Ducks Liked Over Cougar In ND Meet

By DAVE TAYLOR

Going out on a limb against the popular choice of most sports writers in the northwest, we pick the Oregon trackmen to pull a Ponder, Truman, or a Washington Senator upset today in Seattle, by dumping the Washington State Cougars 52-49 to capture the Northern Division track championship.

Washington, Oregon State, Montana, and Idaho are figured to follow the leaders in that order, with 28, 24, 9, and 3 points respectively.

IN TAKING their first ND track bunting since 1934, Coach Bill Bowerman's Ducks should get firsts in the 100, 220, pole vault, broad jump, javelin, and mile relay, for the bulk of the points.

The Cougars follow right on Webfoot tail feathers, as they are expected to rack up five blue ribbons in the 440, both hurdle events, 880, and the shot put.

This is calculated with the ailing Joe Nebolon taking the 440-yard dash, but lacking the depth to bring home a mile relay victory for Coach Jack Mooberry. Nebolon has been out of competition for the past month because of a pulled leg muscle.

TOP INDIVIDUAL athlete entered today is Oregon's George Rasmussen, Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference, and NCAA pole vault king. His 14-foot, 6-inch leap at the Klamath Falls Invitational is the best outdoors vault made by a PCC undergraduate since 1941.

Behind Rasmussen, the Ducks have Don Pickins, who is easily the second best among ND pole riders, and Lloyd Hickok, who consistently goes up to 13 feet.

With this comfortable bulge in the vault, Bowerman can look to sprinters Dave Henthorne and Al Bullier, javelin tosser Lou Robinson, and jumper Woodley Lewis to give him other first and second place points.

Double Header Scheduled At 1 on Howe Diamond; Krause to Start in Opener

With second place in the Northern Division baseball chase as the bait, Oregon and Oregon State will go at it today in a doubleheader, beginning at 1 o'clock on Howe Field, weather permitting.

Rain caused postponement of the Corvallis game yesterday and threw the "Civil War" series off schedule, forcing a twin-attraction this afternoon.

DON KIRSCH'S second place Ducks need at least a split in order to insure themselves of their third straight second place ND finish. A brace of defeats this afternoon would send Ralph Coleman's Beavers riding into the runner-up slot by a one-half game margin.

If, however, the Ducks do the double defeating, then it still would not change their status in the standings, for Washington State has already nailed down the pennant.

Mel Krause will toe the hill for the Webfoots today in the curtain-raiser. Just who will go in for the finale depends on how many pitchers Kirsch uses in the first game.

THE DUCK coach stated that he does not plan to hold anyone back for the second tilt and will use as many hurlers as needed in the opener.

Coleman has not announced his choice for today's clambakes, but it is expected that Rick Erickson and Chuck Suavain will handle the better part of the chores.

Oregon State will be handicapped to some extent by the fact that Sophomore Shortstop Gene Tanselli may have to sit this one out because of an injured wrist.

IN SUCH an event, Harry Richards will move over from second base to short while Al Edwards will take over Richards' old post.

Today's games are particularly interesting from an individual standpoint in that they will bring together three of the division's leading swatsmiths. Frank Roelandt, OSC catcher, is pacing the loop with a remarkable .520 average while Johnny Kovenz and Al Cohen are both in the .400 brackets.

Ducklings Lose Tennis Go, 4-3

The undefeated Klamath Falls Pelicans came through with a narrow 4-3 victory yesterday over the Oregon Frosh tennis team in a match played on the local courts.

A split in the doubles contests, added to three singles triumphs, provided the Pelicans with their winning margin.

Duckling singles winners were Tom MacDonald, who blanked Bruce Dingler, 6-0, 6-0, and John Kerns, who came from behind to post a 5-7, 7-5, 6-4 decision over Everett Karnes.

For the southerners, Bob Petzolt notched a 6-2, 6-1 win over Joe Vielbig; Ron Lowell tripped Gerald Berreman, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4; and Wayne Guyer drubbed Martin Meadows by scores of 6-2 and 6-4.

In doubles competition, the Frosh win was turned in by MacDonald and Kerns, who subdued Karnes and Dingler by a 6-0, 6-2 count. However, Klamath Falls cinched its win when Lowell and Petzolt pulled out a 6-4, 5-7, 6-4 win over Berreman and Vielbig.

