Half-time to Feature Stunts, 1919 Team

Card stunts, numbers by Oregon and Oregon State bands, and introduction of Oregon's 1919 Rose Bowl team will be included in entertainment for this afternoon's game with Oregon State.

Gov. Douglas McKay will open pre-game ceremonies at 1:15 p.m., Doug Coleman, game entertainment chairman said. Homecoming Hostess Marguerite Johns will then be introduced to alumni and townspeople at the game.

'O' MEN MARCH

One hundred-twenty former Order of the "O" men will make their annual march around Hayward Field. Then Oregon's 1919 Rose Bowl team, 7-6 losers to Harvard at Pasadena and Oregon's last Pacific Coast champs before 1948, will be introduced.

The Oregon band will serenade visiting Oregon State students before joining with the Oregon State band for the "Star Spangled Banner."

Between first and second quarters, Miss Johns will draw a girl's name from Oregana late sales receipts for a date with Joe College (Bob Gray). She will draw a boy's name for a date with Betty Coed (Helen Simpson) between third and fourth quarters. Refunds on Oregana purchase price will finance the dates.

At halftime, an Oregon card stunt will welcome OSC students while the Oregon State band plays.

Four more card stunts will then be given in conjunction with the Oregon band and a girls' drill team, the "Emeraldettes."

FIRST APPEARANCE

This will be the first appearance of the newly-formed drill group, composed of 44 girls—two from each women's living organization. All will be clad in white skirts, and half will wear yellow sweaters, half green sweaters.

The "Emeraldettes" will rehearse on the intramural field today at 10 and again at noon in full dress with pompoms, Coleman states.

The first card stunt will say "Hi, Alums" while the band plays "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and students sing the words.

"Oregon Then," will be the message of the next card stunt, accompanied by the band playing "As I Sit and Dream at Evening," with Mary Hawkins and Phil Green singing.

"Now and Tomorrow" will be the third stunt, completing the Homecoming slogan. The band will play and students sing "Cruising Down the Millrace."

Final card stunt will depict an "O" which will change into a Duck, while "Mighty Oregon" is played and sung.

Students have been asked by Coleman to remain in the stands during halftime.
