

Directory Ready In Two Weeks

The first annual 1949-50 Oregon Scholastic Press Directory will be off the presses within two weeks, Mrs. Gloria Billings, secretary of the School of Journalism, disclosed yesterday.

Laurence R. Campbell, professor of the School of Journalism and executive-secretary of the Oregon Scholastic Press, is in charge of the publication. It will contain the names of about 130 high schools throughout the state, the titles and types of publications, names of advisers, and also designate whether or not they are members of the OSP.

Voice Try-Out Set For Radio Audition

Male and female voices, and owners, will be auditioned at 8 Wednesday night in the radio studio of Villard Hall.

Purpose will be to select a student to give a half-time message to alumni at the Homecoming game Nov. 19.

Doug Coleman, chairman of half-time entertainment, explained that a script for the auditions will be supplied Wednesday night. He asked students with good speaking voices to apply, regardless of experience.

Faculty Quartet Readies Concert

The Faculty String Quartet will present its first concert of the year at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Library Browsing Room. The group will play Mozart's "Quartet in A," and Brahms' "Quartet in B Flat."

The group consists of four members of the Music School faculty. George Boughton, assistant professor of violin, and Mary Kapp Allton, music instructor are violinists. Edmund Cykler, associate professor of musicology, will play the viola and Milton Dieteric, cello instructor, the violon cello.

This is the fourth year of quartet concerts in the Browsing Room.

Entry Deadline Set For Poetry Contest

Entries for the Annual Anthology of College Poetry must be submitted to the National Poetry Association before Nov. 5.

The association will accept any number of entries, but requires each entry to be on a separate sheet and to carry the following statement, "This verse entitled— is my own personal effort." Entries must be signed and the college attended and home address of the author must be indicated.

Entries should be sent to the National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 34, Calif.

Station Granted Use of Records

Two more stations have been granted permission to use recordings of "Webfoot Huddle Time," W. H. Ewing, head of the University radio division announced today.

The stations are KGON, Oregon City, and KNTP, Newport. This brings the number of stations who have begun airing the sports show during the last two weeks, up to eight. Last week six stations ranging from Coos Bay to La Grande, were granted permission to use tape recordings of the program.
