

Ducks vs. Huskies

'Good Time' Ducks Headed for Big City

The general exodus from Eugene begins today as eager Webfoots start rolling north for their annual Portland weekend.

Rallies, alumni parties, and dances are scheduled for the action-packed two days in the Rose City, climaxed by Saturday's Oregon-Washington game at Multnomah Stadium. Railroad and bus lines are pressing extra equipment into service to take care of the mass migration.

Tonight's pregame rally, slated for the Paramount Theater at 8 p. m., will uncork the weekend's festivities. Oregon rooters will see 45 minutes of campus talent entertainment plus a top Hollywood hit, "Pinky." For early arrivals, a half hour of football shorts will go on the Paramount screen at 7:30.

This year's Homecoming Hostess will be introduced at the rally by program chairman Gay Baldwin.

Tickets to the rally, at 85 cents each, will be on sale until 10 a. m. today. Twenty per cent of the net take on all tickets sold on the campus will be refunded to the rally board for use in a flashcard fund. Free passes to a later Paramount attraction will be given to each member of the living organization buying the highest percentage of tickets.

POMPOMS BY BERG

White-uniformed Kwamas will hand out free pompoms and megaphones at Charles F. Berg's in Portland Saturday from 9:30 a. m. till noon.

Last year's 1000 pompoms donated by the Portland merchant went so fast that the firm plans

Showers Predicted For Portland Game

Light showers for the Portland game. That's the Weather Bureau's prediction for Saturday.

A storm headed toward Portland is moving slowly, so that heavy rain is not likely, forecasters said yesterday.

But game-goers can expect clouds and a little dampness at Multnomah Stadium, when the Ducks meet the University of Washington.

to give out more this year, according to Berg College Board member Mildred Chetty.

BAND AT BERG'S

Director John Stehn and the University of Oregon band will play at Berg's between 10 and 10:30 a. m. Yell King Jim Crismon and the rally squad will lead yells to add spirit.

Halftime entertainment at the game will include drills by the Oregon band, and the Homecoming Hostess will be reintroduced.

Leading off the weekend's rally dances will be a celebration with reduced student prices at McElroy's Ballroom after tonight's rally, beginning at 9 p. m.

ANOTHER STOMP

Saturday night an Oregon rally dance is scheduled for the Palais Royal and another after-game rally dance at Jantzen Beach. Oregon and Washington students may attend the Jantzen affair for $1 a couple to dance to the music of Freddie Keller and his band.

Alum activities will get under way with a pre-game party at the Multnomah Hotel Assembly Room tonight, 6 to 10 p. m. The event is sponsored by the Portland Alumni Club, with Morris Rotenberg, '35, chairman. All Oregon alumni are invited.

Early-rising alums will attend the annual Duck Club breakfast at the Multnomah Hotel, 8:30 Saturday morning. Open to all alumni, the meal is put on by the Duck Club, a Portland athletic booster organization.

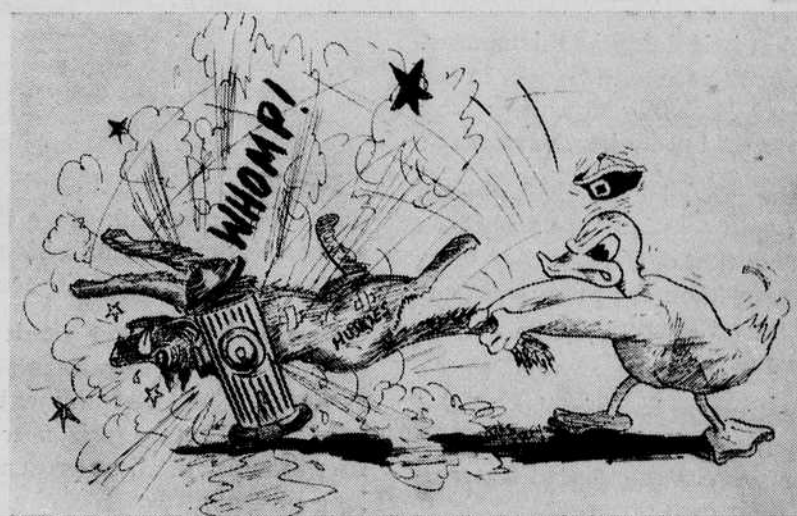

To accomodate the rush of students descending on Portland for the weekend, local bus links and the Southern Pacific have extra equipment waiting for the rush.

King-Size Emerald First of Term's Three

Today's 16-page issue of the Emerald is the first of three special editions planned for fall term, 1949. No Emerald will be published tomorrow morning due to the general student exodus to Portland.

In addition, the new Oregon Daily Emerald nameplate is being used for the first time on today's edition.

Hostess Winner Revealed Tonight

Votes for Homecoming Hostess were counted Thursday night.

The Hostess will be announced tonight at the rally in the Paramount Theater. Her introduction by Gay Baldwin, master of ceremonies, will be first event of the rally, which starts at 8.

