

200 Wives' Tickets Go on Sale Today

Two hundred students' wives tickets to the Washington, Oregon game to be held in Portland on November 5, will be on sale Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

These tickets to be sold in Mac court will cost $2.50 each. All other general admission tickets will be sold at Multnomah stadium the day of the game.

Three Join Magazine

Three students were appointed recently to the business staff of Old Oregon, alumni magazine, according to Eve Overback, business manager.

Seymour Gassner, senior in business administration, was named advertising manager. Sue Bachelor, sophomore in liberal arts, will assist him. The position of Business Directory Guide manager will be filled by Barbara Ness, junior in business administration.

ROTC to Start Rifle Matches

Rifle teams of the Infantry and Transportation ROTC divisions have started training for forthcoming rifle matches. The first match will be late in November.

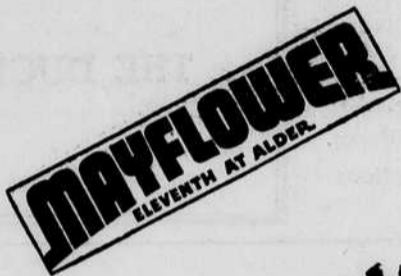

Eleven telegraphic matches are scheduled fall and winter term. In a telegraphic match, each of the two competing schools shoots and records its score, and then sends it to the other school.

The University team has seven men returning from last year. These include Lowell Aplet, Bob Thomas, Gordon Swan, Donald Jacobson, Elmer Hibbs, Neal Crosby, and Irwin Holzman.

Newcomers are Richard Bentz, Gerald Test, John Silliman, Bill Bender, Clyde Warner, Helmuth Herman, Bob Bitney, Morton Bailey, and Ken Eaton.

Cyrus Prouty
Old Book Store
254 Willamette
BOOKS BOUGHT
and SOLD
Books and Collectors
ITEMS SEARCHED FOR.

PATRONIZE THE EMERALD ADVERTISERS

OREGON EMERALD

The Emerald Advertisers are your friends—they are anxious to serve your every need. They deserve your patronage.

Your Emerald brings to you, all of the best deals from Eugene's leading business establishments. Read the Emerald ads and SAVE.

REMEMBER

It pays to patronize Emerald Advertisers.

