U.O. Band to Give Street Concerts On Trip to Oregon-California Game

The University Marching Band will play at the Oregon-California football game Saturday. The 70-member group left Wednesday for Berkeley in two chartered busses.

En route the band will give street concerts and programs in high school auditoriums in Reedsport, North Bend, Coos Bay, Coquille, and Bandon, according to J. H. Stehn, associate professor of music and director of the group.

Leading the band this year are

Phil Green, drum major, and Sharon Ord and Dixie Reynolds, drum majorettes. Helen McAdams, graduate student in English is student manager for the organization.

The Concert Band, a group of 44 who play only in concert, is scheduled for three concerts this term, in Oakridge, Lakeview, and Cottage Grove. Girls may play in the Concert Band although only men are accepted for the Marching Band. The former has 12 girls this year.

Sigma Chi Selects 16 Semi-finalists

Contestants remaining in the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi contest narrowed to 16 freshman girls following a fireside at the Sigma Chi house Wednesday night. The winner of the annual contest will be announced Dec. 2 over radio station KORE.

The 16 will again be guests of the chapter house at a fireside Nov. 16, and the five finalists, to be announced that night, will be guests at a formal dinner Nov. 30.

The following girls are semi-finalists:

Lees Wins Tryout For Debate Meet

Representing the University in the Inter-collegiate forensics tournament Dec. 9 at Linfield college will be William Lees, who was chosen yesterday after try-outs in extemporaneous speaking were completed. Alternates are Mr. Collin and Leland Johnson.

Try-outs for women's representative in the tournament will be held from 2-5 p.m., Nov. 14 at 206 Villard. Extemporaneous speeches, which are to be seven minutes in length, will cover the subject "Industrial Future of the Pacific Northwest." Each entrant will be allowed 30 minutes to prepare her speech before presentation.

Angry Father: "What do you mean by bringing my daughter in at this hour of the morning?"

Mustang Student: "Sorry, sir, but I have to be in class at eight."

"Mr. Jones," asked the instructor, "how far were you from the correct answer?"

"Only three seats, sir."
