

Duck-OSC Track Dual Today

Form Chart

By Dave Taylor

Predicted final score:

OREGON 67, OREGON STATE 59

100-yard dash: 1-Henthorne (O); 2-Bullier (O); 3-Miller (OSC). Both Bullier and Henthorne are under Miller's best :10.1 time. A possible sweep with Woody Lewis making the third. Points: Oregon 8, OSC 1.

220-yard dash: 1-Henthorne (O) 2-Bullier (O); 3-Cole (OSC). Again the twin meteors are under Cole's best of :22.2. Oregon 8, OSC 1.

440-yard dash: 1-Edmundson (OSC); 2-Leonard (OSC); 3-Countryman (O). Neither team has produced a winner here. Oregon 1, OSC 8.

880-yard run: 1-McClure (O); 2-Boller (OSC); 3-Leonard (OSC). McClure's excellent 1:56 race in Seattle last week gives him nod, but Ducks have no depth. Oregon 5, OSC 4.

Mile run: 1-Petterson (OSC); 2-Leonard (OSC); 3-Fisher (OSC). The Ducks chronic weak spot; Beavers are unbeaten in this event. Oregon 0, OSC 9.

Two-mile: 1-Fullerton (OSC); 2-Fisher (OSC); 3-Petterson (OSC). Same as mile. Oregon 0, OSC 9.

High hurdles: 1-Doyle (O); 2-Turner (OSC); 3-Reilly (OSC). Neither team has a winner here either, but the Ducks almost won the relay match with some make-shift hurdlers. Oregon 5, OSC 4.

Low hurdles: 1-Cole (OSC); 2-Doyle (O); 3-Turner (OSC). This could be another first for High-hopping Doyle if Cole isn't fully recovered from his leg injury. Oregon 3, OSC 6.

High jump: 1-Elliot (OSC); 2-Barber (OSC); 3-Kolden (O). Elliot is the top high jumper in the ND with a 6 foot 3 3/4 inch leap already. Oregon 1, OSC 8.

Broad jump: 1-Lewis (O); 2-Laidlaw (OSC); 3-Pickens (O). This is the test Woodley has been waiting for. He has 23 ft. 5 in. leap already to his credit, over a foot farther than defending ND champ Laidlaw has done. Oregon 6, OSC 3.

Pole vault: 1-Rasmussen (O); 2-Pickens (O); 3-Hickok (O). Ed Hunter, State's vaulter, hasn't been over 12 feet in competition yet. Oregon 9, OSC 0.

Discus: 1-Rinearson (OSC); 2-Meidenrich (O); 3-Anderson (O). This is close, but Beaver Rinearson has better than 5 feet advantage on the Duck pair. Oregon 4, OSC 5.

Shot put: 1-Anderson (O); 2-Robinson (O); 3-Paxton (O). The Ducks won this relay match also, and have shown definite improvement since then. Oregon 9, OSC 0.

Javelin: 1-Robinson (O); 2-Stelle (O); 3-Heacock (OSC). ND Spear King Lou Robinson has fully recovered from his football injury while Stelle missed a second place last week by less than a foot. Oregon 8, OSC 1.

Mile relay: Oregon, if necessary.

Mile Relay May Hold Key; Victory Predicted for 'O'

For the second straight week the final mile relay event may well be the decisive one for Bill Bowerman's Oregon harriers when they continue their drive for second place in the North Division dual meet standings by clashing with Oregon State on Hayward Field this afternoon. Field events get under way at 1:30, the running events at 2.

ONE REASON why the relay may become the all-important match is that the teams don't have to adhere to the 22-man squad, which has made coaches enter only men that figured to be possible point grabbers. The meet will probably see each team with a three-man limit in every event.

Even if Doc Swan's charges force the running of the relay, their chances of capturing the meet will remain almost nil. The Duck relay team, Al Bullier, Jack Countryman, Walt McClure, and Davey Henthorne, look too powerful for anything Swan can muster. The Webfoot outfit already holds one victory over the Beavers, an easy 20-yard margin in the annual relays run April 9.

Oregon Netters Tackle Staters At Corvallis

Both the Oregon varsity and frosh tennis teams will be decided underdogs in today's contests with the Oregon State varsity and rooks, respectively. The matches are slated to be played this afternoon on the Beaver courts.

