

Coed's Main Desire Is to Visit Mexico

By Diana Kettingham

"My main ambition is to travel. I've never done much of it, which may explain this desire," declared Joan Mimnaugh, business manager of the Emerald.

"For two summers now, a friend and I have made plans for a trip to Mexico. We want to live with a Mexican family and learn their customs and type of life. Mexico has become too Americanized in the Universities so we don't plan to attend school there. Maybe this year we can actually fulfill our plans."

Miss Mimnaugh has a sincere liking for the Spanish language and feels that it would be a marvelous experience living among these people. As president of the Spanish club in her Junior year she has received a fine background for such a venture.

EDUCATION PLANS

Another trip which proves inviting is to continue her education in a European school. Miss Mimnaugh hopes to accomplish this upon graduation from the University of Oregon.

When asked her plans for the future Miss Mimnaugh replied, "at one time I thought I'd like to go into the advertising field, but now I'd just like to receive my Master degree and then, well, I'll see what happens."

Besides holding her post on the Emerald Miss Mimnaugh is a member of Gamma Alpha Chi, advertising honorary, Mortar Board and her sorority Pi Beta Phi.

Last year she presided over the Spanish club, acted as chairman of decorations for the Prom, and was a representative on the Mademoiselle College Board.

Miss Mimnaugh plays a wicked game of tennis but when it comes to golf, "I'm undoubtedly the worlds worse player, sighed the blonde senior. Even the fact that I lived right across from a golf course didn't seem to help my game. I also like to write but I've never sold anything or even tried. Maybe I will someday though."

"The most embarrassing time of my life was the day I was tapped for Mortar Board. As usual it was held Junior Weekend and everyone was at the picnic except me. I was up at Mac Court decorating like mad for the Prom that night when Mortar Board arrived and told me I'd have to go to the picnic. Everyone was neatly dressed and I turned up in a dirty shirt and levis. I could have crawled in a hole."

According to Miss Mimnaugh, the only disgusting thing about her senior year is that she is just 20 and all her friends have reached the ripe old age of 21.

Male Point of View

both boy and girl miss out on a great many things, besides limiting themselves to a close circle of friends. It may cut the individual's chances, but on the other hand it depends upon the persons concerned. The significance of a pin is often based on the particular house. It may just mean going steady to one couple, while to another it implies engaged to be engaged. The agreement lies between the boy and girl.

One member from the audience inquired what a girl should suggest when a fellow asked her where she would like to go. It was definitely answered that the girl should make several suggestions to give the boy an idea. He will undoubtedly arrive at some conclusion.

Sincere, But Polite

The inevitable question was finally popped by one girl near the end of the panel. Needless to mention the query was, of course, should a girl let a fellow kiss her on a first date? The responses were no in almost any case, except that circumstances might justify the situation. The boys pointed out that a girl should signify whether she had a good time or not, but still be sincere as well as polite. In conclusion the panel members stated that there should be no set date for a first kiss.
