

Water at Premium in Fort Worth

Bottles, pans—anything that would hold water was pressed into service after flood waters polluted the normal water supply of Fort Worth, Texas. Here Forrest Emory issues water to Raymond Webb, Jimmy Jones and Jack Haight. All available tanks and water wagons were utilized. (AP Wirephoto)

'Show-Off' Hailed as Realistic

Tickets go on sale today for the final University theater production of the year. "The Show-Off" will be presented on May 27, 28, 30, 31, June 1 and 2, under the direction of Charles B. Ingram.

Reservations may be made at the box office in Johnson hall, which is open from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., except during the noon hour, or by telephoning 3300, extension 401.

"The Show-Off," by George Kelly, was first produced at the Playhouse theater in New York in 1924. It was hailed by critics as being realistic, truthful and very, very humorous. Heywood Brown wrote, "The Show-Off is the best comedy which has yet been written by an American. He added that human personality had never been made more vivid.

Aubrey Piper, a main character in the play who lives in a fantastic dream world of his own creation, will be portrayed by Fred Schmitter. Piper is a liar, an egotist, a braggart, and he is always himself.

Other members of the cast are Marie Di Loreto, Glenna Hurst, Patricia Boyle, Robert Davy, Jack Riback, Jack Evans, Gordon Erickson, and Bob Langley. William E. Schlosser is technical adviser for the production, and Joan DeLap is assistant director.
