

Full Program Slated for Mothers

Dear Boss:

Funk Defunct, Assignment Junked

One of the Emerald editors (trusting soul) assigned a star reporter to cover the Freshman-Sophomore tug-of-war yesterday afternoon.

Several hours later, the following communique from the battlefield on Skinner's butte was received by the editor via carrier Duck:

"Dear Boss: (it began)
"The press is not so immune as you might think. Due to the fact that I turned in our house president and several of my rather serious-minded fraternity brothers to the Order of the "O" as tradition violators, violent and bigoted action has been taken against me.

"I am supposed to go up and paint the "O" with my southern extremes this afternoon about 4. Thus I cannot get a story on the tug-of-war, which occurs (it was reported) soon thereafter. However, several of my fellow-conspirators have been forced into the battle, and if need be I can get sufficient details from them for a feature.

"Whether or no, I shall check in after doing my bit for tradition.

"I am trying to get Mr. Yates (the crochety old veteran editor of the Emerald) to write an editorial about this. How much longer are we mature freshmen going to stand for such foolish traditions, anyway?
Cordially,

Bob Funk

Editor's note: At press time no word had been received in the Emerald offices from reporter Funk. A recruiting drive for volunteers to go rescue Funk was underway among the female staff members of the Emerald.

Picnic Features Tappings, Band, Processional

Picnickers who have not yet bought tickets for the all-campus luncheon at noon today may obtain them at booths set up for the purpose on the old campus.

Student tickets have been distributed through all living organizations. The picnic will be from 12 to 2 p.m.

With the theme, "Feast of Scheherazade," decorations will attempt to convert the old campus into an oasis on the Arabian desert.

Music for Luncheon

Luncheon music will be provided by Herb Widmer and his combo. Master of ceremonies will be Bob Nelson.

At 12:50 the queen's processional will take place, with an honor guard formed by members of Scabbard and Blade, military honorary.

Honorarys to Tap

Tappings of new Mortar Boards, Friars, Asklepiads, and Scabbard and Blade members will then occur. The queen's recessional will be at 1:55.

Members of Kwama and Phi Theta Upsilon will serve at the eight tables to be set up on the green. Tickets will be taken by Skull and Dagger men.

Food served will be hot dogs, potato salad, pickles, potato chips, dixie cups and cokes. Co-chairmen of the annual Junior weekend affair are Larry Davidson and Margie Peterson.

Band Leader

JIMMY ZITO, who will bring his orchestra to McArthur court Saturday night to play for the Junior weekend prom. The formal dance will start at 9. Tickets will be available at the door.

The Chow Dynasty lasted from the middle of the 11th century until the end of the fourth century before the time of Christ.

Queens and Court

Gals Warned About Tradition

Don't wear white shoes, or get in too big a hurry to talk, girls, because those are the two traditions that will be enforced today at the all-campus picnic. Women who talk to men before the entrance of the queen and her court, and/or who wear white shoes will be considered violators.

Elsewhere on the traditions front, yesterday saw the traditional painting of the "O" via the seats of frosh pants, but not the annual tug-of-war, which was postponed until today at 10, behind the Kappa Sig house.

An uprising by the freshman at the O was quelled after Bob Amacher of the "O" men had received painful but not serious cuts suffered in a fall during the fracas.

The regular dunking and hackings yesterday noon were marked by another uprising, this on the part of the to-be-chastised women. Although they all received their punishment, they succeeded in getting Bob Don thoroughly wet and slightly dampening several other of the Order of the O.

Tea, Open Houses, Meetings Planned

The welcome mat is out.

Visiting mothers have a full round of activities in store for them today and tomorrow, including regular Mothers' weekend events and many of the Junior weekend doings.

Registration Set

Registration today will be from 8:30 to 11 a.m. in John Straub, 9 to 12 in Jobuson and 2 to 4:30 in Gerlinger.

At 9 this morning the business meeting of the Oregon Mothers will be held at a buffet breakfast in Straub hall. Mothers are invited to the campus luncheon and program at noon.

Tea for Oregon Mothers will be held from 2 to 4:30 this afternoon in alumni hall, Gerlinger. At 4:30 the float parade will arrive on the campus, and mothers will be able to see it as it goes up University past Gerlinger.

Lounge at Prom

Tonight at the prom there will be a balcony lounge for mothers, from which vantage point they will be able to see intermission proceedings as well as the dance itself. Refreshments will be served.

Tomorrow morning at 9 the Oregon Mothers' State Board of Directors will meet in the Mirror room of the Eugene hotel. Mothers day in Eugene churches will be at 11.

Living Organizations, Too

At 1 p.m. dinners will be held with the sons and daughters in their living organizations, and from 3 to 4:30 the sunlight serenade in the music school open-air auditorium will round out the weekend's festivities.

In addition to regularly scheduled events open houses will be held in the music and art schools, PE department and the museum of oriental art and natural history, from 11 to 4 today.

Twenty-eight Floats To Parade at Four

Twenty-eight floats will take to the road at 4 this afternoon in this year's edition of the Junior weekend float parade. Floats will assemble at Fourth and Charnelton at 3. Judges will be located on the steps of the city hall on 11th and Willamette.

The floats will go up Willamette to 13th, east on 13th street to University, and will disband in front of the ATO house.
