

How They Suffer for GI's

FIVE HOLLYWOOD, Calif., chorus girls, among a part of 20 making a five-week tour of air force bases overseas, display vaccinations they receive in preparation for their trip. They are headed for Newfoundland, England, France, Italy, Greece, and North Africa and are wearing new high visibility swim suits so boys in the back row can see better. Vacation Time..

-is the time to be careful too!

1. Hold your match 'til it's cold — then pinch it to make sure.
2. Crush out your cigarette, cigar, pipe ashes. Use an ash tray!
3. Drown your campfire, then stir and drown again.
4. Ask about the law before burning grass, brush, fence rows, or trash.

Remember - Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

Browsing Room Features Instructor

Today's Browsing Room hour will feature a talk by Miss Margaret Diggle, instructor in English, on "A University Student in England."

The Browsing Room hour is open to the public as well as university students, and is held at 4 p. m. every Tuesday in the University library.

Montgomery Ward Interviewer Here

L. M. Wheatley, regional personnel manager of Montgomery Ward, will be on campus today to interview men graduating in June who are interested in merchandising.

A general meeting will be held at 9 a.m. in the graduate placement office. Individual appointments will follow.

Dr. Schleicher Dean of Annual IR Conference

Dr. Paul D. Schleicher has been named dean of the annual session of the Northwest Institute of International Relations to be held June 12-18 on the Reed college campus.

The topic for discussion will be "U. S. Foreign Policy—A World View."

Participants in this institute include outstanding men in the field of foreign affairs.

Before coming to the University of Oregon campus in 1947, Schleicher was at the University of Utah. In 1945-46 Dr. Schleicher was chief of the committee coordinating section of the department of state.

The institute is sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Oregon, the University of Oregon, Reed college, and Portland public school system.
