

CHRISTIAN HOUSE

Leading tonight's discussion at Christian House will be the Rev. Ronald Osborne, former editor of "Front Rank," a national youth weekly of Disciples of Christ. Arie Noff will have charge of the evening worship.

"Mystic Mirth" was the theme of a party given last night.

WESTMINSTER HOUSE

Sunday afternoon the Westminster group will visit Oregon State College Westminster House for their evening meeting. They will leave Westminster House on the U of O campus at 5 p.m.

LUTHERAN HOUSE

Four students will discuss "The Lutheran Concept of the Church," at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at Lutheran House. Participants will be Margaret Madsen, Dave Lanning, Elvanna Masley, and Jerry Sorenson.

WESLEY HOUSE

"The Messiah" will be presented by Mr. David Wight, graduate assistant in the School of Music, at Wesley House Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. Wight will be assisted by Miss Margaret Reeves, pianist, and Mr. James Kays, tenor soloist.

Preceding the program at 5:15, buffet supper will be served. A worship service will be held at 6 p.m., led by Jax Baker, Fran Blenkinsop, and Emil Settlege.

Students interested in a study course offered by the Foundation, "The Records of the Life of Jesus" are invited to enroll Sunday evening. This course, taught by Dave Seaman, director of Wesley Foundation, will be held during the week at a time to be disclosed later.

PLYMOUTH CLUB

Open house on Sunday at 5 p.m. will initiate the newly remodeled Plymouth House, next to the Congregational church at 13th and Ferry street. All students are invited to enjoy dancing, games, ping pong, pool, square dancing and shuffleboard.

A new 40 by 40 foot hard maple dance floor has recently been added at Plymouth House, providing space for dancing and games. Punch and cookies will be served.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"University Night" will be observed at the First Baptist Church Sunday at 7:30 p.m. with a number of students participating. Glen Holden, church youth director, will lead the singing.

A male quartet consisting of Evan Skersies, W. C. Martin, Jr., Harold Sawatzky, and Glen Lamb will sing. Lamb will sing a solo with cello obbligato by Margie Carlson. Dr. Vance H. Webster will speak on "If I Were Young."

A buffet supper and reception will be held in the church dining room at 5:15 p.m. All students are invited. A special program and fellowship hour will follow.

The Baptist-affiliated Ann Judson House, 1332 Kincaid, will have open house on Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m.

Foreign Aid Gets Airing

Howard S. Piquet, visiting professor of economics, will talk about the "Challenge to American Leadership" on a Nov. 14 program on radio station KOAC. Piquet's speech will be aired at 8:30 p.m.

He will discuss the efforts of the United States to restore world economy with the European Recovery Plan and other similar projects.

Piquet is on leave from the legislative reference section of the Library of Congress, where he is an adviser to several Congressional committees.

He has served on the staff of various Congressional groups, and in 1945-46 was a staff-member in the Office of War Mobilization. He is also a member of the graduate school faculty of American University in the nation's capital.

Ex-Oregon Student Honored in Munich

William B. Nash, Jr., a former University of Oregon student, has been appointed Dormitory Counselor of the Dependents' School in Munich, Germany.

Nash is serving with the U.S. Army Dependents' schools section, Munich Military post. He attended the University of Southern California and the University of North Carolina.

Nash was formerly a priest in the Episcopal church. His home is in Downey, Calif.

Faculty Party Tonight

Single faculty members and graduate assistants are invited to an informal party tonight at 8 in Gerlinger hall.

Course Requisite Made

Students planning to enter Graphic Journalism (J451) must next fall take Rudiments of Photography (Ph 161) as a prerequisite, the School of Journalism has announced.

- Application or
 - Friendship Photos 6 for $2.00
 - Photostats and Copying
 - Photos Sealed in Plastic
- NELSON STUDIO
OF PHOTOGRAPHY
708 Willamette 4-0571
Next to Pope's

WCTU Contest Needs Readings

Declamations suitable for platform readings are needed for the Ada Mohn-Landis Prize Contest sponsored by the National Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The contest is divided into two classes, senior and junior. Senior declamations are for adults and youths, and the winner receives a top prize of $50.

Junior declamations, with a top award of $25, are for children between the ages of 10 and 13.

Deadline for entries is March 31, 1950. Entries must be sent to the Landis Contest, National Women's Christian Temperance Union, Evanston, Ill.

Other details are posted on the School of Journalism bulletin board.

College President To Speak Nov. 17

Frederick Hard, president of Scripps College, will speak Nov. 17 at the University on "Frontiers of American Culture."

His speech will be second in the University Lecture Series.

Mr. Hard received his doctor of philosophy degree from Johns Hopkins University. He has been teaching in colleges and universities for many years. He became president of Scripps College, Claremont, Calif., in 1944.

Mr. Hard is an editorial board member of the Pacific Spectator, a literary and critical periodical published by the Stanford Press.

CLASSIFIED

LOST—Slide rule in library. Ph. 5-5369. 38

FOR SALE—Best quality clarinet in perfect condition with case $110. See at 1543 E. 15th St. T-45 between 6 and 7 p.m. 37

FOR RENT—House trailer. 5-7849 37

FOR SALE—General Electric radio phonograph, good condition. Contact Carolyn Twist, Carson Hall, Ext. 486. 42

Symphony To Perform On Nov. 21

First Northwest performance of Bartok's "Concerto No. III for Piano" will be a feature of the first University Symphony concert of the year. Henri Arcand, Portland pianist, will play Bartok's composition.

Also appearing at the concert, scheduled for Nov. 21 at the Music School Auditorium, will be Mrs. Arcand. The two pianists, making their first appearance with the orchestra, will play Bach's "Concerto in C Minor for Two Pianos."

Lucille Olson, senior in music, will sing Brahms' "Rhapsody" for alto voice, with a male chorus providing background parts.

The University Orchestra will play several selections, including "String Suite from the Shepherd's Lottery" by Boyce and "Adagio for Strings" by Barber.

Printers to Discuss Methods of Work

Barney Shaw, University Press shop foreman, and Nick Cavagnaro, night compositor and Emerald make-up man, will speak on methods of working harmoniously with the mechanical department of a newspaper at 4 p.m. Sunday in 105 Journalism.

The discussion, sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity, is open to all interested students.

Refreshments will be served.

Bowerman to Talk At Annual Meeting

Bill Bowerman, Oregon track coach, will preside over the annual meeting of the Oregon Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation on Dec. 9 and 10 in Bend. He is president of the association.

Opening the two-day meet will be a series of luncheon discussions directed by sectional chairmen.

Dinner and an evening of square dancing and special entertainment are planned for members on Dec. 9.

GOWN BY CEIL CHAPMAN—JEWELS BY PIETER DE WITT.

WITH SMOKERS WHO KNOW...IT'S

Camels for Mildness!

Yes, Camels are SO MILD that in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!