

Retail Group Given Charter

Newest professional group on the campus is Mu Chapter of Eta Mu Pi, national retailing honorary, which recently received notice that its official charter was granted April 18.

With Dr. N. H. Comish as adviser, the honorary will assist the business school in conducting practical experience and testing projects.

Officers of the group are Pete Zupan, president; Betty Horand, vice-president; and Mildred Chetty, secretary-treasurer.

Charter members are Glen Houchen, Ralph Johnson, Walter Kahald Miller, Ruth Wilson, Sue Mitchell, Bob Thompson, and John Lamb.

Four others have been initiated since founding of the University chapter; Alvin Brown, Pete Zupan, Mary Vranizan, and Don Van Zyl.

One Too Many?

SENATOR HARRY BYRD (D-Va) said in Washington that if President Truman wants to purge him from the senate, "I'll be around when the purging starts." Byrd poses with a copy of his statement after Truman was quoted as saying there are too many Byrds in Congress. The senator is the only Byrd in congress. (AP Wirephoto)

Benches for Commons

CARVING FOR COMMONS — Workmen hand-carve oaken benches for the new British House of Commons, in London, which will replace the chamber destroyed by bombs.

WAA Retreat Slated Today

Beachcomber's Rest will receive 24 old and new members of the WAA cabinet today. The group begins another annual retreat, leaving Gerlinger hall at noon for Yachats, Oregon.

Accompanied by their advisor, Miss Jeannette Macilionis, the girls plan to cook their own meals and plan next year's agenda for the athletic association. They will return Sunday evening.

Last year the retreat was held at McCready springs. This is the sixth such venture of the WAA. Bonnie Gienger was elected to head the group for this term and next year at WAA elections last winter term. Vice president is Joan Carr, treasurer is Mary Myers, and secretary is Carol Littman.
