

Dad's Day Date Set for 1950

Dads' day for 1950 has been scheduled for Saturday, January 28 by the executive board of Oregon Dads at a meeting at the Eugene hotel recently.

According to Karl Onthank, executive secretary of Oregon Dads, the board discussed a campaign to furnish a Dads' room in the student union building and the Erb Memorial scholarship fund.

Also discussed was the possibility of moving the cemetery facing University street.

President H. K. Newburn reported on the state of the University and on his recent trip to Washington, D. C., to attend a meeting on federal aid to education, with emphasis on scholarships for needy students.

Psych Major Tells Experience

Donald O'Connell, who received his bachelor of arts degree in psychology from the University last June, is now visiting in Eugene. For the past year O'Connell has been doing research work at Swarthmore college in Pennsylvania on a research fellowship he received.

"I have been working with Dr. Wolfgang Kohler, who is probably one of the greatest living psychologists," O'Connell said when interviewed yesterday. "Our study is on electro-physiology."

He plans to return to Swarthmore next fall to continue work on his master's degree and later to enter Harvard to work on a doctor's degree.

Lost Bridge Trophy

Mrs. Evelyn B. Street, house mother of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, reported to the office of student affairs yesterday that she has a bridge trophy left at the house.

The owner may reclaim the trophy by calling Mrs. Street and identifying the prize.

It's Nothing Really, Girls

SHORTLY BEFORE BECOMING first man ever to be graduated from Bryn Mawr college, Richard Logan (he's in the center) has his mortar Board adjusted by five "fellow" girl students. Logan, a married World War II veteran, studied for his AB degree under the GI bill after the government asked women's colleges to accept male students because of capacity enrollments in other schools. New Associate Editors

DON FAIR, poised prettily at the typewriter; Helen Sherman and Fred Taylor, peering critically over Fair's shoulders; and Barbara Heywood, who was unable to rendezvous with the group coincidentally with the photographer; have been named as associate editors for the 1949-50 Emerald by Editor Don Smith. Other staff members will be named at the annual Emerald banquet at the Eugene hotel on June 8.

WAA to Initiate New Members

New members will be initiated by WAA tonight at 6:45 in ceremonies to be held in the sun room of Gerlinger hall. Entertainment and refreshments will be included in the evening's program. Entertaining are the Phi quartet, Elaine Doo and Pat Honl in a Hawaiian number, and Lucille Durst in a take-off on a French waiter.

Newburn to Install Executive Council

President Harry K. Newburn will give the oath of office to the 1949-50 executive council and class officers tonight at a banquet at the Eugene hotel. The banquet will begin at 6:30.

Incoming and outgoing class officers and members of the executive council have been invited to attend this annual farewell banquet given annually by the retiring executive council.

Anyone lese interested in seeing the installation may attend the banquet. Price is $2 per person.

New Look Slated For Gerlinger Hall

Gerlinger hall is now being renovated and should emerge with its new look in time for the president's reception June 18, according to I. I. Wright, superintendent of the physical plant.

The work includes redecoration of alumni hall and its entrance as well as the new quarters for the YWCA.

Remodeling of the suite of rooms for the Y, located on the ground floor at the south side of Gerlinger, is now under way. Included is a lounge, office and a large kitchen. Workmen are now partitioning the kitchen in order to make an additional meeting place and are cutting a window between the office and lounge.

Miss Lois Greenwood, executive director of the Y, stated that the organization will be moved into its new quarters just before school starts in the fall.

KDUK Promises Better Reception

KDUK listeners discouraged by poor reception yesterday should tune in again today, as reception should be much better, according to R. L. Davy, instructor in speech.

Difficulties encountered yesterday have been overcome and listeners in John Straub hall and the Veterans' dorms can hear KDUK broadcasts from 12 to 1 and 6:30 to 11 by tuning between 1000 and 1300 on their radio dials.

Social Chairman

Dave Harper, first-year law student will be social chairman of the law school student body for the next year, it has been announced by Tom Brownhill, president. Harper, who succeeds Bruce Avrit, is a member of Delta Theta Phi, legal fraternity.
