Lewis Orders Mine Walkout

By United Press

The nation's 400,000 soft coal miners began walking out again last night after United Mine Workers Chief John L. Lewis failed to make a deal for a new contract during a three-week truce.

The miners waited at the pit entrances "hoping that the unpredictable Lewis" would extend the truce, according to Frank K. Noll, United Press correspondent.

This is the fourth major mine shutdown this year. The miners have worked 160 days out of 234 working days this year. They have lost some $1200 each in wages because of the walkouts and the three-day week period.

WAA Invitations Extended to 118

The Women's Athletic Association will initiate 118 women in an initiation ceremony tonight in Alumni Hall, Gerlinger. Bonnie Glenner, WAA president, will read the initiation ceremony.

Girls who have earned awards in volleyball and badminton competition are eligible for initiation.

Any eligible girl who has not received an invitation should contact her house manager.

A program of entertainment, community singing, and refreshments will follow the initiation ceremony.

A family budget is what people straighten out every payday--so they'll have something to borrow from until next payday.

Educators Plan Panel Discussion

Problems met by new and student teachers will be discussed tonight at 7:30 in room 2, Education Building.

A panel of six persons from the field of education will air the challenge, "So Now You Are a Teacher?"

The panel will include George Nelson, principal of Roosevelt High School; Errett Humell, from Burns; John Miller, principal of Elementary School in Leaburg; Howard Townsend, Loraine High teacher; Mrs. Mildred Williams, University High teacher; and Mrs. Ruth Hill Beacon, superintendent-teacher at Eugene High School.

Freshmen and sophomores, as well as upper classmen and graduate students interested in Education may attend.

Officials Plan Meet On Civil Service

A conference on Oregon State Civil Service job opportunities was planned for Jan. 26 at a meeting Wednesday of two Service officials and Karl W. Onthank, University graduate placement service director.

The two officials, James M. Clinton, assistant director, and George Robinson, chief examiner, will be present at the Jan. 26 meeting, along with representatives of various state agencies.

Interested faculty members will be given an opportunity to meet with Civil Service representatives at a luncheon. Both faculty and students will attend a general open meeting and several others on specialized subjects.

The Civil Service Commission is cooperating with the University graduate placement office and heads of University departments in planning the conference.

Group Names Miller President

Dr. Miller is the first Northwest man to hold the presidency in the association. He was selected at the 13th annual meeting of the Pacific Coast section at Claremont College in California Nov. 25 and 26.

More than 60 representatives of colleges and universities in Washington, Oregon, California, and Utah attended the meeting.

The next association meeting will be held on the University of Oregon campus in the fall of 1950, the first to be held in the Northwest.
