

UO Placement Office Lists Job Vacancies

Canceling and superseding all previous announcements, the graduate placement office yesterday issued a list of positions open to this year's graduates.

Among jobs available are several general office positions at the University; office secretary and assistant in a local life insurance agency with salary and chance for commissions on an assistantship basis.

- Secretary in a travel booking office in Portland.
  - Insurance adjusting in the Northwest for several companies.
  - Commissioned officer training in the U. S. coast guard.
  - Training as a deputy probation officer in a California city.
  - Copywriter-announcer for a radio station.
  - California civil service positions as personnel technician, examiner, correctional officer, girls' and boys' group supervisors.
  - Science illustrators for the federal government.
  - Sales: wired music and related television; tax records and tax record forms; office equipment; envelope manufacturers.
  - Store manager training with a national chain grocery.
  - Junior architect for northwest federal agency.
- For further information about these and other listed positions, students may contact the graduate placement service in 216 Emerald.

Sprague to Speak at Sigma Xi, Phi Beta Kappa Initiation Banquet

Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, and Sigma Xi national science honorary, will hold their annual joint initiation banquet tonight at 6 p.m. in John Straub dining room.

Charles A. Sprague, ex-governor of Oregon and publisher of the Oregon Statesman in Salem, will speak at the banquet on the topic, "But Wisdom Lingers."

Initiations will be held previous to the dinner in Gerlinger hall. Sigma Xi will initiate 36 new members, 3 active and 33 associates, at 5 p.m., while Phi Beta Kappa plans to initiate 18 at 5:15.

Among guests at the banquet will be Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, Chancellor and Mrs. Packer, Chancellor Emeritus and Mrs. Hunter, President and Mrs. Newburn, and Mr. and Mrs. William Tugman, editor of the Register-Guard.
