

Fred Young Appointed U.O. Talent Chairman; Keith Harry Assistant

By Gretchen Grondahl

Fred Young, senior in liberal arts, was named campus talent chairman by the ASUO Executive Council in its regular meeting Monday night.

Keith Harry, junior in liberal arts, was appointed as assistant chairman.

It will be the responsibility of the two men to formulate and carry out plans for the finding and recording of campus talent for assemblies, rallies and possible civic entertainment opportunities.

Experience in Leadership

Young, an Emerald columnist, has had experience in organizing such events as the Oregon Picnic and last year's "Sound Experiment." He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Harry, a member of Beta Theta Pi, has a record of responsibilities on speech, drama, and radio on campus and in the Army. He stressed the importance of finding talent in independent living organizations, often neglected in present campus shows.

Other petitioners were Jerry Crary and Fred Schneider. Emily West withdrew her petition.

SLOGAN ON CAMPUS

"Beat Washington" will be the word on campus according to a plan approved by the Council. In order to build up enthusiasm for this week's game with the Huskies in Portland, a concentrated campaign including a Thursday evening rally for the team and the wearing of "Beat Washington" badges on the campus will be put into effect.

The Council went on record as favoring and expressing willingness to cooperate with a proposed student forum program to be aired over campus radio station KDUK.

Mums on Sale By Theta Sigs

An opportunity to get a chrysanthemum for the Portland game without dealing in the blackmarket is being offered to students today, Wednesday and Thursday by Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism fraternity. The flowers are on sale in the Co-op.

According to Portland dealers, "Mums" will be scarce on the Pacific coast this week, because most of them are sent from the California growers to New Orleans for the All Saints day celebration.

As a result, very small orders are being held for northern florists.

Theta Sigma Phi has contracted for "mums" through a florist shop in Portland. The flowers come in three prices and feature waterproof ribbons and a green "O".

Students who order their mum at the Co-op many obtain them on the day of the game by presenting their receipt at Lubliner Florist on Morrison between Sixth and Broadway.

Prexy Named NAM Delegate

Art Johnson, student body president, has been selected to represent the State of Oregon as student delegate to the 54th annual Congress of American Industry in New York City Dec 7-9.

President Harry K. Newburn was notified of Johnson's choice in a letter received Monday from the National Association of Manufacturers.

Johnson, with 48 other college leaders from each state and the District of Columbia, will meet with 3000 outstanding business men in the country. The student delegates will participate in the sessions as the regular attendants.

The New York trip will be expense-paid, with the students guests of the association.

Johnson was nominated by the University upon the basis of qualifications established by the Education Division of the National Association of Manufacturers. Leadership, present and potential, was a primary consideration. Scholastic ability, per cent of self-support, and intended future career were also considered.

This is the first time the NAM has invited college students to its conferences. Purpose is to give key student leaders an opportunity to meet with industrial representatives of the country and to see industrial statesmanship at work.

When Johnson returns from the Congress, he will have an opportunity to compete with other student delegates in an essay contest appraising the convention. First prize for the winning essay will be $1000.

Paramount Rally Plans Include 'Pinky' Movie

Forty-five minutes of campus entertainment, a first-run motion picture, songs and yells will be offered to Oregon rooters at Friday night's rally, scheduled for Portland's Paramount Theater.

The living organization buying the highest percentage of tickets to the rally will be awarded free passes for each member to a later Paramount attraction.

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets to the show are on sale in campus living organizations this week, with representatives in charge in each house. The regular 85 cent theater ticket price will admit Oregon students to the rally and show.

"Pinky," billed as the 20th Century Fox bid for this year's Academy Award honors, will be the feature attraction at the Paramount. The movie stars Jeanne Crain, Ethel Barrymore, Bill Lundigan, and Ethel Waters in a tale of a part-Negro girl who could have passed for white.

WEBFOOT ENTERTAINERS

"Portland Extravaganza," title given the rally, will boast some forty Webfoot entertainers, program chairman Gay Balwin stated Monday.

Last Friday's Whiskerino crowd gave a big hand to Marcia Knosher and Gerry Pearson in their Nellie Lutchter takeoff; they will be repeat performers at the Portland show.

Parking Taboo On 13th Street

No-parking signs will be put up on 13th between University and Emerald streets and on the South side of 13th between Emerald and Beech streets by Wednesday night, according to the Eugene city street department.

