

Lillie, Duck Alum, To Assist Aiken

Confirmation of Jerry Lillie as Oregon's new backfield coach fills out the Ducks' staff vacancies and opens the way for them to turn all their efforts toward regaining their Pacific coast conference football championship.

LILLIE ASKED for his release as athletic director and head football coach at Willamette university and his appointment to fill the vacancy created at Eugene by the resignation of Frank Zazula was subsequently announced by Athletic Director Leo Harris.

Although he doesn't plan to move here until the early part of July, Lillie will attend the annual football clinic here this weekend.

40 YEARS OLD, Lillie commenced his coaching career at St. Helens in 1931 after playing for three years at Oregon. The first alumni assistant under Jim Aiken's reign here captured three league titles before shifting to Bend in 1936 and then to Grant high in Portland in 1937, where he tutored track as well as football.

In the latter sport he won four city championships (two ties) and one state championship, never finishing below third, as well as one state championship. Through 1942-43-44 his teams won 19 consecutive games.

IN 1945 HE succeeded Phi Sarboe as coach at Central Washington and the following year moved out to Punahau high in Honolulu.

It was the following year that he took over at Willamette, where his elevens have won 13 games in 20 starts as well as the conference title in '47. Last year the Bearcats finished third.

Lillie is married to an Oregon grad, the former Ida May Nichols, and has one son and three daughters.

Lineups Ready for Game; Calderwood Stars Monday

Emerald Fustest With Mostest

The exclusive claimed by The Oregonian on Jerry Lillie's appointment as backfield coach at Oregon was inaccurate. The Daily Emerald ran the same story at the same time as did the Portland daily, Saturday morning.

And speaking exclusively, the Daily Emerald was the first to predict that Bob McClure, recently named line coach, was in line for the post and also published exclusive stories on his decision to accept the offer as well as the actual announcement of his signing.

Ergo, for the latest sports exclusives read the Daily Emerald and say "I saw it here first!"

Capping a two-day program that will keep over 150 visiting coaches on the go all the time, Oregon's traditional intrasquad game on Hayward field Saturday afternoon will highlight the third annual Spring Football clinic that opens Friday, May 27.

JIM AIKEN announced his starting lineups for the game, which will, in effect, pit the first and fourth teams against the second and third.

At ends for the Whites (considered the first string) will be Darrell Robinson and Bob Anderson; at tackles, Bob Roberts and Sam Nevills; at guards, Ed Chrobot and Chet Daniels, and at center, Dave Gibson, Jim Calderwood will open at quarterback, with John McKay and George Bell at the halves and Bob Sanders at full.

Cougars Get ND Links Title

Washington State's Cougars came through with a surprise upset Saturday at Moscow, Idaho, by winning the annual Northern Division golf tournament with a team score of 572 for 36 holes.

The University of Washington, pre-tourney favorites and defending champs, wound up in second place with 575. The rest of the field included Oregon State, 581, Oregon 591; Idaho, 614; and Montana, 654.

Dick Yost of Oregon State and Jim Mallory of Washington came in with sizzling five-under par 65's to break the old University of Idaho course record of 66 set by Lou Stafford of Oregon. Yost was also the day's medalist with a 68-65-133.

Sid Milligan's Webfoots finished up as follows: Dom Provost, 142; John Prince, 145; John Eckstrom, 153; Jim Donahue, 151, for the Oregon total of 591.

FOR THE OPPOSING Greens, it will be Nick Stevenson and Les Hagen at the ends, Gus Knicke-rehm and Ray Lung at the tackles, Dick Gauden and Larry Hull at the guards, and Dick Patrick at center. Earl Stelle, Chuck Missfeldt, Hal Cuffel and Dewayne Johnson will compose the backfield.

The Pacific Coast conference track meets will command the attention of Lou Robinson and Woodley Lewis and thus they will be unable to compete. Steve Dotur, with a leg injury, will probably have to sit out the proceedings.

IN YESTERDAY'S scrum, Calderwood connected on 20 out of 21 aerials for what might be called a fair to middlin' afternoon. Two practices remain besides Saturday's finale.

The clinic itself will be mainly composed of lectures on offensive (Friday) and defensive (Saturday) football as well as on training methods and problems. Showing a couple of movies are planned along with a banquet and luncheon.

Ducks Take Second in ND Meet

Washington State's jet propelled Cougars clawed down all opposition last Saturday in Seattle as they rolled up 62 points to win their 10th Northern Division track crown. The Oregon Ducks were second with 30½ points, followed by Idaho with 22, Washington with 19½, OSC with 16 and Montana with 15.

FRAN POLSFOOT, WSC's ace hurdler, was the heavy artillery in their title defense as he tied the ND record of 14.4 seconds in the 120-high hurdles and ran off with the blue ribbon in the 220 lows.

Webfoot sprinter, Davey Henthorne, shared the top scoring honors with the Cougar stickman, capturing first place in the century and 220-yard dash for a ten point total. Henthorne, turning in 9.7 second century, equaled his best previous timing this season.

OTHER FIRST PLACE winners for the Webfoots were Woodley Lewis in the broad jump and George Rasmussen in the pole vault. Lewis, dropping below 23 feet for the first time in the past month, won the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet 11¼ inches.

Rasmussen copped the vault easily with a 14-foot effort as he broke the Husky stadium record of 13 feet 9 inches, but failed to up the

Ducks Blanked In Tennis Finale

Oregon's varsity tennis squad, in its season finale, failed to score a single point in the Northern Division championship tournament, held at Corvallis Friday and Saturday.

The meet was won by the University of Washington Huskies, who collected 13 points before rain halted play. Oregon State was runner-up with six, followed by Montana and Washington State, with four apiece. Idaho was also blanked.

Jim Brink and Jack Lowe, both Huskies, clashed in the singles final. Brink held a one-set margin when rain interrupted the contest.

George Rasmussen holds every Oregon dual meet record with Northern Division opponents with one exception — Washington. George Waroff, holder of the all-time Oregon mark, holds that record at 14 feet.

Kirschmen Batter Bevos; Finish With 10-4 ND Mark

Pouncing on three Oregon State pitchers for 11 hits and 10 runs, Don Kirsch's Oregon Webfoots finished up the 1949 baseball session with a 10-7 win over the Beavers.

MEL KRAUSE went the route for the win, giving up 10 hits but holding the Aggies down in the clutch. Chuck Sauvain was the loser.

The game was the last of the year for the Webfoots, and their second win in three starts over Ralph Coleman's crew. They finished the season in second place behind Washington State, winning 10 out of 14 Northern Division games. The Cougars had a 12-4 won-lost record.

THE GAME was the last of their college careers for Captain Al Cohen, second-baseman Walt Kirsch, outfielders Don Dibble and Norm Henwood, and Pitcher Homer Brobst. Kirsch and Cohen are the only players ever to win four baseball letters at Oregon. They will leave a big hole in the middle of the Duck infield.

Brobst was one of the top pitchers for Kirsch. He picked up his third letter during the season. Dibble also won his third letter and Henwood his second.

ND mark of 14 feet 2½ inches. Both records are held by Rasmussen.

Don Pickens, Bowerman's number two vaulter, annexed second at 13 feet 6 inches while Lloyd Hickok tied with Washington's Doug Robinson for fourth at 12 feet 6 inches.

LOU ROBINSON, Duck javelin thrower, failed to defend his ND title as the Cougars' Leo Roininen dethroned him with a 189 foot 7 inch heave.

In successfully defending their title, the Cougars combined seven first, five seconds, four thirds, and three fourths as they figured in every event but the pole vault.
