

Duck Grid Season Ends as Beavers Rout Rivals 20-10

By SAM FIDMAN

The curtain dropped Saturday on Oregon's 1949 football season, as the Webfoots suffered their sixth defeat in ten starts at the hands of Oregon State.

A homecoming crowd of 23,500 at Hayward Field watched as Kip Taylor's revitalized Beavers came to life in the second half to overcome a 3-0 Duck lead, and go on to win 20-10.

Oregon's lone ray of light on a dark day was a sensational 92 yard punt return by "All the way" Woodley Lewis late in the fourth quarter.

After the Orange offense bogged down on the OSC 44, Ken Carpenter kicked on fourth down. Lewis took the kick on his own eight and headed for the left sidelines. He shook off two Oregon State tacklers and, after regaining stride—lost when he partially ran into one of his own men—he just ran.

Lewis' score came with the Beavers holding a 20-3 lead. The three points came with less than three minutes remaining in the first half.

After a see-saw first quarter, which was highlighted by tight line play and fairly consistent punting, the Webfoots finally got a scoring break when rugged Dick Daugherty intercepted Gene Morrow's pass on the OSC 29 and bulled it back to the 27.

Then after a series of line plays, and a completed pass from Earl Stelle to Lou Robinson which was nullified when the massive end took it out of the end zone, Chet "Cool Pappa" Daniels unlimbered his big toe and kicked a perfect field goal from the 20.

With less than six minutes gone in the third quarter, Beaver End John Thomas took a pass from Bill Sheffold on the Oregon five and went into the end zone to climax a march of 58 yards.

Oregon State scored its second touchdown with a little more than a minute remaining in the third period. Dick Twenge, running like a bulldozer, cracked into the Oregon line four times in succession from the two yard line, finally blasting into the end zone for the tally.

Stan McGuire, rated the Associated Press' lineman of the week before the Oregon-OSC game, made good on the conversion, his second of the afternoon, to send OSC out in front 14-3.

With the fourth period less than five minutes old, Carpenter passed to Morrow who took the ball on Oregon's 13 and scored standing up. McGuire's try for point was no good, and Oregon State had a 20-3 margin which stood until Lewis' brilliant run and Daniels' conversion.

U.O. Sig Eps Battle to Tie With Aggies

The annual homecoming skirmish between the talented juggernauts from the Oregon Sig Ep house and the Oregon State Sig Ep chapter ended in a locked-horn six-all deadlock.

The two elevens, playing during the wee small hours of Saturday morning, unmercifully attached each other in all fury as each was seeking the trophy cup, but neither crew was able to punch over a tie-breaking tally.

The third annual skirmish (the Oregon house winning the initial two games) was played on the Uni-High field. The Oregon house used a two platoon system—a la Aiken—in coming back in the second half from a 6-0 score favoring the Aggie house. A pass from Jim Ekstrom to Dick Runyard notched the six points for the local talent. The successful conversion was nullified because it had been caught behind the end zone.

The Oregon chapter kept the cup on the basis of last year's 6-0 victory over the OSC house in Corvallis.

Initial Game Looms Before Duck Cagers

Coach John Warren has put his charges through a full month of heavy action in preparation for non-conference games in Salt Lake City on Dec. 2-3 against Utah State and Utah respectively.

TWO UNIT NEW

Warren said that he would experiment with a "two-unit" system in these tilts. One unit composed of Dale Warberg and Will Urban at forwards, Mel Streeter at center, and Paul Sowers and Mel Krause or John Neely at guards has gained a "top listing" at this writing. The second unit, definitely a running one, would probably see Ken Hunt and Bob Lavey at guards, Bob Don at center, and Jack Keller and Paul Cooper at forwards. Bob Amacher, six foot, nine inch center has proven exceptional ability on backboard recoveries and will probably see a great deal of action. Warren said that a twelve man traveling squad will likely be chosen by the end of this week's workout.

Don Kirsch, frosh coach, who has been tutoring approximately thirty aspirants for berths on the frosh squad, released the frosh schedule earlier this week.

Ace Miler

Hutchins Holds Berth For Empire Games

By BILL CLOTHIER

Jack Hutchins, Oregon's ace sophomore miler, will participate in the British Empire Games in Auckland, New Zealand, starting February 4, 1950. He will go as a member of the Canadian team. Hutchins is a native of Victoria, B. C.

WINNING TIME

The Empire Games tryouts were held in Toronto, Ontario, last summer with contestants coming from all the provinces of Canada. Hutchins took first place in the trial run against a field of six other milers. His winning time was 4 minutes 20 seconds.

His victory made him the logical choice for the event, but it was not until a week ago that Hutchins was officially notified of his selection.

LITTLE OLYMPICS

The Empire Games are a type of little Olympics held among the various dominions and possessions of the British Empire. They are held every four years, as are the Olympics, but the schedule is staggered that there is a two year period between the two contests. Hutchins was also a member of the Canadian Olympic team that competed in London in 1948.

The Canadian team, composed of 16 men and 7 women competing in a variety of events including swimming, weight lifting, track, and field, will leave Vancouver, B. C., December 22. They expect to arrive in Auckland about January 17, and spend two weeks in training before competition gets underway.

Final Playoffs Ring Down Volleyball Play

By CLYDE FAHLMAN

Two "B" tilts today — Minturn vs. Phi Kappa Sigma and McChesney vs. Lambda Chi Alpha — will officially ring down the curtain on intramural volleyball play.

Last night's action saw Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Chi Psi cinch league one and two respectively. Previously established winners were Phi Delta Theta in league three, Beta Theta Pi in league four, and Phi Gamma Delta in league six.

In Minturn wins today they will have taken top spot in league five. If they should lose there will have to be a playoff game with Delta Tau Delta for the berth.

A single elimination for top spot between "A" and "B" league winners will start next Monday.

The SAE net crew had very little trouble in taking a loop championship with 15-2 and 15-8 victories over the Kappa Sigma juniors. Chi Psi was literally handed their championship as Phi Sigma Kappa failed to floor a team.

In the only "A" tiffs of the evening Tau Kappa Epsilon spilled Stitzer Hall twice on 15-2 scores while Theta Chi won the first and third games on respective 15-2 and 15-3 scores after losing the middle game to Westminster 15-13.

The Legal Eagles forfeited their tiffs with Phi Kappa Psi in further "B" league action. Two rallies gave the Campbell Club 15-10 and 15-4 wins over Pi Kappa Alpha.

Indians Play Hawaii Jan. 2

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Coach Tommy Kahulukukiu of the University of Hawaii said that his team is "practically certain" of a Jan. 2 game with Stanford University in Honolulu, and that another one around Christmas time was being considered with University of San Francisco.

Coach Joe Kuharich of the USF Dons said he and his club all were in favor of the island trip providing proper arrangements could be made.

Kaulukukiu said that still on the Islanders' schedule are games with Fresno State Dec. 2; College of Pacific Dec. 16; and possibly the USF and Stanford battles.

Stanford University players will announce a vote tomorrow on whether to make the trip.
