Protests Flare Over DuShane Plan

Johnson Will Check Card Stunts

By KEN METZLER

Protest against the deferred living plan broke in the open Friday when many fraternities erected Homecoming signs with a "beat the DuShane plan" theme.

Rumors that fraternities would promote a chant and card stunts designed to incite alumni action remained unconfirmed last night but ASUO President Art Johnson said he would personally try to stop any such attempt.

"I'll be down in the flashcard section myself and if anything like that happens I'll try to stop it personally," Johnson said.

NO PLAN

A check with fraternity house presidents revealed no movement underway to start a chant in the cheering section against the plan.

One president expressed belief that it would start spontaneously.

Jerry Kinersley, chairman of the flashcard committee, said he knew nothing of the rumor about card stunts. Asked whether he would deny that any arrangements have been made, he said:

"No, I won't make an official denial—I just won't say anything because I don't know anything about it."

COUNCIL OPPOSES

The "DuShane plan," so-called because of its sponsor, Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs, was also opposed by the Interfraternity Council which recently released a mimeographed bulletin setting forth the council's views.

Main fraternity argument is that the University administration put through the plan without adequate representation of houses and dorms. House presidents of most fraternities and sororities contacted by the Emerald felt the problem of adjusting to deferred living would not be extensive.

But, as one fraternity man put it, "they're cramming something down our throats."

DuShane told the Emerald yesterday that he felt it would be more honest to tell living organizations of the objectives of the plan with details to be made later than to ask student opinion knowing full well that the policy was to go into effect.

STILL IN EFFECT

A statement from University President Harry K. Newburn released yesterday said:

"... The educational reasons for adoption of this plan are the same now as they were then (last January when DuShane announced the plan had been put off until fall of 1950) and, of course, it still is in effect."

University Symphony Schedules First Season Concert Monday

Bartok's "Concerto No. III for Piano" will be played for the first time in the Northwest Monday night at the University Symphony Orchestra concert to be held in the Music Auditorium at 8:15.

Henry Arcand, Portland pianist, will play the number. He and Mrs. Arcand will be guest soloists. This will be the orchestra's first concert this year. Lucile Olson, senior in music, will sing Brahms' "Rhapsody for Alto Voice," and Mr. and Mrs. Arcand will play Bach's "Concerto in C Minor for Two Pianos." Radio Station KOAC will broadcast part of the concert, beginning at 8:30.

Murals, Ultra-Violet To Carry Out Theme, 'Touch of Tomorrow'

Three dimensional murals with ultra-violet lighting will carry out the theme of "One Touch of Tomorrow," tonight at the Homecoming dance in McArthur Court.

Music of Will Osborne will be featured at the annual affair, which starts at 9 p.m. Short silks and suits are dress for the dance, and corsages are not in order. Programs will go only to early-arrivers, as but a thousand have been printed.

Admission price is $2.40 per couple. Tickets will be sold today at alumni registration booths and at the dance. Alums and parents wishing to watch the dance from the balcony will be admitted free.

INTERMISSION

At intermission, Marguerite Johns, 1949 Homecoming Hostess will be presented. Friars, senior men's honorary, and Druids, junior men's honorary, will tap new members at that time.

An added surprise will occur at 11 p. m. when 300 balloons will drop from the ceiling of the Court.

Ticket Chairman Ann Darby has asked that Skull and Dagger members and dorm representatives who have not returned tickets and money do so at once.

GUESTS LISTED

Guest of honor at the dance will include Chancellor and Mrs. Paul C. Packer, President and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn, Dean and Mrs. Paul B. Jacobson, Dean and Mrs. Sidney Little, Dr. and Mrs. Vergil S. Fogdall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alan Wickham, and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ebbighausen.

Students have been asked not to sit in the patron's section at the dance by Jerry Smith, dance chairman.

Assisting Smith have been Al Adolf, promotion chairman; Jerry Meyers, Tom Barry, and Francis Gilmore, promotion sub-chairman; Betty Wright, decorations; Georgie Oberteuffer, programs; Shirley Potter, patrons; Ann Darby, tickets; and Donna Bernhardt, clean-up.

Phi Delt-Tri Delt Float Judged Tops in Parade

Ann Judson House and Delta Tau Delta were awarded the first-place prizes for Homecoming signs last night at the campus variety show. Coming in second and third in the women's division were Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Delta Delta, respectively.

This is the third straight year that Ann Judson has won first place in the sign contest.

The judging committee awarded second place in the men's division to Phi Kappa Psi, and third place to Phi Kappa Sigma.

Noise parade winners were Phi Delta Theta - Delta Delta Delta, first place; Sigma Alpha Epsilon-Kappa Alpha Theta, second place; Beta Theta Pi - Carson number 5, third place.

Winners of the campus clean-up contest were the patrollers of area number 21—Gamma Hall, Delta Zeta, and Phi Kappa Sigma.

Award ceremonies were included in the variety show, a portion of which was broadcast, paradoxically, over station KOAC. Show Chairman Bob Nelson acted as master of ceremonies.

A show-stopping act was a Hawaiian quartet, which sang four numbers plus encore. The entire show was accented with "hip, hip, hooray's" from various corners of McArthur Court.

Other acts included the Pi Phi trio, Kappa Sig quartet, Theta Chi chaos, contortions by Stan Weaver, and yells by Yell King Jim Crismon.

Oregon's Homecoming bonfire, unmolested throughout the week, blazed on schedule immediately preceding the variety show.
