

No Late Fees Charged By General Extension

No late fees will be charged for registration at the General Extension Division night classes in Eugene during the coming week, disclosed Dr. V. A. Moore.

After this week, a late registration fee of $1 will be charged, Moore, head of the division's department of statewide services, stated.

Group Plans Skiing Jaunt

A ski jaunt to McCredie Springs will be sponsored this weekend by the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship.

Everyone is invited, according to Barbara Freeman who is in charge of the outing. Persons wishing to attend are asked to call Miss Freeman at Rebec House for reservations and additional details.

The skiers plan to leave Gerlinger at 7 a.m. Saturday for the Willamette Pass ski area and will stay at McCredie Springs lodge that night. They will return Sunday afternoon.

Expenses for the trip will total $6.50. This includes lodging, $1.50; transportation, $2.50; dinner and breakfast, $2.50.

Red Hot Huskies

(Continued from page four)

in the vicinity of the keyhole. He is also one of the top tip-in men on the team.

The balance of the traveling squad, although not announced by the Husky mentor, likely will include reserve center Don Stewart, letterman forward Jim Eckmann, guards Marcus Metger and Keith Jefferson and either George Chalich or John Rognan.

The Cougars will present the most dangerous line-up Washington has faced this season with center Gene Conley and Ed Gayda pacing a high-scoring attack. To win at Pullman, the Huskies will have to hold Conley to considerably less than the 18-point average he fashioned on WSC's invasion of the Willamette Valley this year.

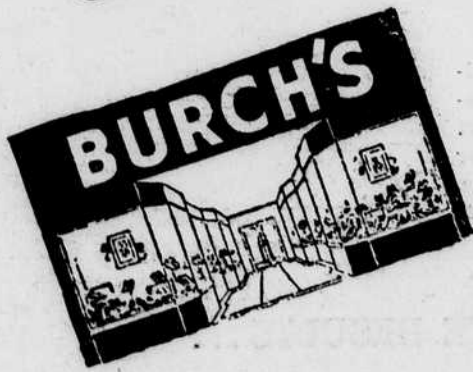

PATRONIZE THE EMERALD ADVERTISERS

The Emerald Advertisers are your friends—they are anxious to serve your every need. They deserve your patronage.

Your Emerald brings to you, all or the best deals from Eugene's leading business establishments. Read the Emerald ads and SAVE!

REMEMBER

It Pays To Patronize Emerald Advertisers.

OREGON EMERALD

