Discovery records. Some very exciting music is being offered by this Hollywood firm—with the Phil Moore orchestral jazz selections rating special attention, also, there is some fine singing by ex-Herman vocalist Mary Ann McCall, piano-playing by Englishman George Shearing, and ensemble blowing by the new Georgie Auld orchestra.

For those of us tiring of the Margaret Whiting's, Doris Day's, and Jo Stafford's, a very promising singer with intriguing sounds is Fran Warren who until recently sang with the Claude Thornhill band. Fran now records for Victor with a nice latest "A Wonderful Guy." Other great examples of this jazz inclined voice

Former U Grad To Enter USC

Major R. C. Conroy, University of Oregon graduate of '42, and founder of the first ROTC transportation unit, will enter the University of Southern California to work on his master's degree in foreign trade and transportation.

Major Conroy was formerly of the Purdue military staff. During the war he spent most of his time in the Persian Gulf command, serving in North Persia where much of the war supplies sent to the Russians was delivered.

are found on Thornhill's Columbia records. Be cooled by "A Sunday Kind of Love," "For Heaven's Sake," "Don't Call It Love," etc.

Which Way Did It Go, George?

Being members of the Mortar Board, which indicates grades and outstanding leadership, doesn't necessarily mean the ability to hang on to the Mortar Board pin, Helen Sherman and Joanne Frydenlund newly tapped members, found out recently.

Tragedy struck Joanne when she was enroute to a meeting of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior honorary, to flash her newly-won possession. The newly-won possession is gone—strayed somewhere between 11th and 13th avenues on Alder street.

Newly tapped members wear pins belonging to regular members until their own arrive. Joanne was wearing Nancy Peferon's pin.

It was while Trudi Chernis relating the tragic episode of Joanne's disaster to Helen Sherman that the latter discovered—yes, it was gone. Furthermore it was Trudi's.

Helen has no idea where the pin was lost.