The Hostess will also be introduced to spectators at halftime of the Oregon-Washington game Saturday in Multnomah Stadium.

Ticket Pick-up Today

Unsold Paramount rally tickets and money for those sold will be picked up at living organizations today between 8 and 10 a. m.

Webfoots, Huskies To Clash Tomorrow

Two keyed-up football machines, both also-rans in the PCC title race but determined to win tomorrow, swing into action Saturday at 2 p. m. in Portland's Multnomah Stadium.

Jim Aiken's Oregon Webfoots and the University of Washington Huskies meet in what may be a high-scoring offensive show. More than 30,000 fans are expected to fill the ancient stadium.

After three defeats this season, including two conference set-backs, the Ducks aren't rated as heavy favorites. Oregon won last year's Washington game, 13-7 in Seattle.

HUSKIES LEAD SERIES

The two teams have played 41 games, with Washington holding a 20-17 win edge. Four contests ended in a tie score. Total points scored favor the Huskies 401 to 368.

Several Oregon first-stringers, including Guard Ed Chrobot, are on the doubtful list because of injuries. Aiken's starting lineup will not be known until game time.

DUCK BACKFIELD

Earl Stelle and Jim Calderwood will alternate at quarterback, with Bob Sanders, George Bell, John McKay and Woodley Lewis all slated for backfield action.

Husky Coach Howie Odell directs a dangerous ball team, built around Fullback Hugh McElhenny and Don Heinrich at quarterback. Washington has won only one game so far this season, and may concentrate on passes to win Saturday.

This will be Oregon's first game in home territory since losing two straight to USC in Los Angeles and to Iowa at Iowa City.

The Duck squad entrains for Portland Saturday morning, arriving a few hours before game time.

Portland Rally Entertainers Set

"Portland Extravaganza" Chairman Gay Baldwin Thursday released the complete list of entertainers for tonight's rally at the Paramount Theater, 8 p. m.

Campus talent will include a battery of ukeleles, Gay Norton, Fred Schneider, Jerry Cray, and Al Harder, and violinist Con Sheffer, furnishing background music. Joy Grimstad will sing, "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No," hit from the show "Oklahoma."

Cray and Sheffer will present one of their uke-fiddle routines; Dick Barber and Jack Dalk will sing "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," bop style.

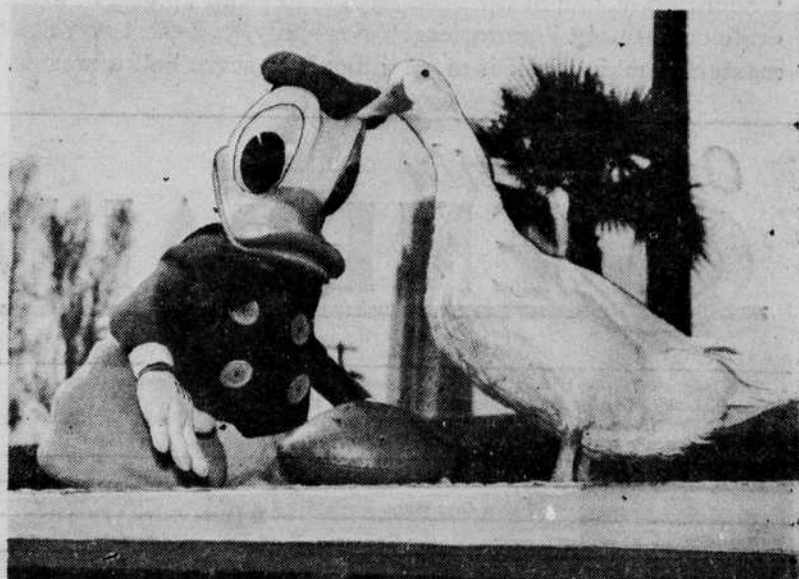

College life will be kidded by Alpha Chi Omegas Judy Rowe, Helen Hyche, Rosie Vaught, Betty Jo Bucklin, Marian Brown, Jeanette Houf, Marilyn Mitchell, and Lela Dejarnette.

Delta Ducklings Margot Spangler, Elizabeth Erlandson, Phyllis Higginbotham, and Barbara Henton will join Kappa Sigmas Hagg, Dick Shirley, Harry Gester, and ATO Bill Monroe in barbershop harmony.

Presenting a song and dance routine will be Kappa Kappa Gammas Georgie Balaam, Mary Dunson, Joanne Gary, Betty and Marilyn Hillman, Barbara Needham, Emily West, and Eva Moore.

"Hellzapoppin" describes the doings of Bob Nelson, Bill Lance, Bill Harber, and Rod Bright.

Puddles and Donald Old Friends

PUDDLES THE DUCK and his more-famous counterpart Donald, of the comic strip Ducks, seem to be getting along famously after formal introduction. The Oregon mascot will be in Portland Saturday, when the Webfoots meet the Washington Huskies in Portland.
