

U.O. Women To Hold Dinners

Exchange dinners for the Schwering Memorial scholarship fund will be held by all women's living organizations Thursday. Heads of Houses has announced.

Each girl will donate ten cents for the fund whether she is exchanged or remains at her own organization. The dinners are held each term, with proceeds being used for a scholarship to an outstanding junior woman, awarded during junior weekend each year.

Pairings for the dinner are Carson second floor, Alpha Gamma Delta, and Kappa Alpha Theta; Carson third floor, Chi Omega, and Alpha Delta Pi; Carson fourth floor, Delta Zeta, and Alpha Xi Delta; Carson fifth floor, Gamma Phi Beta, and Alpha Phi.

Hendricks, Pi Beta Phi, and Zeta Tau Alpha; University House and Delta Delta Delta; Rebec House and Delta Gamma; Judson House and Alpha Omicron Pi; Highland House and Sigma Kappa; and Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega.

House presidents should contact one another immediately to arrange for the number of girls to be exchanged.

Statistics indicate the average person will have three colds between now and March. Or one continual one.

Students to Perform Over KOAC Tonight

Music students Frances Baum and Leona Anderson will be featured on a station KOAC broadcast tonight from 8:30 to 9 p.m.

Miss Baum, piano soloist, will play for the first half of the program. Her numbers include opus 31 number two of Beethoven's "Sonata in D-Minor," the Adagio and Allegretto movements.

From 8:45 to 9, Miss Anderson, lyric soprano, will sing Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," Handel's "Care Selve," Haydn's "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," Brahms' "Dein Blaues Auge," and Brandon's "Love's a Merchant." Margaret Swett will accompany her at the piano.

The 8:30 p.m. student music broadcasts are regular Monday night features on KOAC.

Vets Apply for State Aid

Veterans desiring state aid, whether or not they obtained it last term, must again notify the veterans' county in Emerald Hall, James D. Kline, assistant registrar, stated Friday.

Education Meet Begins Jan. 28

A one-day symposium on secondary education will be held Jan. 28 by the University School of Education.

Speakers will be Dr. Leonard V. Koos, who is serving as visiting professor of education during the winter quarter, and Dr. Minard Stout, principal of University High School, Minneapolis, Minn. Dean William J. Maucker from the University of Montana in Bozeman, and Dr. Julio Bortolozzo, principal of Jefferson High School in Portland, will also be present.

Talks will be given at a 10 a.m. session, followed by discussion sections, extra-curricular activities, and evaluation.

Interested University students may attend the morning session.

YMCA to Sponsor Wednesday Dance

The first YMCA-sponsored afternoon mixer dance will be held Wednesday from 4 to 5:30, in Gerlinger Annex.

The "Y" intends to make the dances regular weekly affairs according to Bob Bozarth, YMCA social chairman.

Admission of ten cents will be charged to cover incidental expenses and cokes will be sold.

Women to Hold Business Meet

Phi Chi Theta, business women's honorary, will sponsor the third annual Women's Business Conference on the University campus Jan. 19.

Conference activities will include addresses by prominent business women in the fields of personnel, accounting, and retail merchandizing.

Participants will be former members of Phi Chi Theta in the Portland area, local business women, and women employed on the campus.

Oregon State business and technology faculty and members of the OSC Phi Chi Theta chapter have been invited to attend, Johanne Wong, president of the honorary stated.

An address by Victor P. Morris, dean of business administration, will open the conference at 1:30 p.m. in Alumni Hall, Gerlinger.

An informal afternoon tea and dinner at the Faculty club will supplement conference discussion, Miss Wong added.

'Les Thelemites' Will Hear Student

"Les Thelemites," French club, will hear Elizabeth Kratt, senior in French, tell of her junior year in France at their meeting at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, in Wesley House.

Miss Kratt spent last year in France studying at the Sorbonne under a plan sponsored by Sweet Briar College, Virginia.

Interested students of French, from first year on, are invited to hear Miss Kratt's talk and to join in French songs and conversation. Refreshments will be served.

Civil Service Day Set for Feb. 23

Feb. 23 was set as public service employment day on the University campus at a federal personnel meeting Thursday in Portland attended by Karl W. Onthank, director of the graduate placement service.

The day will combine recruiting of 1950 graduates for the federal service with providing information on the service to all interested students, Onthank reported. Several federal officials will conduct the day's program.

Federal representatives from the entire state attended the Portland meeting.

How this independent businessman got his start

We'd like you to meet a man who has hung out his own shingle.

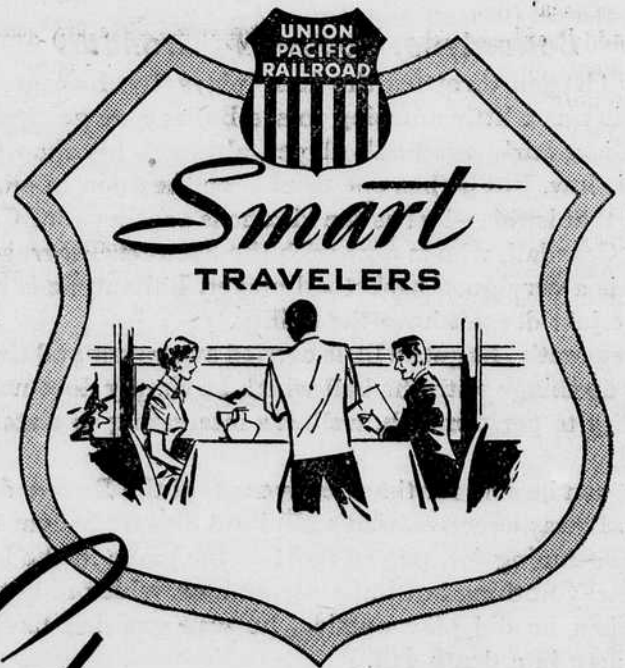

This Standard of California Distributor, like those all over the West, works as an independent businessman . . . and here's how we helped him get his start.

We first turned over a going business to him with a good list of customers. We helped him learn the best methods of serving his neighbors well . . . supplied the finest products, expert engineering help in meeting tough lubricating problems, the benefits of all our laboratory research and every other practical assistance possible.

He, in turn, supplied the ingenuity, skill and ambition of a man who is working for himself.

This teamwork between small and large business has benefitted everyone.

Your Standard Distributor has his roots and interests right in his own town; the money he makes stays in your community. And because he knows local conditions through long experience and is building his own business, he does a better job for us by doing an outstandingly good job of serving you.
