

Tradition Violators Apprehended; Hacks, Water Named Punishment

Forty-two flouters of Homecoming traditions have been apprehended.

Punishment will be meted out at 12:30 this afternoon on the steps of Fenton Hall. Men should bring paddles and women should wear water-repellent clothing.

Violators who do not show to answer for their misdeeds will be tracked down at the Homecoming game Saturday, Chairman Bob Don warns.

Heedless treaders on campus lawns include Cork Mobley, Georgianne Balaam, Barbara Alderman, Andy Bodner, Josephine Gold, Mary Brenner, Shirley Potter, Beverly Sorenson, Jackie Dilley, Joan White, Daryle Nelson, Joe French, Dave Rodway, and Ray Cooly.

Other violators are Sally Waller, Don South, Mary Keller, Maureen Cotta, Wilma Hamilton, Glen Garrett, Jim Crismon, Jim Love, Herb Ray, Don Castle, Tom Mannex, Naomi Fulton, Dick Portwood, Dave Alexander, Phil Patterson, Baxter Sharp, Stu Richardson, Jerry Meyers, and Bob Rudolph.

Nabbed smoking on the old campus were Bill Schultz, Glenn Holden, Ed Anderson, and Jo Gold.

Freshmen without rooters' lids were Richard Riggs, Chet Noe, Jess Fogarty, Charles Laird, Don Hoy, and Wayne Parsons.

Traditions not violated so far, but being checked, include wearing of class pants by all men, green hair-ribbons for freshman women, and requirement of "hellos" for all who meet on Hello Walk, between Fenton and Deady Halls.

Piggers' Guides Ready

All students who have not picked up their Piggers' Guides may do so between 8 a.m. and noon today at McArthur Court. This is the last day to pick up the guides. They may be obtained at the Student Union office after today.

MUSIC NOTES FROM WILLAMETTE

MUSICAL OF EUGENE

I have been stabbed in the back, in yesterday's column, I made the remark that there were only two recordings in Oregon of "king" cole's, "mule train" for capitol records, one in portland, the other in the capable hands of don porter of kugn. well, bob and mimi (ladies first, please) mimi and bob of kash (1600 kc's and 1000 watts) did the dastardly deed, with the aid of tommy tomlinson of capitol records in portland, and so, last night, after just barely getting hold of the disc, they play it and stab me in the handbook. I can't hold it against them tho. mimi . . . w.l.e.i.O...y'leikdshur mimi . . . well . . . i'd like to know her better, and bob the hoodlum . . . is a hoglum and is the possessor of one of the few TRUE senses of humor I have ever come across for this I envy him.

FOR those who might be interested kerg (k eugene register guard) just might sneak on the air this weekend. 1000 watts at 1280 o nth dial. chief engineer is cal applegate, one swell fella. best wishes to kerg, the staff and management, from willamette music of eugene.

WILLAMETTE music of eugene has something special coming up that we sincerely believe all of you will enjoy. it's free too. more on this later. watch the emerald for further news.

IVCF to Stage Homecoming Event

Skits, musical stunts, and varied entertainment are on the agenda Saturday at 8 p.m. in Gerlinger annex when Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship presents "Inter-Varsity Comebacks of '49."

Local members will be hosts to the Oregon State IVCF chapter and University alumni at this semi-formal Homecoming event. Moving pictures of the group at conferences, parties, and on campus will be shown. A time of inspiration will be followed by refreshments. There is no admission charge.

Marguerite on the Air

BEHIND THE MIKE are Homecoming Hostess Marguerite Johns and disc jockey Don Porter shown in an informal interview conducted on radio station KUGN's "Swing Soiree" Monday night.

KOAC to Feature Strange Murder Without a Killing

The murder of a man without killing him is the strange feature of today's Radio Workshop over KOAC from 4:30 till 5.

The play, William D. Steele's "Luck," involves two men in love with one girl. The loser in the affair plots a fake suicide with the idea of having his rival convicted of murder. He arranges the situation so that his enemy is the last person seen with him, and makes sure that the motive for murder is clearly established.

Together, the two men leave the village to journey over a lonely mountain path. Only one of them will reach his destination.

Cast will include Ken Neal, Duane Geer, Ray Hamilton, Alan Hicks, Janet Harris, and Keith Cockburn. Dick Rayburn will be the first KOAC student producer of the year. He will be assisted by Marvin Horenstein.

Number of Alumni To Decide Winner

A prize will be awarded the living organization with the most alums registered for Homecoming, stated Anne Case, registration chairman, in urging all alumni to register.

Registration will be handled at Eugene and Osburn Hotels, Johnson Hall, and McArthur Court Friday and Saturday. Booths will be run by members of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary.

In charge of setting up the booths are Jean Burgess, Joanne Fitzmaurice, Dana Lind, and Jane Weber.

Alpha Tau Omega registered the largest number of alums last year.

Rotary Foundation Offers Fellowship

Applications are now being accepted for the Rotary Foundation Fellowship for advanced study abroad, according to Warren Smith, professor emeritus of geology and geography.

The fellowship is offered by Rotary International and is sufficient to cover normal expense for one academic year including transportation. Oregon residents are preferred.

Students interested should make an appointment in the Graduate School Office, Fenton Hall to see Smith, who will interview applicants from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Thursday and from 11 to noon and 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Friday.

Journalism Student Suffers Broken Leg

Lucille Wright, junior in journalism, suffered a broken leg Saturday afternoon while skiing at Mt. Lincoln, Calif., some 50 miles west of Reno, Nev.

She was taken to Washoe General Hospital, in Reno where she is expected to remain until Friday. She will then be taken to her home in Sacramento.

Her leg was broken in four places.

Frosh to Gather Bonfire Material

Freshman men will bring Homecoming bonfire material to the intramural field throughout today and Friday, revealed Herb Lombard, bonfire chairman, Wednesday afternoon.

Originally, material was to be thrown on four piles first and then into one big pile later, but, due to orders from University officials, all material will be immediately thrown together. Students have been assigned to pile material throughout the day.

The intramural field has been inaccessible this week due to blacktopping of the entrance gate, but Lombard assures that the gate will be open tomorrow.

Arcands to Play Monday Night

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arcand, Portland musicians, will be soloists with the University Orchestra Monday night when the group presents its first concert of the year.

The concert will be at 8:15 in the Music Auditorium. Lucille Olson, music senior, will also be featured.

Mr. Arcand is manager of the Friends of New Music, a group which sponsors modern music in Portland. Mrs. Arcand is a music teacher.

They will combine their talents in Bach's "Concerto in C Minor for Two Pianos." Mr. Arcand will also play Bartok's "Concerto No. III for Piano" in the first performance of the work in the Northwest.

Miss Olson will sing Brahms' "Rhapsody for Alto Voice." She will be backed by a male chorus. Other orchestral numbers on the program include Boyce's "String Suite from the Shepherd's Lottery," and Barber's "Adagio for Strings."

CARSON ROOMS FILLED

No further reservations are available for friends or parents in Carson Hall during Homecoming, Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, director of dormitories said Wednesday.
