

Three More Collegiates

FRIDAY NIGHT at the Whiskerino, these three Betty Co-ed and Joe College aspirants will be on the final ballot with nine other candidates. Right now, they're marking time until the big night. ## Three Betty, Joe Finalists Await Friday Election

By Marjory Bush

Three more finalists for the Betty Coed-Joe College contest are in the spotlight today, with the winners to be announced at the Sophomore Whiskerino Friday night.

To be introduced are Duncan Liston, Phi Kappa Psi; Janice Schneider, Carson Hall; and Bill Kirkpatrick, Phi Gamma Delta.

DUNCAN LISTON

"The Chico Charger—noisiest man on the sleeping porch" is what his fraternity brothers call him, but actually, tall, dark Duncan Liston

Sign Chairman Elections Called

House chairman for Homecoming signs should be selected by all living organizations before this Friday, announces Steve Church, sign contest chairman.

Names should be given to Ellie Johns at Delta Gamma, Barbara Stevenson at Kappa Alpha Theta, or Bob Anderson at Theta Chi by 4 p.m. Friday.

Winners of this year's contest will launch two newly-purchased cups on their careers, one each in men's and women's divisions, Church said.

Judging will be based equally on four points:

Originality, effort, adherence to general theme (Oregon — Then, Now, and Tomorrow), and impressiveness. A $30 limit has been placed on total cost of signs. Itemized bills will be called for on Nov. 18, the day of judging.

Judges, to be announced later, will look at all signs for general impressiveness, then return to make final selections.

doesn't seem so fierce at all, and the name has nothing to do with cowboys.

The nickname originated from the fact that Duncan or Dunc hails from Chico, Calif., where he was one of the "Five-Iron-Men" on the high school basketball team, runners-up in the Big Six League in the Sacramento Valley. For two years Dunc, who played guard, was on the All-Star team.

LIKES SPORTS

Sports interests cover high school track, college intramural football, and skiing "just for the fun of it" mostly at Mt. Lassen.

"I spend most of my time now trying to make my car run—it's a '29 Chevrolet, better known as 'Marvin the Green Machine.' At last report Monday, it was in operating condition.

After graduating from high school in 1947, Dunc spent one year at Chico State College before coming to Oregon. The only reason he chose his northern neighbor, he said, was because "the BA school was highly recommended."

JANICE SCHNEIDER

You name it and Janice Schneider can do it. From criminology texts (psychology is her major) to ukelele playing, from classical music to "Dixieland," and from writing realistic poetry to playing tennis, her talents and interests are many and varied.

Black-haired, brown-eyed Janice is an excellent example that brains and beauty can all come together. Her accumulative grade point of 3.82 and pert good looks attest to that. Janice, who measures up to 5 foot 2 inches, can unflinchingly confess to 110 pounds.

Lindstrom Discusses Dorm Costs

A report on high costs of dormitory living by University Business Manager J. Orville Lindstrom held the attention of ASUO Executive Council members for over half of Monday night's two-hour session.

Action or discussion also took place on traditions, a unified campus drive, a Faculty Follies similar to the All-Campus Vodvil, proposed talent finding and recording board, renewal of Thursday assemblies and program-selling at football games.

LINDSTROM EXPLAINS

Lindstrom attributed high room and board bills in Oregon dorms to the lack of state-provided funds. The state does not furnish money for student buildings such as dormitories or student unions, but only for classroom and similar structures.

The entire Carson Hall bond issue of $1,600,000 plus $1,100,000 interest in 30 years must be paid by students living in all University dormitories except the Vets' dorms, Lindstrom said.

Profits from Vets' Dorm operation are being withheld for necessary repairs, such as replacement of the roof. A new men's dorm to replace the Vets' structures may be built in the future, Lindstrom stated. However, this cannot be done unless the state or federal government contributes at least 45 per cent of the funds.

Famed Soprano To Give Concert

Kirsten Flagstad's rise to musical fame has been rapid. In 14 years she has established herself among the great sopranos of musical history.

Madame Flagstad, who will appear in McArthur Court Wednesday night as the first artist on this year's Eugene and University Civic Music Association schedule, made her debut in 1935 at New York's Metropolitan Opera.

