Freshman Cops Democrats Hold Poetry Award Dinner Tonight

Catherine Black, freshman in liberal arts, has been announced winner of the Walter E. Kidd award for lower division students in the poetry contest which ended May 2. The award includes $15.

Her winning entry was a sonnet: "To a Portrait of the Madonna."

James M. Rosenberg, sophomore in music, received honorable mention for his blank verse poem "Submerged Completion."

The Julia Burgess award for upper division students in the contest was withheld. None of the entries submitted was of sufficient merit in the opinion of the judges, according to Mrs. Alice Ernst, chairman of the committee in charge of the contest. The Burgess award carries a cash prize of $25.

State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson will be honored at the Lane county Democratic potluck dinner tonight, 6:30, in the Eugene Community center, 19th and Washington.

Members of the University Young Democrats organization will participate in the evening's program. Organization of the Eugene downtown Young Democrat chapter will take place after dinner.

A graduate of the University, Pearson is the first Democratic state treasurer since 1886.

Tomorrow Deadline For Picnic Petitions

Petitions for chairman of the U. of O. picnic at Jantzen Beach must be turned in to Les Anderson in room 8, Friendly Hall, before tomorrow.

The picnic will be held sometime in August. Al Pietschman was last year's chairman.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said,
"To hell with these studies,
I'm going to bed!"

Dancers Show Varied Works In Gerlinger

Presenting 13 varied, original compositions Oregon's modern dance group Orchesis ended three terms of steady practice last night with their concert in the Gerlinger dance room.

A capacity crowd of 350 applauded each number. Especially honored by the audience were "Bergomask," choreographed for the Fool's dance in "Midsummer Night's Dream" last year; a short original, "Pufferbillies"; and "Man and His Conscience," danced by Beverley Bennett and Margaret Logan.

Moods changed rapidly from dance to dance. This was evidenced by a lively dance interpretation of "Square Dance" followed by the more serious theme, "Strike." The latter included rhythms of work, fatigue and conflict, demand, triumph and work again.

Wally Bullard accompanied most numbers on the piano, playing his own compositions. Effective lighting was arranged by Virginia Anawalt.

Virginia Huston danced her interpretation of "Memory" to a record by Khatchaturian.

Directors for the performance were Rosamond Wentworth and Margaret Logan. Both the junior and senior groups of Orchesis danced in the annual presentation.

It is the duty of the student, Without exception, to be prudent. If smarter than his teacher, tact Demands that he conceal the fact.

'An Onion and You'

the only place people can buy his song is at his father's grocery store.

He has a tie-in deal with his dad. Customers who buy a 50-cent record get a big onion free. If they buy a pound of onions, they get a sheet music copy for nothing.

"The records aren't selling too badly," smiled Alex. "I've al-

Democrats Challenged To Ball Game Saturday

"Politics' last rat race for the year," Young Republican President Art Wahlers described the softball game to which his organization last night challenged the Young Democrats.

The game will be played at 2:30 p.m. this Saturday at Fern Ridge dam, in connection with the Young Republican's annual "Pink Elephant picnic."

Typewritten on a pink paper elephant, the challenge read: "We, the Young Republicans of the West's New Empire, feeling that the Democrat party has overstepped the bounds relegated to a minority faction, hold that upon just due consideration they should be reduced to their servile position."

"It is for this purpose that we challenge them to a common and proletarian game of nine men against nine; in which a ball and a bat will be the deciding factors as to which is the better group."

The Young Socialists have been asked to umpire. Wahlers reminded all Young Republican members that refreshments will be free, and that transportation will be provided in front of the Side at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

General chairman of the picnic is Bob Funk. Carter Hjelte is transportation; Boyd Peterson, refreshments; Rosemary Beatty, contact; and Barbara Hollands, promotion.

ready sold almost 300, which covers about 25 per cent of my investment."

He grinned as he told of one lady customer who bought a record, played it for a radio executive she knew—and asked if he had any suggestions.

"Break it!" said the executive.

This didn't break Alex's spirit.

"If I had known what I was getting into," he said, "I never would have started. But I won't quit now. I'm going to keep on forever."

He'll make tin pan alley sorry yet.

Westminster Group Plans Barn Dance

A hayride and barn dance sponsored by Westminster house is planned for Friday evening. Meeting at Westminster at 7:30 the group will then ride out to the Willamette stables. Square dancing and modern dancing will be featured and refreshments will be served.

A charge of 50 cents will be made but the party is open to everyone, stag or drag.
