Schwering Award

"I feel somehow that Mrs. Schwering knows and is with us in spirit when the Hazel Schwering award is presented on Junior weekend," said Mrs. Perry L. Dolph, permanent chairman of the memorial.

A good friend of the late dean of women, Mrs. Dolph told how Mrs. Schwering's last words expressed the wish that a scholarship award could be given to a junior girl. The plan, however, had been only a dream for so long that she had nearly lost hope that it would ever materialize.

At present funds are secured by contributions from business men and money collected from the women's houses exchange dinners which are held once a term. It is hoped that some day a sufficient sum of money will be left to the Hazel Schwering memorial so that the award would not depend entirely on these two sources.

Mrs. Dolph, who will present the award, is herself very interested in University activities. Her daughter, Joanne, was a member of Chi Omega sorority and graduated in 1945. She is now working for the J. Walter Thompson advertising company in New York, and handles all ads for Ponds cosmetics.

"This award, as Mrs. Schwering's dearest wish, is a fitting tribute to this pretty, charming and vivacious woman," Mrs. Dolph concluded.

Theta Sigma Phi Initiates Six Pledges

Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism fraternity, will initiate six new members at 7 p.m. tonight in Gerlinger hall. The six girls, who have met professional and scholastic qualifications are: Laura Olson and Caroline Griesel, seniors in journalism; Barbara Heywood, Helen Sherman, Margaret Reid, and Joanne Frydenlund, juniors in journalism.

Graduate students and Eugene women who were undergraduate members of the fraternity are invited to attend.

When you show your mother the town or take her to a tea, dress smartly in a new spring suit with a swing jacket

Kailes
APPAREL

1044 Willamette

Saturday Night
Round about nine

(cont. p-8)