In contrast to many artists of the "child prodigy" class, Madame Flagstad was entering middle age at the time of her first appearance. Since 1935, she has constantly been associated with the music of Richard Wagner and the operas which comprise the "Wagnerian Cycle."

Her voice has been called the "Dream Voice of All Time" and "The Wonder Voice of the World" by American music critics. Audience reactions have been even more favorable. Earlier this year a Flagstad audience at La Scala, Italy, was described as "hysterical" after the singer's appearance in a Wagner opera.

Students attending the Wednesday-night performance will be admitted upon presentation of their activity cards.

The Weather . . .

Fog which has beset Eugene during the "witching hours" from dusk to dawn is due to move on today, according to the local weather bureau. The fog has lain over Eugene due to the lack of wind to disperse it.

Twelve Students Named to Board For Student Union

President Appoints First Student Union Board; Schools, Departments Make Recommendations

The University's first Student Union Board was selected yesterday with 12 students and 2 faculty members receiving appointments by President Harry K. Newburn.

Those students on the board and their school or department are:

Ed Anderson, senior in business administration.

Patricia Boyle, sophomore in liberal arts.

Lester Jones, junior in health and physical education.

Elizabeth Kratt, senior in romance language.

Antionette Kuzmanich, senior in education.

Robert L. Myers, third-year law student.

Henry Panian, senior in history.

Ed Peterson, junior in music.

Jim Wallace, senior in journalism.

Robert Wiegman, graduate assistant in education.

Elizabeth Jane Wright, junior in architecture and allied arts.

Art Johnson, ASUO president, ex-officio, voting.

The students were recommended to the President by a committee of three—Art Johnson, ASUO President; Ed Anderson, ASUO vice-president; and Dick Williams, Student Union Director.

DEANS SUBMIT NAMES

Final recommendations were the result of over a month of long screening. Deans of the University schools and heads of departments of the College of Liberal Arts had each submitted a list of several names to the committee. The final selection was made from names on the list.

FACULTY MEMBERS

Faculty members appointed by the president are Dan E. Clark, head of the History Department; and Paul S. Dull, associate professor of political science and history.

Donald DuShane, director of student affairs, and Dick Williams, Student Union Director, will be non-voting members of the board.

Primary duty of this first board will be organization of the Student Union. It will determine the membership and method of selection of future boards.

New Sheriff Set To Replace Mike

PORTLAND — (UP)— Terry D. Schunk, 36-year-old Portland Fire Department captain, Monday was named by the Multnomah County Commissioners to succeed Marion L. (Mike) Elliott as sheriff of Oregon's most populous county.

Elliott was recalled from office Friday by county voters for falsifying military, educational and personal data during his campaign for the office a year ago.

Schunk received a B. A. degree in economics from the University of Oregon in 1942 through extension work, although he wasn't on the Oregon campus. He also attended the University of Portland.

A married veteran, Schunk saw action in the navy during World War II. He has two children.

The new sheriff, a Democrat, will not take office until an official count has been made of the votes and Elliott has been notified of the results. An unofficial tabulation showed Elliott's defeat was over 14,000 votes.

Elliott said Monday he intended to start a nightclub, file lawsuits, and a crusading anti-vice force composed of deputies who have resigned or will resign from the county police force.

House Pairings Set for Parade; Rules Published

Houses were paired and rules discussed for the Homecoming Noise Parade at a meeting of house chairmen Monday afternoon, announced Vern Beard, chairman.

The annual noise parade will be held the night of Nov. 18.

FLOAT RULES

Rules concerning floats will be:

1. Vehicles must be one single conveyance. (Semi-trucks are permissible but not extra trailers.)

2. Floats must assemble at McArthur Court between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 18. Parade starts at 6:45.

3. Pairings will be placed in line by numbers assigned at drawing, Oct. 24.

4. If a float is late, notification must be made to parade officials and float will fall in at end of parade.

5. A large recognition number (in relation to position, and a sign designating living organization) must be on both sides of conveyance.

6. No floats will enter any hospital or other quiet areas.

7. Judges decision will be final and winners will be announced at Vodvil show in McArthur Court.