Only last Wednesday the Beavers left Eugene after having racked up a decisive 6-1 triumph over the Ducks.

TODAY'S results will probably find the Staters in a repeat win.

Oregon State is expected to start the same line-up of experienced lettermen, with Hugh Findlay spearheading his mates.

He will be followed by Jack Carrothers, Wes Brigham, Ivan Hatfield, and either Nevin Cope or Bill Husted.

Player-coach Saal Lesser of the Webfoots will retaliate with an aggregation in which he has made one change since Wednesday.

Bill Williams moves into fifth, replacing Bob Mensor.

ONE DOUBLES team will combine Dave Van Zandt and Bud Carpenter, while the other will be filled by Lesser and Bob Carey. The Beavers used Findlay-Carrothers and Cope-Hatfield in the previous struggle.

The rooks also boast a potent outfit, which is undefeated to date.

10th Inning Hit By Kovenz Gives Winning Margin

By Don Fair

The Oregon baseball team took Friday the 13th, a hitting slump, and the Oregon State nine in stride yesterday as the Ducks posted a 7-6 ten-inning triumph over the Beavers at Howe field.

The victory puts the Webfoots back into a first place deadlock with WSC in the division flag chase. The Ducks and Beavers will do a repeat contest at Corvallis this afternoon.

JOHNNY Kovenz's blistering single over the outstretched glove of the OSC first baseman, scored Don Dibble, provided Oregon with its winning run, in the first extra-inning contest in the league. The game took three hours to complete.

After the Beavers had rallied with two runs in the ninth to knot the count 6-6, the Kirschmen staked everything in that 10th frame for the win. Homer Brobst, who relieved Mel Krause in the ninth, received credit for his third decision against no defeats.

Dibble started the winning rally by drawing a walk from the third Aggie pitcher. Left-hander Bob Stolz. With two strikes on him, Walt Kirsch laid down a beautiful sacrifice moving Dibble to second.

NORM HENWOOD, hitting for Gene Rose, was purposely passed. Then Chuck Strader, pinch batting for Brobst, forced Henwood for the second out of the inning, Dibble moving to third.

This set the stage for Kovenz's game winning blow, as with a one ball, two strike he golfed a low outside curve solidly to rightfield for the tell-tale climax.

The Beavers bunched three hits for three runs in the fourth stanza and an early lead, but Oregon countered with five tallies in its half of the inning on only two hits.

OREGON anted its lead to 6-3 two frames later.

The Ducks had a fearful afternoon at the plate with only five hits, but took good advantage of 11 walks and three wild pitches.

OSC catcher Frankie Roelandt gave a pretty good indication why he is leading the league with a better than .550 swat mark. The powerful backstop punched three solid hits in four tries to move far ahead of the pack in the bat race.

Big Time Sked Set for Cagers For Next Season

Oregon's basketball team will head into big time basketball for sure next season. Five games have been definitely set by the '49-'50 cagers with feelers still out for other name contests.

OREGON will open its basketball campaign in a fourteam tournament December 2 and 3 at Logan, Utah, where the Webfoots along with Utah State, Utah, and Southern California will participate. Oregon will likely play the Aggies the first night, and the Utes in the following contest.

SECOND big trip planned by the Ducks will be December 27 when they trek to Chicago to meet Loyola.

December 28, Oregon moves to Madison, Wis., to play in another four-team tourney along with Wisconsin, Iowa, and Notre Dame.

December 29, the same quartet will move to Iowa City for games. The Ducks are currently seeking opposition for a game December 30, while on the Mid West tour.

College of Puget Sound Golfers Pin Loss on Lemon-and-Green

An upstart College of Puget Sound golf team that apparently hasn't been reading the papers of late pulled an upset victory yesterday in downing Oregon 14 1/2 to 12 1/2 at Tacoma.

Sid Milligan's previously undefeated Ducks play Washington today in Seattle.

Best medal score of the day was a one-under-par 70 registered by Oregon's Dom Provost in best-ball competition, but it wasn't enough to pull him and his teammates through.

The summary:

Best Ball—Provost-Donohue (O) 2 1/2, Youngman - Althuser (CPS) 1 1/2; Prince-Eckstrom (O) 2, Barofski-Carter (CPS) 1; Omlid-Sederstrom (O) 2 1/2, Andreassen-Fowler (CPS) 1 1/2.