The no-parking resolution was passed by the Eugene city council at its meeting Oct. 24.

Eugene city police will begin enforcing the parking ban Thursday morning, chief of police Keith Jones said.

Delay in placing the no-parking signs was caused by lack of material in Eugene. New signs had to be ordered from St. Paul, Minn.

Co-op, House Representatives Take Orders As Oregana Holds Annual 'Late Sales' Drive

A "late sales" campaign for the 1950 Oregana is now being held, with Business Manager Jim Sanders and twelve promotion committee members heading the drive.

Although orders for 3200 Oreganas have already been placed, the drive, which will end Nov. 12, will attempt to reach other University students. Sales representatives have been appointed for all campus living organizations, and an order booth is now open at the Co-op.

DOWN PAYMENTS ACCEPTED Payments, just as at registration, may be made on the down-payment basis of two, four, or six dollars. Balance may be paid at any time either at the Student Union offices or at the Oregana business offices. The total cost is six dollars.

A drawing will be held at the Homecoming game, using the names of all "late sales" buyers; winner will receive a free Oregana and further prizes.

FREE OREGANA AWARDS

In addition, the two top salesmen—one from men's and one from

Three for the Show

FINALISTS FOR HOMECOMING Hostess (from left) Coral Kneeland, Marguerite Johns, and Janet Morrison make up the last group of candidates interviewed by the Emerald. Carol Bartel, Barbara Buddenhagen, and Grace Hoffman are the other finalists. (Emerald photo by Deane Bond.)

Homecoming Hostess Finalists Interviewed; Voting a Co-op

By Lorna Larson

Students will vote for Homecoming Hostess candidates in the Co-op Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Hostess will be announced in Portland next weekend.

Likings for horses, "Shaggy Dog" stories, and cookies are found in the last three Homecoming Hostess candidates to be interviewed by the Emerald.

The three are Coral Kneeland, Phi Beta Phi; Janet Morrison, Chi Omega; and Marguerite Johns, Delta Gamma.

Coral Kneeland

"Real excited about going to the Cal game," Coral Kneeland claims football as her "very favorite sport." She went on to explain why.

"I played football when I was a freshman," the five-foot three-inch candidate said, "but we tied 0 to 0." It happens that Coral was center on the Pi Phi team in the 1947 annual "Lipstick Bowl" battle.

She has only one gripe as far as football is concerned. "The thing I dislike are people who sit behind me and tell Mr. Aiken how to coach the game." Coral was a rally girl at University High School in Eugene where she saw many games.

Born in Eugene 20 years ago, Coral has lived here all of her life. She's happy though, and wants to come back to Eugene after working in San Francisco for a while, as a buyer in a department store, she hopes.

A three-acre "semi-ranch" out in the country is Coral's home. "I can't stand chickens, though," she said emphatically. When younger she had to take care of "70 of them!" Her two loves are dogs and horses.

"I have a big hobby—my dog McDuff," Coral revealed. "I'd like to show him sometime, but so far he just shakes hands." She's always had a dog, usually a cocker.

Two years ago in Canada Coral "chased bear on horseback." "Sonny Boy" and "Midnight" are her two horses, which she's had for three and four years, respectively.

"About the best time I've ever had was escorting for a riding acad-

(Please turn to page three)

Beavers Caught Atop Lemon 'O'

Five Oregon State students were caught early Saturday morning by Eugene police in the act of defacing the lemon "O" on Skinner's Butte.

Officers patrolling the area surprised the party after stopping to check on their parked car. They were equipped with a gallon jug of orange paint but were found before they had a chance to use it.

The Weather . . .

Eugene had unseasonal warmth yesterday which was "unusual to say the least," according to Weather Bureau Observer Bob Holt.

Temperature yesterday afternoon reached 75. But it won't last and rain is predicted toward the end of this week.

Today will be slightly cooler with high temperature at 70.

women's living organizations—will receive free Oreganas. The "top two" will be judged on the percentage of Oregana sales in their houses, thus allowing salesmen from small houses to compete.

Sub-committee chairmen for the sales drive have been chosen by Bill Lance and Rusty Mayers, co-chairmen. They are:

Karen Eremeeff, Marilyn Manning, Ken Olsen, Jack Byers, Maurice Hudson, and Jim Walters, window displays; Gretchen Grondahl, Helen Sherman, and Bob Funk, publicity; Jeannie Hoffman, flying speeches.