Math Professors Write for Journal

The members of the Mathematics Department faculty have recently had papers accepted for publication by professional journals.

"Approximation in LIP (Alpha, p)" by Paul Civin, associate professor of mathematics, appears in the current issue of the Bulletin of the American Mathematical Society.

Ivan Niven, associate professor of mathematics, has written an article entitled "The Iteration of Certain Arithmetic Functions," which was accepted by the Canadian Journal of Mathematics for publication after the first of the year.

There's little peace of mind when somebody else is giving you a piece of theirs.

If you don't "love thy neighbor" —just hitch up your home and leave.
