Theater Tickets On Sale at Villard Found by 250

Season tickets for the 1949-50 performances of the University theater are now available at $4, announced LeJeune Griffith, theater business manager. They may office in Villard hall, and later from representatives in living organizations.

The opening play, yet to be decided upon, will inaugurate the new University Theater, built to house future productions.

A shortened season was decided upon by the directors because of the closure of Guild Theatre, which was changed into a classroom, thus cutting the regular season by one performance. In case an additional show is added, it will be sold as a separate attraction.

The season tickets offer early reservations to holders, and a reduced rate of $4 for the season. appointed soon in the various living organizations.

reservation for a ticket, payment to be made early in October.

No news is good news-but try and sell that at a women's bridge club meeting.

CLASSIFIED

LOST-Parker 51 fountain pen in vicinity of Commerce, Oregon Reekman. 5-1511, Ext. 383. 4

LOST-Phillips Bible college graduate key on tie clasp, initials "REO" and degrees on back. Call Osborn, 5-9380.

ROOMS for University men. Clean, comfortably furnished - near campus bus line. 2691 Harris-Phone 5-5623.

FOR SALE-Smooth completely molded '40 Mercury club convertible. New '46 Mercury engine. New metallic gold paint 3.54:1 rear end. R H etc. Dial 72772 after 6. 1159 B st. Springfield. 5

LOST-Tan leather purse containing billfold, pen and glasses. Identification and glasses badly needed. Phone 4-5251. Mary Paulsen.

Personalized Stationery Party Place Cards Personalized

Napkins & Matches VALLEY STATIONERY CO.

76 W. Broadway

Over 500 student applications for part-time work have been handled by the University Employment service through last week. Over 50 were placed in all-year jobs, and 200 more with shortbe obtained now from the speech time work helping with registration or elsewhere, a total of over 250 placed.

> Miss Shirley Sylvester, in charge of the bureau, told the Emerald yesterday that about 250 are still looking for part-time work. They lean mostly toward labor and service, but a number are experienced in various lines.

> Among unfilled jobs that are open are several for waitresses, house work and baby sitting, and (girl preferred) someone to teach tap-dancing.

An experienced shoe repairman will also be able to find part-time employment through the bureau, located between 12th and 13th on Theater representatives will be Kincaid in the former YMCA hut.

All that is required now is a Choral Tryouts Set for Today

University Singers, a 42-voice mixed chorus selected from the larger choral union, have scheduled tryouts this week in the choral rehearsal room second floor of the music building.

Tryouts will be held today from 3 to 5 p.m., and will continue Wedand Condon. Reward. Caroll nesday and Thursday at the same Legder Issues Call

> Non-music majors as well as music majors are eligible for the tryouts, with previous choral experience in college or high school, slight music reading ability, and a good singing voice required.

> The Singers will join with the larger choral union in the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" atthe end of fall term, under the direction of Dean Theodore Kratt.

Credit for choral union, Music 197 (lower division) or Music 397 (upper division) will be given for participation in either the larger group or the University Singers. ornia game in Berkeley.

Part-Time Jobs Religious Groups Set Parties Friday

vited to attend any of the special parties being given by the various religious groups on the annual Church Nnight, this Friday, September 30.

Christian House will feature folk games, while Luther, Wesley, and Westminster Houses and other groups off the campus all have lively plans for the evening, said Sherman Holmes, president of the University Religious Council.

YW Membership Drive to Start

Securely settled in its new quarters on the first floor of Gerlinger hall, the University YWCA tomorrow begins its annual membership drive.

Under the direction of Mary Stadelman, membership chairman, solicitors will visit women's living organizations at firesides Wednesday and Thursday.

To make old and new students familiar with the Y's four newlyfurnished rooms and facilities, open house will be held for the remainder of this week from 3 to 5 p.m. Hostesses will be present to welcome newcomers, and refreshments will be served.

Closing the membership drive this year will be a recognition service to be held Oct. 6 at the Y.

Lois Greenwood returns this year as executive secretary of the association.

For Band Members

Several vacancies in the Oregon football band need to be filed immediately, John H. Stehn, director, reported Monday.

Players of brass instruments and drums are especially in demand, although any interested players are urged to apply in room 111 Music building before 3 p.m. or the ROTC band room after 3. Majorette candidates are also asked to apply immediately.

The football band will play for all home games, the Washington game in Portland, and the Calif-

Students!!

Protect your allowance by keeping it in a checking account—and we suggest a no minimum balance account.

- No Monthly Service Fee
- No Minimum Balance to Keep

This type of checking account is business-like, economical and time saving.

Your only cost is $1.00 for 10 checksno charge is made for deposits. Start an account right away with—

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF EUGENE

Serving Lane County Since 1883 Deposits Insured up to $5000 Through the F.D.I.C.

All University students are in- In Library Listed

New books in various fields of reading have been added to the library collection this summer, according to Miss Bernice Rise, head of the circulation department.

Among them are:

"Cheaper by the Dozen," one of the year's top sellers, and "Seven Story Mountains," expected to be campus favorites.

Other additions include the 1949 Pulitzer Prize novel, "Guard of Honor," plus "Return to Vienna," 'A Star Called Wormwood," Ceremony of Innocence," "The Green Child," and "Without Magnolias."

Among poetry books new to the shelves will be "Holes in the Sky," 'One Way Ticket," "Red Wine and Yellow Hair," "One Horse Farm," and anthology, "The Poetry of the Negro."

In the field of world affairs will be included John Gunther's "Behind the Iron Curtain," and Quentin Reynolds' "Leave it to the People."

Choral Union Change

Students enrolled in choral union, Music 197, will meet in McArthur court instead of the music auditorium, which is being redecorated. Classes will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. passing it out all the time?

Top New Books WAA Orientation Meet Scheduled

All new women at the University are asked to attend the Women's Athletic Association "get acquainted" assembly in Alumnae Hall, Gerlinger, Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

A skit, featuring club leaders of WAA, will explain activities of each group.

Joan Carr, vice president of WAA, will welcome the girls; Carol Littman will discuss the organization and administration of the WAA cabinet; Bonnie Gienger, president, will also speak briefly.

Mary Myers, treasurer, will explain the distribution and accumulation of organization funds; and Janet Frye, sports head, will talk on student participation.

Refreshments will be served.

University of Chicago professor says civilization will last 40,000 years. In spite of bubble gum?

Some folks should be able to get jobs as caddies—they're so used to holding the bag.

How can people have so much common sense when they keep

It's all for you...at Fennell's

NEW LOW PRICE 19.95