Taylor's Form Chart

Predicted final score: OREGON 52, WSC 49
Washington 28, OSC 24, Montana 9, Idaho 3

NOTE: Best performances are listed after the individual's name.
100-yard dash: 1—Dave Henthorne (O) :9.7; 2—Al Bullier (O) :9.8; 3—Dick Keniston (WSC) :9.8; 4—Phil Brewer (W) :9.8. Henthorne and Bullier have run first and second all season. POINTS: Oregon 8, WSC 2, WASH. 1.

220-yard dash: 1—Henthorne (O) :21.3; 2—Bullier (O) :21.8; 3—Keniston (WSC) :21.5; 4—Glenn Christian (I) :22.4. Again Oregon's meteors are unbeaten, although Keniston's time is less than Bullier's. OREGON 8, WSC 2, IDAHO 1.

440-yard dash: 1—Joe Nebolon (WSC) :47.9; 2—Jack Burney (W) :49.2; 3—Austin Whelihan (WSC) :49.4; 4—Trevor Wilkenson (W) :49.9. If Nebolon runs, he'll win. Henthorne will not enter this event. WSC 7, WASH. 4.

880-yard run: 1—Bill Parnell (WSC) 1:53.8 2—Walt McClure (O) 1:55.6; 3—Dave Carpenter (WSC) 1:56; 4—Con Matland (W) 1:56.1. McClure could dump the Cougar Olympian, but it's doubtful. OREGON 3, WSC 7, WASH. 1.

Mile run: 1—Parnell (WSC) 4:19.5; 2—Dick Petterson (OSC) 4:19.5; 3—Joe Fisher (OSC) no time; 4—Warren Johansen (I) 4:31.2. Patterson looks like the coming distance man of the ND, but not this week. WSC (5), OSC 5, IDAHO 1.

Two-mile: 1—George Fullerton (OSC) 9:40.9; 2—Dick Paeth (WSC) 9:43; 3—Bill Steed (W) 10; 4—Bill Selfridge (WSC) no time. Fullerton is unbeaten as is his teammate Petterson. WSC 4, OSC 5, WASH. 2.

High hurdles: 1—Fran Polsfoot (WSC) :14.5; 2—Jack Burke (W) :14.7; 3—Lou Rocheleau (M) no time; 4—Jack Doyle (O) :15.2. Burke could easily upset Polsfoot here, but didn't in dual competition. OREGON 1, WSC 5, WASH. 3, MONTANA 2.

Low hurdles: 1—Polsfoot (WSC) :23.7; 2—Burke (W) :24.8; 3—Rocheleau (M); 4—Jerry Cole (OSC) :24.7. Almost same as the highs, but Doyle could break into this one too. WSC 5, WASH 3; MONTANA 2, OSC 1.

Mile relay: 1—Oregon 3:21.7; 2—Washington 3:24.7; 3—WSC 3:19.8; 4—OSC 3:27.5. Nebolon's injury hurt Cougar's chances here. McClure, Henthorne, and Bullier are too much for Huskies and Beavers. OREGON 5, WASH. 3, WSC 2, OSC 1.

Pole vault: 1—George Rasmussen (O) 14 feet 6 inches; 2—Don Pickens (O) 13 feet 8 inches; 3—Lloyd Hickok (O) 13 feet 4 inches; 4—Charles Brigham (W) 13 feet. Hickok may be tied but never beaten. OREGON 10, WASH. 1.

High jump: 1—Andy Tuson (W) 6 feet 4 3/4 inches; 2—Ken Elliott (OSC) 6 feet 3 3/4 inches; 3—Woodley Lewis (O) 6 feet 2 inches; 4—Jack Padrick (WSC) 6 feet 1 inch. No one knows Lewis' potentialities since last week was his first time out in nine years. OREGON 2, WSC 1, WASH 5, OSC 3.

Shotput: 1—Frank Mataya (WSC) 49 feet 2 1/2 inches; 2—Duane Eby (OSC) 47 feet 7 1/2 inches; 3 Lou Robinson (O) 46 feet 1 1/2 inches; 4—Joe Widman (WSC) no mark. Mataya is out by himself. Robinson could help Duck cause with a second if hot. OREGON 2, WSC 6, OSC 3.

Discus: 1—Dick Doyle (M) 160 feet 8 inches; 2—Len Rinearson (OSC)
