

Ducks Bog Bowl Bound Bears?

OREGON DAILY EMERALD SPORTS

DEWAYNE JOHNSON, Oregon's versatile fullback who may be called from his linebacking chores to fill in part-time for Bob Sanders in today's Oregon-California game at Berkeley.

Ace Cal Back Celeri, Sanders Expected to Go

Champion will meet champion at 2 p.m. today in the University of California stadium when Oregon meets the California Bears.

Oregon, with more injuries in its line-up than at any time during the current season, will match itself against a Cal team which has the least number of injuries it has had this year.

According to the Cal student news bureau, only Halfback Charley Sarver will be kept from action this afternoon. Quarterback Bob Celeri, End Norm Pressley, and Halfback Jack Swaner will all be ready for the game. Celeri has been out of scrimmage during the week because of a leg injury.

Swaner, All-Coast last year, played his first game of this season a week ago against Washington State, and is now said to be completely recovered from an early season hurt.

Pressley missed the WSC game, but will be ready to go today and is listed on the Bears' starting line-up.

Oregon, on the other hand, is at a low point from the standpoint of fitness for the contest. Most important injury is that of Bob Sanders, hard-charging fullback.

Sanders will be ready for the game, according to Coach Jim Aiken. Some sources quoted Aiken yesterday as saying that Sanders definitely will not be fit for the Bear hunt.

Aiken said Wednesday that Big Bob was bruised last Saturday by a Washington knee in his side, but finished the game in spite of the injury. The bruise, according to the Duck mentor, has not responded to treatment as was expected.

Fans will know whether Sanders plays by listening to the game today, and probably not before that.

Also on the Webfoot injury list is Halfback Johnny McKay, who was hurt last week when a Husky tried to pull his leg. End Darrell Robinson also has a sore leg, but both men are slated to play this afternoon.

Celeri's appearance or absence in the Cal Stadium for today's battle has been debated up and down the Coast all week. The Cal news organs seem to think he will play, but the United Press continues to argue that point.

Celeri holds nine individual all-time California records, which, by Coast standards, are not necessarily sensational. The number of records which he has set this year, however, does mark Celeri as different from the run-of-the-mill quarterback.

The "Fox," as his team-mates call him, is without doubt the greatest quarterback California has ever had, and they've been playing football since 1882.

Hailing from Fort Bragg, Calif., the quarterbacking wizard, a senior, has completed 40 passes in 8 games this season for a total of 852 yards.

In rushing, Celeri has carried the ball 45 times for 200 yards. Altogether, he has gathered 1,052 yards, making his game average 131.45 yards.

Celeri's triumphs in ball-handling include fooling television camera operators. Three times in the UCLA game TV cameramen followed the play the wrong way "because of Celeri's deception," according to the Cal athletic news bureau.

Frosh Spill Rooks, 13-0 On Rain-Soaked Turf; Lyman, Ervin Tally TDs

Oregon's 1949 Frosh gridiron team drew the curtain on a semi-successful season as it rolled to a 13-to-0 victory over the Oregon State Frosh Friday on rain-soaked Bell Field in Corvallis.

In a game that was marred by a total of 19 fumbles, 11 by the Frosh and 8 by the Baby Beavers, the Ducklings finally found their scoring punch early in the fourth quarter to move into a lead that was never threatened.

Oregon's first score came through Halfback Ron Lyman, who personally racked up over 100 yards, and Fullback Carl Ervin, alternating in the ball carrying role, and padding to three quick first downs starting from the Rood 35-yard line.

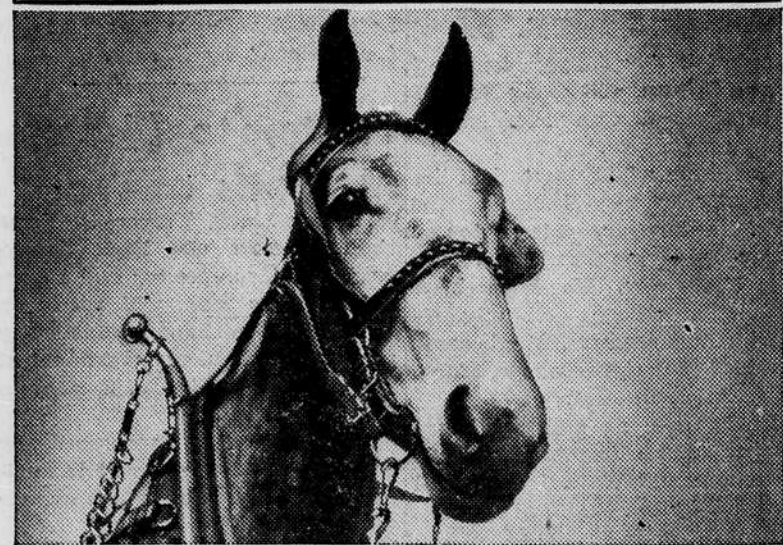

Then Lyman took a handoff from Quarterback Hal Dunham and charged over the left side of the Orange line for the score. Wayne Parsons added the extra point and the Bowerman crew led 7-0, nine minutes of playing time remaining.

The Ducklings took over again shortly after an Oregon State series of plays ended with a fumble on the OSC 39-yard line. Oregon pounded out a first down with Ervin carrying when the Rooks received two costly penalties for illegal use of hands and unsportsmanlike conduct, to place the ball on their own three. From there, Ervin boomed over right guard for the teedee. Parson's kick was blocked.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

FOR A WHILE, Sheedy's life story was a pretty sad tale. People rode him about his wild, unruly hair. And it wasn't until his favorite filly gave him the gait that he decided to do something about it. He trotted down to the corner drug store and bought a bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. You should see him now! Non-alcoholic Wildroot containing Lanolin keeps his hair neat and well-groomed all day long. No more annoying dryness, no more loose, ugly dandruff.

Take a tip from Sheedy. If your sugar balks when you ask for a date, you need Wildroot Cream-Oil right away. Get it in bottles or tubes at your local drug or toilet goods counter. And ask your barber for professional applications. You'll be a winner every time!
