

Women's Co-ops Ask For Fall Applications

Any women students interested in living in one of the cooperative houses next year are invited to make application before the end of the term with Margaret Perkins, membership chairman, at Highland house, 1335 Onyx street. Selection of members will be made by a committee from the three houses by July 15. Members are picked on the basis of scholarship, cooperativeness and financial need.

Each girl lives on probation the first term, at the end of which she is voted into membership and initiated at a formal dinner.

The three houses are incorporated as Co-Ed Housing Inc. Its council, represented by the officers of each house, makes policies and hires a manager who does all the buying.

Rebec house, at 729 East Thirteenth, was willed to the corporation by the late George Rebec, but University house which moved spring term to a new house at 1675 Agate, and Highland, are rented from the University. Several years ago a building fund was started in anticipation of building at some future date.

Room and board this year has been $38.50 a month, and it is expected that this rate will prevail next year. A small fee is charged each term to pay for house dances and other social activities. The girls do all their own housework, as serving of meals and dishwashing, but a cook is hired for each house. Each girl does an average of five hours work a week.

Fifth Moot Trial Rodman-Foster Clash Tonight

Fifth of the law school's moot trials will be held at 7:30 tonight in the circuit room of the Lane county court house.

Tonight's case is based on an automobile accident which occurred April 12 on Hilyard street between 20th and 21st. The plaintiff Walter Rodman, swerving to miss a child in the street, hit the defendant, Charles Foster, causing damage to his car. Rodman is charging Foster with improper lookout, defective brakes and speeding and is demanding $249.50 for damages.

Oestereich Named President of IRC

Dave Oestereich, junior in journalism, was elected president of the International Relations club for next year. Sally Waller, junior in political science, was chosen vice-president.

Attorneys for the plaintiff in the case tonight will be Harold Johnson, Ralph Johnson and Mrs. Marilyn Sturgis; for the defendant, Roger Dick and James Schiller. Judge will be Orlando John Hollis, dean of the law school.

The moot trials will be concluded next week with cases scheduled for June 7 and 8.

Schnaidt New ADS President

Jack Schnaidt was elected 1949-50 president of Alpha Delta Sigma at the advertising fraternity's final meeting of the year Tuesday night.

Other officers named were Mel Van Lom, vice-president, and Jerry Kinnersly, secretary-treasurer.

Tom McLaughlin received the group's outstanding senior award. McLaughlin has been advertising manager and assistant business manager of the Emerald.

Final plans for the national ADS convention which will be held here in the latter part of June were made.

Racial Fellowship Group Planned

Giving itself the name of Interracial Fellowship, the campus group recently formed to investigate race prejudice and promote interracial harmony is planning its program for future years.

All interested students are invited to a meeting tonight at 5 in Westminster house, where the group will discuss organization in order to perpetuate itself. The Rev. Dr. Wesley Nicholson of the Congregational church and Dr. J. V. Berreman of the sociology department will be present.

Representatives of Jewish, Negro, Chinese, Japanese, and white groups are members of the fellowship.

Holmes Elected To Music Group

Anita Holmes was recently elected to the board of directors of the Eugene and University Civic Music association. She will replace Bob Allen.

This is the second year the University has had representation in the organization. Other campus representatives for next year are Art Johnson, incoming ASUO president, and Dick Williams, educational activities manager.

At present the board is deciding which concert artists will appear at McArthur court next year.

G. E. Gaylord, president of the Music association since its conception, announced his resignation at the same meeting.
