

WAA New Student Assembly Set Tonight at Gerlinger Annex

The Women's Athletic Association will hold a "get acquainted" assembly tonight at 6:30 in Gerlinger Annex for new women students.

Vice-president Joan Carr will introduce members of various WAA-sponsored clubs, including Orchestras, Hockey, Amphibians, and the Outing Club. The latter organization will present a skit as an explanation of some of the association's functions.

Members of WAA will be present to answer questions, and Carol Lippman will discuss the organization of the association cabinet. Mary Myers, treasurer, will outline the financial picture.

Other speakers will be Janet Frye, sports head, and Bonnie Gienger, president. Refreshments will be served.

Sniff -- DU's Get Unusual Mascot

By Gretchen Grondahl

There's a new smell at the DU house.

They think she's deodorized—but to quote one of her keepers, "you can't ever be too sure about a skunk."

Yes, Honeybun, a winsome little black-and-white striped kitty, is the latest addition to the roster of campus mascots. She has her own wooden enclosure deep in the basement of the Delta Upsilon fraternity house, plus a small portable cage for visiting.

To add spice to desserts, some lucky gal will draw Honeybun at each exchange with the DU's. The skunk will go right along with the brothers in her little portable cage. A word of warning, however: handle Honeybun with gloves—she bites.

Already the mascot is showing a typical collegiate appetite; her diet consists of hamburgers and beer.

"We're running into difficulties already," said one man. "Honeybun is underage and we don't want to get in trouble with the law."

Law student Don Dimick gives this version of how Honeybun came to the DU house. "It seems that Gus Garrigus was viewing the scenery from one of the local beauty spots last Saturday night and Honeybun crawled into the car.

"Well, Gus lost the girl, but we still have Honeybun."

Auction Petitions Now Being Taken

co-chairmen and committee heads Marie Lombard, president of AWS, is accepting petitions for of the annual AWS auction.

Committee chairmanships are poster, publicity, collection, decoration, program, and clean-up. Petitions must be submitted to Miss Lombard at the Delta Delta house or at the Dean of Women's office by Saturday noon.

Piquet Accepts Economics Post

Dr. Howard S. Piquet, senior specialist in international economics, has been appointed as visiting professor of economics at Oregon this fall, Calvin Crumbaker, department head, announced Tuesday.

A graduate of New York University, Piquet received his bachelor of science degree in 1924, completed his masters of arts degree at the University of California in 1926, and was awarded his doctor of philosophy at Princeton University in 1930.

Piquet is a member of the American Economics Association, Phi Beta Kappa, and Zeta Psi. He is the author of "The Building and Loan Association in New Jersey", published in 1930, and the "Outline of the New Deal Legislation," 1933.

2948 Students Buy Oreganas

Sales of the 1950 Oregana reached 2948 Monday evening, reported Business Manager, Jim Sanders.

This figure is approximately 60 per cent of the 4893 students registered at that time. Total sales are running several hundred above last year's registration week figures, Sanders reported.

Oregana sales during late registration are being held at the Student Union table in Emerald hall. Students who have completed registration and still wish to order a 1950 book can do so in McArthur Court at the Student Union office under the same down payment that applied during registration.

Any living group or other organization wanting to order books may do so at the same office or contact the Oregana Business Office, McArthur Court, extension 212 between the hours of 3 and 5, Monday through Friday.

This Gentleman Prefers Blonde

CHICAGO, Sept. 26—(UP)—Mrs. Irene Van Der Veers was held on an open charge today after she telephoned police to tell them her gentleman friend left her for a blonde without even giving her carfare.

It wouldn't have been so bad, she said, if she hadn't helped him pass a $500 rubber check at the Minneapolis cafe where he worked as a cook.

She said they left town last February with the $500. But when she was down to her last nickel, her escort sighted the blonde.

Police held her on an open charge while they looked for her boy friend.

Annual Church Eve Scheduled Friday

Oregon's annual Church night, sponsored by the University Religious Council, will be held Friday, Sept. 30, to give all students an opportunity to visit various campus religious organizations.

Parties, dances, open houses, and other forms of entertainment have been scheduled by each house and club, with facilities to handle everyone.

Sherman Holmes, president of the Religious Council, urged students to visit all organizations, regardless of religious preferences.

How can people have so much common sense when they keep passing it out all the time?

No news is good news—but try and sell that at a women's bridge club meeting.

Why is it that the things we never get worry us more than the things we lose?

Petitions Due For YWCA

Petitions for chairmanship of the religion and worship committee of the YWCA are due next Monday at 4 p.m. at the Y, President Billie Jean Riethmiller announced yesterday.

Sophomore, junior, or senior women are eligible to petition. Duties of the chairman include representing the YWCA on the University religious council and counselling the chaplains of freshman commissions. The new chairman will replace Lou Weston.

Gretchen Grondahl was named YWCA publicity chairman by the cabinet Monday night, Miss Riethmiller revealed. Miss Grondahl replaces June Fitzgibbons, who recently resigned.

Poets to Show It By November 5

Student poets have been advised by the National Poetry Association that Nov. 5 is closing date for submission of manuscripts for the "Annual Anthology of College Poetry."

Entries should be on separate sheets, and should carry the statement that "The verse entitled '_____' is my own personal effort." They should be mailed to Dennis Hartman, secretary, at 3210 Selby avenue, Los Angeles 34, Cal.
