

'Love' Sunday Lecture Topic As Damian Series Continues

Love will be the subject of the second lecture by the Rev. Damian Jentges, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Mt. Angel, Oregon at the Newman Club meeting at 7 p.m. Sunday in the YMCA building.

Father Damian's first lecture covered the five heads under which marriage instruction is given. The interest, discussion, and questions aroused by the talk led George Yost, president of the club, to invite Father Damian to speak again Sunday.

The lecturer studied theology in Salzburg, Austria, and was rector of the Mt. Angel Seminary for three years. He edits a "Question Box" column in a Catholic magazine.

Marilyn Carpenter will be in charge of the Christmas party which will be held Dec. 4. Tom Mitchell is chairman of the new faculty adviser committee.

An organizational meeting to plan for the Northwest convention of the Newman Club Federation will be held at 10 a.m. Sunday at St. Mary's Church. Jim Harvey and Linda Pedron are in charge of publicity and promotion committee for the event. All Newmanites interested in the convention may attend.

Orchestra Plays Monday Night

The University Orchestra's first concert of the year will feature soloists Lucille Olson, senior in music, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arcand, Portland musicians, Monday night at 8:15, in the Music School auditorium. KOAC will broadcast the program.

Arcand, manager of the Friends of New Music, and his wife, a music teacher, will play Bach's "Concerto in C minor for two pianos" and Mr. Arcand will play Bartok's "Concerto No. III for Piano."

Miss Olson will sing the "Rhapsody for Alto Voice" by Brahms, a setting for one of Goethe's poems. A male chorus will join the University contralto.

For this first concert of the year the orchestra will play Boyce's "String Suite from the Shepherd's Lottery" and Barber's "Adagio for Strings."

The group will play a program of German music on Dec. 1 and for "The Messiah" on Dec. 11.

Cook: Two old maids.

Cannibal King: Ugh! Leftovers again.

No Loyalty Checks Needed--LSA Here

Sometimes it doesn't pay to get coy with naive freshmen. If you don't believe it, just ask Francis Linklater, president of the Independent Students' Association.

When an innocent frosh Piggers' Guide worker asked Linklater the full name of the student organization of which he was president, he kiddingly told her that it was the Loyal Students' Association.

If you've noticed Linklater's red face lately, it's not a sunburn. The Piggers' Guide came out with the ISA listed as the Loyal Students' Association.

Military Honors Given by ROTC

Second year advanced ROTC students who have been named Distinguished Military Students were announced by Col. Frank R. Maerdian, professor of military science and tactics, and Major Edwin L. Hibner, professor of air science and tactics.

Selection was based on the men's performance in first year advanced ROTC. Scholarship, leadership abilities, and outstanding suitability for military service.

The awards in air are John Doyle, Morris Galen, Seymour Gassner, Richard Cramer, Arthur Johnson, Robert Kane, Robert Lavey, Harold Weeks, James Howard, Cecil Rose, Walter Miller, and William Van Dyke.

In infantry and transportation awards were given to Raymond Scofield, Gerald Marris, John Carson, Charles Anderson, John Holt, Alvin Saxton, Lawrence Neer, Walter Smith, Donald Malloch, Norman Rhodes, Vernon Thomson, Robert Thomas, Gene Hogan, Robert Kingsbury, and Alexander Cleary.

Church Invites Alums

All Homecoming guests are especially invited to the services at First Baptist Church Sunday. Dr. Vance H. Webster, the pastor, will speak at 11 a.m. on, "The Thankful Heart." Miss Joy Grimstad will sing "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" by Liddle, and the choir will also sing.

The sound film "Answer for Anne" will be shown at the evening service. Dr. Webster will speak on "Pilgrims Progress in 1949."

KDUK Opener Delayed Again

Opening of campus radio station KDUK, set for Dec. 2, has been postponed indefinitely. Tests will continue to develop the widest possible range for the station within limits set up by the FCC.

Faculty and station officials declined to elaborate. Herman Cohen, instructor in speech and adviser for the station stated that tests being conducted this week should determine more accurately KDUK's first broadcast date. The goal of the staff is to put the "voice of the Ducks" on the air sometime before the end of the quarter.
