

Theater Seeks Office Manager

Applications for box office manager and for house manager of the new University theater may be submitted to LeJeune Griffith, drama secretary, before Friday of next week.

It is customary for the box office manager to be a male student, and the house manager to be a woman student, according to Mrs. Griffith. However, there are no restrictions as to term and major.

Kidnapper

Former screen actress Midge Meredith, 27, enters a car in Los Angeles for the trip to California women's prison at Tehachapi. She is sentenced to a five-year-to-life term for the kidnap-beating of her former manager, Nick Gianacis, Hollywood restaurant proprietor. (AP Wirephoto)

Russian Movie Billed Thursday

"The Great Glinka," a motion picture made in Russia of the musician's life and works, will be presented Thursday in room 207 Chapman by the University Russian Arts club.

Twenty-five cents admission will be charged for each of the three performances of the film—one at 3:30, 7:30, and 9:30. English subtitles accompany the film the dialogue of which is in Russian.

This is the third Russian movie to be shown on the campus this year—the other two being "Russian Ballerina," and "The Stone Flower."

Francis Linklater Named ISA Prexy

New officers for the year 1949-1950 have been elected by the Independent Students Association.

Elected president was Francis Linklater of Sederstrom hall. Working with Linklater next year will be Keith Clark, vice-president; Eileen Lemley, secretary; Bill Linklater, sophomore, representative; and Ken Olson, junior representative.

Favors Pact

Socialist Norman Thomas tells the senate foreign relations committee in Washington that a refusal to ratify the North Atlantic pact "might be a tremendous jolt to governments and parties in Europe on which the hope of democracy depends." (AP Wirephoto)

Oregana Banquet Next Tuesday

Workers on this year's Oregana will be invited to the annual year-book banquet next Tuesday, May 17. Dinner will be served at 6 p. m. in the Persian room of the Eugene hotel.

The "most loyal" staff members will be presented with certificates and the senior whose work has been "most inspirational" will be given a plaque, according to Margie Petersen and Dorothy Orr, in charge of banquet arrangements.

Surprise entertainment is also on the program. Over 100 students will receive invitations to the dinner.

Kitty Comes Home

PORTLAND, Ore., May 12—(AP)—Mrs. Robert Martin didn't want her cat, and so three weeks ago she had him dumped 55 miles from home, in wooded country where she thought he could forage for himself.

Two days ago the home-loving cat came plodding back to her front door.

"I guess," she told reporters, "I'll just have to send him to the humane society."

She said the reason she doesn't want him is that "he just hasn't any personality."

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

NO cock-of-the-walk was poor, sad, seedy Sheedy when he found loose dandruff on his comb. Now that he's a Wildrooter, he has something to crow about and so will you. Wildroot Cream-Oil gives you neat, well-groomed hair all day long without a trace of oil or grease. Makes it easy to keep that favorite chick in your coupe forever! It relieves annoying dryness and removes so much loose, ugly dandruff that you really have to scratch to find it! Peck on down to your favorite drug counter and bring back a hen full of non-alcoholic Wildroot Cream-Oil containing Lanolin. Always ask your barber for a professional application! And set on this thought—Wildroot Cream-Oil is again and again the choice of men who put good grooming first.
